Southern Honeymoon After Their Marriage Today

MRS. STANLEY P. SCHOLL

The marriage of Miss Sara Jean The marriage of Miss Sara Jean McCaskey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McCaskey, of Pittsburgh, to Stanley Pattison Scholl, of Landisburg, was an interesting event of to-day, taking place at noon at the Fourth Street Church of God, with the pastor, the Rev. William N. Yates, officiating. Ferns and Christmas greenery adorned the altar.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a stylish traveling costume of dark brown velours with fur trimmings. A white velours hat with white quill and a corsage bouquet of violets, lilies of the valley and orchids.

The wedding journey, which includes Washington and southern pleasure resorts, will be followed by a residence at 1327 Derry street in their newly furnished apartments, where Mr. and Mrs. Scholl will be "at home" to their friends after January 1.

The bride is a graduate of the Central high school, class of 1909, and the New Bloomfield Academy, 1910. Mr. Scholl, a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Scholl, of Landisburg, is also a graduate of the New Bloomfield Academy, and for several years has been connected with the Adams Express McCaskey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

emy, and for several years has been connected with the Adams Express Company in this city.

Miss Madaline McKee Has Entered Her "Teens'

The thirteenth birthday of Miss Madaline McKee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. McKee, 209 Boas street, was merrily celebrated with a little party at her home, Christmas greens and brilliant scarlet poinsettias made the house attractive and the young girls played games and enjoyed contests and refreshments. Music and dancing followed, with the presentation of pretty gifts to the young hostess.

There's a great deal of interest taken in the work of the various clubs of the Y. W. C. A. not only along the lines of self-help but in sharing with others less fortunate the good things coming to the club members.

The Central High School Club of the association gave an interesting exhibition of dolls, numbering nearly a hundred, collected and dressed by the members and their friends, to be distributed with the baskets put out at Christmas-time by the clubs of the Y. W. C. A. through the Visiting Nurse Association and the Associated Aid Society. These dolls were of various sizes, kinds and nationalities, ranging from the Esquimaux to little piccaninnies, and made a fine display. The girls had candy and Red Cross stamp booths and made quite a little money to add to their treasury.

The T. M. T. M., the R. F. O. M. and the Monito Clubs of the Y. W. C. A. are planning baskets of Christmas dinners to be given not to the very poor alone, but to families who are in hard luck because of the disability of the wage-earner or lack of work. These baskets will contain materials for a palatable holiday dinner and will also contain candles furnished by the girls of the domestic science classes of the Y. W. C. A. The Central High School Club of the
