VENISON FOR WAYNESBORO FEASTS

The Rummage Sales

Christmas week is a week of energetic merchandising.

The stores find the busiest season over and another heavy buying period ahead.

And in the few days in between — the holidays — they must right stocks.

And in addition must provide the novelties desired at this season of the year.

So from every angle of observance the stores are most interesting places to visit.

And the best ones to see are described in the advertising columns of the Telegraph.

Bids For Forty Players Now in Federal Line-Ups

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 24. — There are eighty-four players under contract to clubs which were members of the Federal League, and already bids for forty of them have been made by American and National League clubs, according to James A. Gilmore and Charles Weeghman, who attended the peace meeting in Cincinnati

The Federal League owners expect to have to carry comparatively few contracts, as it is almost certain, Mr. Gilmore said, that the high-salaried, better-known players will be taken over by their late rivals.

Minor league clubs which have claims of players who left their ranks for the Federals will be given opportunity to buy the men who fail to find the majors, according the following the men who fail to find the contract salaries.

One Year; Herrmann

limiting the number of players of each team on the twentieth of May of each

This is part of the baseball peace agreement that was signed here, ac-cording to August Herrmann, chairman of the National Commission. Mr. Herrmann made this announcement when told that Harry Sinclair, one of the Federal League peace conferees, had stated that there would be no player limit in baseball next year.

In the National League the number of players limited to a team is 21, while in the American League the limit is fixed at 25.

while in the American League the limit is fixed at 25.

"Owing to the combination and amalgamation of two clubs in the Federal League to a club in the National and one in the American League, we considered it unjust to ask these clubs to dispose of what would naturally be considered a large number of players," said Mr. Herrmann.

"I estimate that with the Chicago Cubs absorbing the Chicago Federals and the St. Louis Frowns taking in the St. Louis Frowns taking in the St. Louis Frowns taking in the St. Louis Federals, each of these clubs will have close to fifty players at the present time.

"It would be unjust to ask them to dispose of such a large number as would be necessary in order to cut down to the limit under which organized baseball is now working. Therefore, we gave them until 1917 to dispose of the surplus players."

When asked if any or all clubs in the major leagues would be exempt from the limit, or the rule would be abrogated until 1917, Mr. Herrmann said, "Absolutely no!" Pittsburgh, Dec. 24.—Edward W. Gwinner, president of the Pittsburgh Federal League Club, announced yesterday that he was through with baseball for all time, and that his fling had cost him $100,000. He claims to have been kicked out of baseball by the magnates of the National and American Leagues, aided and abetted by several of the Federal owners. He is to be given $50,000 for the improvements he made on the Federal grounds, and told to get the best price he can for the players under contract.

rresidency. Even if I am nominated data in which asked if Roosevelt had been indorsed by Republican National Committeemen, Mr. Taft replied:

"How should I know?"

He was asked if he thought Mr. Roosevelt should become a candidate, this only reply was a smile, the famous Taft, smile. He had no comment to make on the Gary dinner.

Mr. Tatt was then asked if he thought any of Pennsylvania's "native sons" were of presidential caliber. "Pennsylvania has many great citizens," he answered, "but I am not picking candidates. I am through with politics." Bishop Cassel (Gerhart), g. (Bressler), g. Field goals, Parthemore, Snavely, Shaeffer 2, Thornton, Eichelberger 8, Houck, Keim 3, Rupp 4. Bernhardt Clings to Work but Has Disease of Bone

Paris, Dec. 24.—Sarah Bernhardt, a report of whose dangerous illness was denied recently, is now said to be afflicted with a malady of the bones which is obscure and perhaps incurable. It does not prevent her from giving occasional public recitations while sitting in a chair. These performances are artistic and effective.

Madame Bernhardt talks of her American tour and is going ahead with the arrangements. Nevertheless, she appears to be doubtful whether she ever will be in sufficient health and strength to undertake the trip.

Will Play Flute at His Father's Grave Tonight

Gettysburg, Pa., Dec. 24.—In the quiet hours of the night, coming as a solo for which it might seem another music has been stilled. "Adeste Fideles" will at the stroke of twelve Christmas morning burst forth from a flute at the grave of Dr. Henry Casper Diehlman in the graveyard at St. Mary's College, near Emmitsburg. So at his father's grave for thirty-one years has Lawrence Diehlman ushered in each Christmas morning and paid a tribute of music to his father, who for half a century was instructor of music at St. Mary's. "Rain or shine, I'll be there, God willing," said the son.

Soon after the holidays football rule makers will get together for a pown wow. That there will be some changes made in present rules is a foregone conclusion. The style of game will be compared to be changed.

The Blue Ridge League wants Sunday baseball. All games will have to be played outside of Pennsylvania. Chambersburg, Gettysburg and Hander are opposed to the proposition and may withdraw from the league if the other towns agree to have it. The league made money last season and offered an attractive baseball spane. With Sunday baseball there is always trouble, especially in smaller towns. It is said the cost of baseball peace in round figures will be $20,000,000. This does not mean that much in actual cash will change hands, but it means that assets, ball parks, players, money, etc., estimated at that value are involved in the peace transactions.

H. L. Douglass, one of last season's stars in the Blue Ridge League, has been purchased by Barney Dreyfus, of the Pittsburgh National League team. Douglass pitched for Martinsburg and two new Douglass pitched for Martinsburg and two swatched by many scouts. He won nine out of thirteen games and was wanted by the Baltimore Federals.
