WILKES-BARRE IS CHRISTMAS BILL

Coal Barons Meet Independents Saturday Night; Reading Here During Xmas Week

The Harrisburg Independents will have as their opponents Christmas night, the fast Wilkes-Barre team. The Barons played the locals last season, and in an exciting game were defeated by three points. To get them back this season, the Harrisburg management is compelled to give them a higher guarantee than any other independent team on the schedule.

Most of the players on the Wilkes-Barre team play on different teams in the Pennsylvania State League, but on barnstorming trips play as the Wilkes-Barre Independents.

The locals showed great improvement in their work last Saturday against the York team, especially on the defense, in the first half, holding the York boys to five points. The locals hope to continue the improvement, so as to play the same fast game they did last season.

In order to compete with the fast teams on their schedule, the locals must show a very fast game, for most of the games after Christmas until the end of the season are with Pennsylvania State League, and Eastern League teams. The next Eastern team to play here will be Reading. Manager Geisel has secured this five as a mid-week attraction for Christmas week.

Penn's Schedule Ready; Includes Nine Contests

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 23.—Manager Lovett, of Penn's football team, has announced the schedule for the coming year. The team will take two trips, as in previous years, going to Ann Arbor, where Michigan will be played, and meeting the University of Pittsburgh at Forbes Field, in Pittsburgh.

There are nine games on the list instead of ten, as formerly. Each one should be a hard contest. The shortening of the schedule necessitated the dropping of the Wednesday afternoon game, and Albright is not given a date. Swarthmore will take the place of Annapolis team, which was unable to come to Philadelphia on October fourteen.

The schedule follows: West Virginia at Franklin Field, September 30; Franklin and Marshall at Franklin Field, October 7; Swarthmore at Franklin Field, October 14; Penn State at Franklin Field, October 21; Pittsburgh at Pittsburgh, October 28; Lafayette at Franklin Field, November 4; Michigan at Ann Arbor, November 13; Dartmouth at Franklin Field, November 18; Cornell at Franklin Field, November 30.

Tech Plays Middletown: Wrestling Between Halves

Tech High tossers to-morrow night will lineup against Middletown High five at Middletown. Middletown has a clean slate.

As an added attraction for the patrons in the lower end town George Fitzpatrick, manager of the Tech wrestling team will send down several of his men to give an exhibition between the halves of the game. The teams will likely take the floor with these players:

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED

Shippensburg, Pa., Dec. 23.—The Christian Endeavor Society of the Messiah United Brethren Church held its annual election and the following officers were elected: President, Wayne Jacob; vice-president, W. Clark Sheaffer; secretary, Walter Diehl; treasurer, Mabel Bursfield; chorister, Frank Phillips; leader, Mrs. Clyde Coover; junior superintendent, Mrs. Mary Morrow.

WEST END CLUB MEN GET THREE DEER

WOMEN TO STUDY HEALTH PROBLEMS

Medical College Will Give Course in Elementary Medicine For Mothers

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 21.—The first course in elementary medicine and health problems ever offered to the lay public has been arranged by the Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania for the benefit of clubwomen, social workers and mothers of families in Philadelphia.

The course will consist of lectures by the most specialists and educators of the teaching staff of the college, delivered in the ordinary untechnical language of every day life. It will cover all the ordinary problems which women have to deal with in keeping themselves and others well. The health of the individual will be first exhaustively discussed, then the health of the family will be taken up and afterward matters pertaining to the health and sanitation of the community. The instruction given will enable students to recognize symptoms of any of the more common forms of ailments and apply appropriate first aid treatment. Students will also be taught to recognize and unsanitary conditions at a glance and their remedy.

The establishment of the new course was the result of a suggestion made by Dr. Richard C. Cabot, of Harvard University, during an address in Philadelphia to the effect that all women social workers ought to have at least the rudiments of a medical education. As a result a committee of clubwomen and social workers of Philadelphia, headed by Miss Mary Ingham, was formed to make arrangements for a course which would supply the instruction needed. Women of Philadelphia interested in matters of health and sanitation took up with the idea at once. Applications for enrollment of the new course were received from women in all parts of the city.

