SPECIAL AUDITOR HAS ANOTHER JOB

Officer Appointed by Court Will Examine Treasurer's Mercantile Accounts

The special auditor who will be appointed by the Dauphin County Court soon after the beginning of the new year to examine the accounts of the prothonotary, recorder of deeds and register of wills will have an additional job on his hands this year.

The special officer will have to go over the books of the county treasurer in so far as the collection and settlement of mercantile tax is concerned.

OH LISTEN KIDS! VACATION'S NEAR

Schools Will Close Tomorrow Afternoon For Remainder of the Year

Oh, listen, fellas and girls! Get this: Christmas vacation begins tomorrow afternoon in the public schools of the city.

When the thousands of youngsters put away their books at the close of the day's Yuletide exercises, they will forget all about readin', ritin' and 'rithmetic and algebra and history and so forth until Monday morning, January 3, 1916.

In every room a special Christmas program will be observed; for days there has been many an at-home rehearsal of Christmas "pieces," while the school blackboards have blossomed forth with Santas, Christmas trees, reindeer and so on—the work of student artists. Holly wreaths, spruce boughs, aye, even mistletoe!—in some rooms—help out in the decorations.

The Christmastide will be made especially attractive for the small youngsters of the open-air schools

The turnpike to be bought is four and three-quarter miles in length and will cost the State $9,500. Negotiations have been under way for some time and the company will be paid out of the $250,000 appropriated by the last Legislature for purchase of turnpikes. Steps are under way for
