MISS HOEPFER IS MARRIED AT HOME

Ring Ceremony Performed by Dr. Mudge Under Canopy of Christmas Greens

One of the prettiest of weddings was that of Miss Elfreda Hoepfer, only daughter of Charles Hoepfer, 1435 Derry street, to Irvin Bingham of Beaver-town, Pa., Wednesday evening, December 15, at the bride's home. The Rev. Dr. Lewis Seymour Mudge of the Pine Street Presbyterian Church, officiated, using the ring ceremony, the bridal pair standing under a canopy of white blossoms and Christmas greens. The decorations were of tiny pine and spruce trees giving a holiday effect.

The bride wore a dainty costume of white point de esprit over crepe meteeur, with garnitures of rose point lace. She carried a shower of bride roses and sweetpeas. The maid of honor, Miss Ida Bingham of Beaver-town, wore white crepe voile with edgings of handmade point lace and carried a bouquet of pink roses and freesia. The ribbon bearers were Mrs. C. C. Cripple and Miss Alma Wetzel. Little Miss Helen Arline Hoepfer, niece of the bride was ring bearer and Dr. Guy Snyder was best man.

Congratulations and wedding supper followed the service. The invited guests were: Mr. and Mrs. C. Hoepfer, Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Hoepfer and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hummelstown Orchestra in Concert at Penbrook Hummelstown musical talent in the shape of Ruf's Symphony Orchestra invaded Penbrook last evening, giving a recital at St. Andrew's Reformed Church both successful and entertaining. Under the leadership of Professor H. A. Lindsay, violinist, a program was presented, the numbers perhaps most pleasing being Dvorak's "Humoresque" and Professor Lindsay's solos. The pastor of the church, the Rev. Walter R. Hartzell, was assisted by the Rev. Harry Nelson Basler, who gave an interesting talk on the "Significance and Value of Music to a Community." In addition to the orchestral features Miss Vera Care, an Irving College graduate, of Lincolnton, contributed some excellent readings, and Miss Helen Shoemaker and Charles Schults, both members of the symphony organization, sang solos.

ANNOUNCEMENT PARTY

Members of the Sigma Beta Sigma Sorority and a number of other young ladies were delightfully entertained last evening at a little "hon partie" at the home of Dr. J. L. Daugherty. The surprise of the evening came when Mrs. Daugherty announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Ethel Marguerite Daugherty, to John Donald Bitner.

HOME FOR HOLIDAYS

Miss Dorothy Morgan, industrial secretary of the Y. W. C. A., Fourth and Walnut streets, leaves to-morrow for her home at Williamsport to remain during the holidays.

Aunt Este Has Surprise For the School Children

One of the chief features of the Christmas story hours to-morrow afternoon at the Technical high school, under the direction of the Story Telling Club, will be the appearance of "Aunt Este," the Telegraph's "story lady," who will have the nicest kind of a surprise for the youngsters.

Stories will be told to the younger children from 2 to 3 o'clock and those over 12 years of age from 3.30 to 4.30. There will be no admission, the club giving this entertainment free to the children of the city.

Christmas Carol Service at Market Square Church

The choir of Market Square Presbyterian Church will hold its annual Christmas carol service in the evening on Sunday, December 19. Preceding the service there will be an organ recital of the following numbers: Christmas pastorale, "Holy Night," Harker; Fiat Lux, Dubois; pastorale from the First Sonata, Gullmant. The choir will sing the following carols: "God Rest Ye Merry, Gentlemen," traditional;

"Naught is so Sweet," old French carol; "A Joyful Christmas Song," Gevaert; "When Christ Was Born," early Christian hymn; "All My Heart This Night Rejoices," Gow; Miss Maudaugh will sing "An Old Sacred Lullaby" and Mrs. Harris will sing "Three Kings Have Journeyed from the Eastern Land," by Cornelius, with chorale accompaniment by Walter Damrosch, and "Holy Night," the Old German carol. The men's chorus will sing the old thirteenth century carol, "Draw Nigh, Emmanuel," from the bell tower. Dr. John C. Reed, violinist, will play Schubert's Ave Maria. The offertory will be the Christmas pastorale by Rogers and the postlude, "Marche des Rois Mages," by Dubois.

At the morning service the music will be as follows: Prelude, Toccata and Christmas Musette, Mally; carol, "Hark! What Mean Those Holy Voices?" Sullivan; Old Bohemian carols, "Hail, All Hail, the Glorious Morn" and "Come All Ye Shepherds;" offertory, Adoration of the Shepherds; Beebe; carol, "No Candle Was

There and No Fire," Lehmann, Mrs. Harris; postlude, Gloria in Excelsis Deo, Dunham.

The choir is under the leadership of Mrs. Wilbur F. Harris, with Mrs. John R. Henry as organist.

St. John's Choir To Sing "Holy Night," by Ashford

At special Christmas services, Sunday evening, December 19, at 7.30 o'clock in St. John's Reformed Church, Fourth and Maclay streets, the Cantata "Holy Night" by Ashford, will be sung by a chorus of twenty-five voices, under the direction of H. W. Kettel, assisted by Miss Catherine Hulkes at the pipeorgan. This cantata is one of the best works of the author and is above the ordinary Christmas cantatas both in the beauty of its text and the superiority of its music and promises to be a very pleasing service. The soloists are Mrs. Charles Hoke and Mrs. George Geide, soprano; Mrs. H. W. Kettel, contralto; Charles Hoke, Jacob Smith and Edward Meck, bass, and Paul Reber, tenor.

MRS. LOGAN IS HOSTESS