The new course will supply instruction, the absence of which has long been felt and lamented by such prominent women in social service as Miss Jane Addams, of Hull House of Chicago, and Miss Florence Sanvile of the Consumers League of Philadelphia. It has been felt for years that the most serious question which social service workers have to meet in the course of their duty are questions relating to health and sanitation. Leaders in such work have complained from time immemorial that young men and women applicants for positions under them have not been fitted in any way by education for the work they were to perform and that when brought face to face with conditions of sickness and evils arising from bad sanitary conditions they were helpless. The Woman's Medical College course is designed to supply this need and to turn out social service workers fitted to cope with such cases as they may be expected to meet most frequently.

The course, consisting of twelve lectures to be given one each week is as follows: Normal Activities of the Human Body, by Dr. Ruth Webster Lathrop; Principles of Nutrition, by Dr. Martha Tracy; Food and Efficiency, by Dr. Martha Tracy; Dangers From Impure Food, by Dr. Henry Leffman; Health Problems of Women and Girls, by Dr. Ella B. Everett; Problems of Prenatal Care, by Dr. Alice Weld Tallant; The Newborn Baby and its Needs, by Dr. Alice Weld Tallant; The Care and Feeding of Children, by Dr. Theodore Le Bonnier; Domestic and Municipal Control of Transmissible Diseases, by Dr. Henry Leffman; Health of School Children, by Dr. Ellen Caver Potter; Personal Hygiene, by Dr. Florence Harvey Richards; Conditions and Care in Old Age, by Dr. Arthur A. Stevens.

Pennsylvania Post Men Held For Court on Libel Charges Brought by Nelson

Hagerstown, Md., Dec. 23.—Hanging on to the edge of a sheet of ice with his body dangling in twelve feet of water in the dam of the Thurmont Power Company, Charles Jones, aged 12 years, was rescued in a novel manner by Frank Harne, formerly a cowboy. Harne was diving past the spot where Jones was in the water, and was attracted by the youth's cries for help. Making a lasso of his reins, Harne walked as far out on the ice as he dared and threw the noose over the boy's head. Jones was pulled to safety in a semiconscious condition.

Scholastic Standards at Technical High Raised; Recitations Count More

Scholastic standards at the Technical High school have been raised, according to an announcement made recently by Principal C. B. Eger. Beginning with the June examinations, 70 will be the passing grade instead of 65 as heretofore. At the midway examinations in February, the examination mark will count one-fourth, while the grade attained in daily recitation will count three-fourths of the final grade. The new method of marking will put a higher premium on the daily recitation.

WILL GIVE PLAY

Shippensburg, Pa., Dec. 23.—The high school pupils will give a home talent play, called "At the End of the Rainbow." This promises to be a good play.

Santa Claus Distributes Letters and Cardigans; Honors For Players on Scrub Team

Santa Claus was to-day a welcome visitor to Tech High school, handing out letters and cardigans. The distribution brought much cheer to the students, and they indulged in a one-half hour celebration.

The jolly saint handed out 19 "T's" and five cardigans to the Tech players. The senior members who received the cardigans are Manager Evans, Matthews, Killinger, McKay and Beck. Those who received the varsity letter are Lloyd, Todd, Britsch, Wear, Cocklin, Cole, McCurdy, Snyder, Lauster, Captain Miller, Fitzpatrick, Phillip, Frisch and Mell. The members of the second team that won from the Central scrubs received the "T. H. S." They are: Harry Miller, Williams, Jompton, Lisse, Kay, Brough, McGann, Essig, Hoerner, Ebner, Frock, Moltz, Garman, Gipple, McFarland, Landts and Manager George Stark.

Uncensored War News

New York, Dec. 23.—Miss Helen Keller and other blind persons in the United States are obtaining uncensored news from the capitals of belligerents in Europe in newspapers published for the blind in London, Paris, Berlin and Vienna, according to Miss Keller. These newspapers are not censored, she says, because they are printed in shorthand Braille, a point type used for the blind which the censors are unable to read. "The uncensored accounts of conditions in the warring countries tell me the true situation among the working people and the intolerable conditions that surround them," said Miss Keller. "Their hearts are almost at the breaking point."

