No One Willing to Back Somers; Franchise Is on the Market

Special to the Telegraph

Cleveland, Ohio, Dec. 30 .- The principal matter before the special meeting of baseball magnates of the American League here yesterday was the settlement of the Cleveland club's fate. Prior to the meeting, which was set for 12 o'clock, George P. Staele, representing the bankers' committee, which is handling the affairs of C. W. Somers, owner of the local club, announced ers, owner of the local club, announced that the Cleveiand holdings must be sold. He said no proposition for continuing Somers in charge would be considered by the bankers.

President B. B. Johnson and club owners appeared to face the necessity of finding a buyer for the club. Johnson said that if the club is sold, as seems certain, it will go to outside capitalists, as no one has been found in Cleveland who is willing to bid for it.

Prominently mentioned as possible buyers among baseball men here are Ed Gwinner, owner of the Pittsburgh Federals, and Harry Sinclair, liquidating agent for the Federal League. Those present at noon for yesterday's meeting were President Johnson, owners Ruppert and Huston, of New York; Navin, of Detroit; Comiskey, of Chicago, and Lannin, of Boston.

During the afternoon Roger Bresnahan, of the Chicago National League club, made an offer to Somers for the Cleveland American Association team, which is also among Somers' properties. Bresnahan represents Toledocapitalists, who propose to move the team to that city in case a deal is closed.

NEWPORT'S BUNCH OF SUCCESSFUL DEER HUNTERS

Special to the Telegraph

Newport, Pa., Dec. 30.—The Newport Hunting Club, one of the oldest organizations in this section, had a successful season. The president is William H. Kepner, one of the best known nimrods for many miles around. This year tents were pitched in Treaster Valley, eight miles from Milroy, Mifflin county.

The first week's outing was insuccessful, but on the first day of the second week Frank Flickinger, unaided, laid low a four-pronged buck. A second deer was killed by Samuel Steckley and E. S. L. Soule, and the third by Warren Hunter and George Shull.

The last deer killed was jumped in Union county, killed in Snyder county, carried into Mifflin county and brought to Perry county.

Praise For Shevlin From Prof. R. N. Corwin

Special to the Telegraph New Haven, Conn., Dec. 30 .- Prof. Robert N. Corwin, chairman of the Yale athletic committee, when informed of the death of Mr. Shevlin,

"Mr. Shevlin's death will come as a great shock to Yale men, for he was widely known to a large circle of graduates and greatly beloved by all who knew him. His loss will be felt, specially by football men. The football management owes him a large debt of gratitude for the sacrifices he made repeatedly to help our teams out of trouble. He will be missed as a friend, adviser and coach. During the present season, when he gave his time and effort so freely to the building up of the 1915 team, he gained the confidence and friendship of the whole squad."

MANAGER JONES Postpone League Meeting CALLS OFF FIGHT

Match Was Not Taken Seriously by Sporting World; Willard May Meet Moran

New Orleans, La., Dec. 30.—The thirty-round fight for the heavyweight championship of the world, scheduled for March 4 in this city between Jess Willard and Fred Fulton, of Minnesota, was definitely declared off here late yesterday by Tom Jones, Willard's manager, and Tommy Burns, local promoter, who was a partner of Dominick J. Tortorich in promoting the fight.

When Manager Jones arrived he was quick to grasp the situation. With the lines of rivalry clearly drawn, the promoters pulling in opposite directions and the newspapers lukewarm to the proposition, Jones could not see Willard's purse of $32,500 forthcoming.

They arrived last night, a few hours after their dramatic runaway wedding in New York, and have been in seclusion all day in a suite at the Hotel Dennis. After spending 12 hours virtually prisoners. Dona and his Titian-haired bride admitted their identity over the telephone.

Later with her arms clasped about her boyish-looking husband's neck the Countess, who claims to be worth $300,000, quoted poetry from one of her own books to prove how happy she is in her freedom from the madhouse, where Harry Thaw spent many years, and how proud she is of her youthful husband.

Woman Confesses She Killed Her Husband

Lancaster, Pa., Dec. 30.—The police last evening arrested Mrs. John H. Eisenberger for the murder of her husband, early on the morning of December 18, at their home.

The day following Eisenberger's death the coroner, acting on the wife's statement that she had been aroused by a pistol shot and found her husband dead in bed, his pistol by his side, rendered a verdict of suicide. But the suspicious circumstances led to an investigation, and the woman's arrest followed. She soon afterward confessed killing her husband. A boarder of the family, Henry Weber, is held pending an investigation, though Mrs. Eisenberger exonerates him from all knowledge of the crime. She says she was impelled to the act by her husband's brutal treatment, but the police think it was committed to secure the $700 insurance on his life.

Barnes to Appeal Lost Roosevelt Libel Suit

New York, Dec. 30.—Counsel for William Barnes announced yesterday an appeal will be taken to the appellate division of the Supreme Court, in the suit for libel brought by Barnes against former President Theodore Roosevelt, which resulted in a verdict for the defendant.

This action has been made possible by the formal entry in Syracuse a few days ago of the judgment of the lower court, and the payment by Barnes of the costs of the suit.

EDUCATIONAL

Special to the Telegraph Washington, D. C., Dec. 30.—Manager Griffith, of the Nationals, declared his willingness yesterday to turn First Baseman Chick Gandil, Second Baseman Ray Morgan and Pitcher Joe Boehling over to the Cleveland club if such action will benefit the Indians. Gandil will be delighted to play in Cleveland, Morgan and Boehling have always done well in Cleveland. Ban Johnson is in favor of the plan. Griffith says the question of payment for the players will be easily disposed of if Somers wants them.

Summer baseball is looming up in the west. It is said nine colleges have agreed to play the game, and permit players to earn a vacation.

In ten years the death toll in all Fred Fulton is of the opinion that he will eventually meet Willard, but not on a long battle. Sports was 943. During the present year there were 70 fatalities, two of which were in this vicinity. Guy M. Ommert was hit by pitched ball, and Roy C. Kistler of Marysville, was hit on the head with a ball. Both died in the Harrisburg hospital.
