Miss Katherine Noland in New York Getting Tips For Big Ball

Should you be lucky enough to sneak a peek at the next rehearsal January 4 of the dancing youths and maidens who will star at the Pageant Ball, you might get a partial idea of what Harrisburg's great midwinter benefit social function is going to be.

Miss Katherine Noland who will train the pick of the city's dancing youths and maidens, is in New York for the express purpose of getting tips on costumes, color effects and so on.

The Pageant Ball as the committee has decided to call the coming benefit, will be held in Chestnut Street Auditorium January 29; the finance committee of the Associated Aids Societies which is serving as a committee of arrangements, has planned something a little more gorgeous than Harrisburg has ever known.

The Dance in the Garden Details as to color and decorative schemes have not yet been definitely decided upon but the committee has arranged to transform Chestnut Street auditorium into a flowering garden—probably of old Japan—on a scale never before attempted here.

That the Pageant of Dancing will depict the four periods in history—the dances of antiquity, of the middle ages, the renaissance and the nineteenth century—is generally known.

Keep the Ball Rolling! Would you like to see the gavotte danced much as Marie Antoinette did it round about the year 1790 in Paris?

Give "Him" a pair of Stetson Shoes — any old size—we'll fit him after Christmas.

Or, if you want the best that's made, give him Edwin Clapp, the highest grade shoes in the world for men.

Sorosis For Women We haven't heard to date of any women being disappointed in a pair of Sorosis Shoes or Slippers for a gift.