BASEBALL PEACE GIFT FOR FANS

Federal League Passes With Signing of Agreement; One Point Left With Committee

Cincinnati, O., Dec. 23.—The Christmas present of the National League to the baseball fans of the country is peace. After a two days' conference, which ended at 9 o'clock last night, the joint peace committee of the two warring factions came to a final agreement on all details with exception, and the peace agreement was signed and sealed by both parties to the conference.

The Federal League no longer exists. Its suit against the National Commission in the United States court in Chicago will be withdrawn at once and the league which came within an ace of disrupting the national pastime vanishes into history. The only point on which a final settlement was not reached is the terms on which the International League shall regain its lost territory in Baltimore and Buffalo. This matter was freely discussed and was finally left to a committee of seven members who will meet in this city on January 3, at the time of the annual meeting of the National Commission. This committee was given full power to act and both sides agreed to abide by its decision. Whereupon the peace agreement was drawn up, signed and sealed, and the cruel baseball war was officially declared to be a thing of the past. The provisions in brief follow:

The Federal League players are made eligible to play in organized baseball. That the Federal League assumes all the contracts of all of its clubs, as a league and not as individual clubs. That Charles Weeghman, president of the Chicago Federals, will purchase the Chicago Nationals from Charles P. Taft.

That Philip Ball, of St. Louis, will purchase the St. Louis American League Club. That the Ward interest in the Brooklyn Federal League Club will be reimbursed, both National and American League assuming this burden.

Those who signed the agreement were: August Herrmann, chairman of the National Commission; President John K. Tener, of the National League; President B. E. Johnson, of the American League; President Jas. A. Gilmore, of the Federal League; President Charles Weeghman, of the Chicago Federal League club; Harry Sinclair, of the Newark Federal League Club; Secretary J. H. Farrell, of the National Association; President Edward Barrow, of the International League, and President Thos. Washington, of the American Association.

When asked what disposition would be made of the suit of the Federal League against organized baseball changing violation of the anti-trust law now pending before Judge Landis in Chicago, President Tener of the National League, acting as spokesman, said: "The suit will be withdrawn."

News From Sportland

Successful deer hunters near Germantown were George Gibbons, Frank A. Arnold and W. R. Mumper. They killed one four-spiked buck, James J. Butler, Newark Federal League, was to-day elected captain of the Fordham University football eleven. The board of governors of the Motor Club of Harrisburg will meet January 4 at the home of George W. Owen, Mechanicsburg.

In the Elks bowling league last night the Athletics defeated the Braves; scores, 243 to 213. Winners in the double-header in the Casino Independent League last night were the Recruits, who defeated the Majestics, scores 24 to 240, and Oregon, who defeated the Lancers, scores 2330 to 2163.

DECORATIONS FEATURE

A feature of the Christmas exercises at the open-air schools exercises yesterday which were conducted by the Civic Club were the decorations, Christmas trees, other evergreens, flowers, etc., helped out wonderfully in a scheme that was donated and worked out by Little, the florist.

WELLY'S CORNER

"Billy" Tamm, last season's utility player on the Harrisburg International team, will, in all probability wear a Buffalo uniform next season. He is the property of the New York Yankees, and if not needed will be farmed to Manager Donovan. Tamm is a real star. The New York Americans have men in their line-up not half as good as this boy.

Five seniors at Tech walked out of school to-day wearing cardigan jackets. No Christmas gift will bring any greater pleasure. It requires hard work and many sacrifices to land athletic recognition.

Peace came last night in the baseball war. It was a hard-earned victory for organized baseball, and to John K. Tener, president of the National League belongs the credit for bringing a settlement that will mean better baseball. While it was not wholly a complete surrender on the part of the Federals, the outlaws will have to admit they were in the wrong, and as a punishment stand a greater part of the losses.

Well, the grip had Welly. That's why there was no "corner" the last several days.
