COPPERS AGAIN LEAD MARKET

More Seasoned Issues Neglected; Railroads Show Unusual Activities

By Associated Press
New York, Dec. 23.—Coppers and oils were again the leaders at the outset of to-days moderately active market with the usual neglect of more seasoned issues. Initial gains of substantial fracturing to a full point were recorded by American Smelting, Utah, Anaconda and Tennessee Copper, while Mexican Petroleum rose a point to the new record of 92 1/2. United States Steel scored a fractional advance at the opening, soon adding to its gain. Such specialties as Crucible Steel, Studer, Baker and American Car also were slightly higher, with a further demand for profit taking exercised and the usual effect.

It was declared that the Federal Post Office Department stretched twenty-mile routes of rural mail routes to the detriment of both carrier and patrons. The grangers want the routes shortened so that the rural citizen can be served by mail as he was before the readjustment.
