EXPERTS AGAINST ISLE OF SAFETY?

Metropolitan Designers Frown Upon Comfort Station Plan

The near approach of municipal budget making time for 1916 has aroused a whole lot of conjecture throughout the city as to just what Harrisburg means to do with the $25,000 loan authorized for the construction of an "isle of safety" and public comfort station in Market Square.

Recent Deaths in Central Pennsylvania

Mount Joy.—Joseph Wolf, an aged Civil War veteran, who formerly lived here, died on Tuesday at the home of Herman Bessel, near Moore's Mill, three miles southeast of Mount Joy. He was 87 years old and was a member of Lieutenant David H. Nissley Post, No. 478, Grand Army of the Republic.

Waynesboro.—Waynesboro relatives have received word of the death of Mrs. Mary E. Newcomer, aged 85 years, widow of Dr. David Newcomer, Sunday, at her home at Friday, Oct. 16.

NEW VERSION OF SODOM BURNING

Negro Revivalist Gives Startling Details of Quest of Righteous

Special to The Telegraph St. Louis, Dec. 15.—The Rev. Dr. Alexander Willbanks, of Washington, the self-styled "Black Billy Sunday," has arrived in St. Louis and, to use his own phrase, "is larruping the devil around the stump and chasing him out of St. Louis."

"The negro is not like the white person," he said. "When the negro gets religion he is about as big a lead. And I am preaching it over the place." And he did. So effectively, did he preach the gospel that more than 100 of his 400 listeners shouted in unison when he reached the climax of his sermon. And two negroes had to be held for fear they might injure themselves or others in their religious ecstasy. Dozens leaped to their feet with joy, some extending their hands heavenward as they supplicated their Maker to forgive the errors of the past.

door on the plains of Mamre, with the salubrious breeze blowing about him, and the foxes getting ready to leave their holes and the everlasting stars about to come out, when angels appeared to Abraham, and he gave them meat. Then they went away, and the Lord told him he was going to burn up Sodom and Gomorrah.

and his congregation joined in the chant. "Then two angels appeared to Lot as he sat in the gate of Sodom. Zephyrs were being wafted pleasantly about, and all was peaceable and quiet. Old Sol had hid himself for the night, and beauteous Venus had unveiled her face to the plains of men. And Lot took the angels in and he gave them meat. And the angels told him to pack up and fly away, because God was going to burn Sodom."

tellin' her to keep her eyes to the front. Finally she took just one little peep, and then the Lord he turned her into great pillar of salt—that's just what He did, brethren.
