In the Amusement World

One hundred million dollar contract has been signed by the Lasky, Morosco, and Pallas Film Companies for the purpose of jointly producing pictures for Paramount. It is a twenty-five-year agreement and represents in advance and guarantees the largest sum of money ever paid over in the history of the motion picture business, it is said. The Paramount Pictures Corporation has signed this contract with its producing companies by the terms of which the best of the world's literature, drama, and music will be brought every city, town, village and hamlet in the United States.

The following telegram, received by the management of the Colonial Moving Picture house, will be of interest to the devotees of the Triangle Films, so recently elevated to popularity at the Colonial Theater, Harrisburg, Pa. Your request to show "Triangle" at ten cents granted after January 1. TRIANGLE FILM COMPANY.

WHAT WOODEN MEN CAN DO

Miss Lillian Jewell Has a Whole Troop of Lumber Yard Performers

MISS LILLIAN JEWELL

If your wife has ever stooped to the barbarous habit of calling you a wooden man there is some consolation in the thought that Miss Lillian Jewell, a vaudeville woman, has invented a scheme by which wooden men are very valuable. She has a whole company of wooden men who give a show all by themselves, and she is going to bring her company to Harrisburg to-morrow to take part in the Majestic's bill for the latter half of the week.

Miss Jewell's "Miniature Performers" is an act in which artificial performers give a whole show. It is a sort of theater within a theater. Miss Jewell has finished putting her wooden men through their routine of stage work and the audience usually is forced to wonder how these inanimate little creatures are made to act so humanly. This "Miniature Review" has an especial appeal to children, although the grown-ups are pretty sure to enjoy it too.

EMMA DUNN HERE FRIDAY

At the Orpheum Theater on Friday and Saturday nights, with a Saturday matinee, a new dramatic play by Lotie M. Meany, entitled "Her Price," which has just ended a successful engagement at the Grand Opera House in Philadelphia, will be given its original presentation here, with the same excellent scenery as was shown in Philadelphia.

The principal character in the play, that of Doris Fenton, will be portrayed by Miss Emma Dunn, best remembered perhaps for her excellent acting in the title part of "Mother" a few seasons ago. The story of the play is centered about a young woman of birth and breeding who, through a series of circumstances, since the death of her father, is the employment given her as secretary to Dr. Greyson, an old friend of her family. Doris falls in love with Kirk Brentwood, a ne'er-do-well son of a prominent man and through a series of selfish manipulations, discovers she is accused of theft and that detectives are following her to make an arrest. Her wrath at the revelation of his true self becomes so great that she loses what is left of her sympathetic qualities and womanly instincts, and vows that she will make Brentwood suffer as she has suffered. In addition to this, the play is every happiness will be the price of his disloyalty to her. To this end she devises a plan to wreck his life, and previous to the last scene in the play, sees her work accomplished. But here the story takes on an entirely new turn, after a series of gripping and intense situations, a happy ending is the result, after a series of gripping and intense situations, a happy ending is the result, after a series of gripping and intense situations, a happy ending is the result.

$1000 IN PRIZES

Many interesting features in Majestic's New Year's Eve Carnival. Entries are being received at the Majestic Theater for the various contests to take place on the occasion of the vaudeville carnival arranged for New Year's eve. Cash prizes have been offered for the best dancers, best Charles Chaplin, and other stunts appropriate to the carnival spirit. A new feature announced to-day by the management is a special prize for the person who identifies the Majestic's "Miss New Year" who will be represented by a girl in the audience at the 10:30 show Friday evening. The Majestic management does not say whether this girl will be in costume or not, she may be in the lobby, in the parquet, balcony or gallery, but she will be somewhere in

If You Have Tuberculosis

It is most important that you should pay proper attention to diet and living conditions, and get plenty of rest and fresh air day and night. Many a life claimed by this disease might have been saved by timely attention to these matters. In most cases, however, a breakdown system needs assistance. Under these circumstances, try Eckman's Alternative, a lime treatment which has the unique quality of being easily assimilated by the average person.

Give Nature every chance, but strengthen your own chances by using this remedy, which has effected beneficial results in many cases.

No undue claims are made for it, but it is safe to try, for it contains no opiates, narcotics or habit-forming drugs. From your druggist or direct.

IS THIS THE FORBIDDEN FRUIT?

Also within the boundaries of the traditional Eden, and between the rivers, just where the armies are now fighting, is one of the great licentious fields of the world. Here the plant grows wild, and thousands of the natives dig for its root, which they stack up in huge piles along the Tigris shore, and bale it ready to be shipped on its long journey to America.—The Christian Herald.

Your request to show Triangle at ten cents granted after January first

Triangle Film Co

BY a special arrangement with the Triangle film manufacturers, Wilmer, Vincent and Appel have succeeded in adopting a general ten cent price for the Triangle pictures at the Colonial Theater beginning next Monday.

While the Triangle Company has always insisted that the evening prices at the theaters showing their pictures should be not less than fifteen cents, they have now acceded to the request of the Colonial management, with the result that beginning with the New Year the price of admission all over the theater, evenings as well as afternoons, will be ten cents, for adults and five cents for children. The same good service will be continued.
