County Commissioners Reduce County Debt

The County Commissioners retiring to-day, Messrs. Hoffman and Miller, Republicans, and John H. Eby, Democrat, made marked reductions in the county debt during the past four years.

During the two terms of Commissioners Miller and Hoffman the debt was greatly reduced. In 1914 the Commissioners expended $7,096.50 on improvements made at the Dauphin county prison.

During the last year they paid $12,870.67 back fees to constables—fees that had been disallowed but which the court ruled had to be paid. Besides, the Commissioners spent much money for repairs to roads; they reduced the tax rate from four and one-half to four mills, two years ago and yet in the face of all that the Commissioners were able to save approximately $284,000, which they set aside for wiping out the county debt.

During their terms over $100,000 was spent on permanent improvements. Each year the Commissioners set aside anywhere from $15,000 to $18,000 for the sinking fund, but in 1912 the Commissioners used $20,000 of the excess revenues for redeeming county bonds.

In 1913 they spent $20,000 for a like purpose and in 1914 they bought in more bonds, that time for $24,000.

When the last redemption was made the Commissioners bought back $20,000 worth of county bonds, par value $100, at $90, so that actually paid only $18,000. On January 1, 1909, when Commissioners Miller and Hoffman first took office, Dauphin county owed $549,000. The sinking fund then contained $179,016.65 and the treasury balance amounted to $55,942.87, so that the net debt then was $314,040.48.

The county's bonded debt amounts to $421,000 and the sinking fund contains $268,411.84. According to the estimate of the county treasurer there is a balance of more than $120,000 in the county treasury, so that if it were used in connection with the sinking fund money to pay off financial obligations the county's net debt would amount to nothing more than $225,588.16, the retiring board figures.

Only Nine Changes in Police Department?

Only nine changes all told are to be made in the police department, it is said, when Council meets to consider the new appointments at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Incidentally it is just possible that the commissioners may decide to meet at 10 o'clock in the morning instead of 1 o'clock in the afternoon. Mayor Meals, however, prefers 2 if 10 in the morning can't be agreed upon.

While the commissioners refused to discuss possible appointments to-day, it is understood that Grant Moore and Hyde Speese are among the candidates talked of most for either plain clothesmen or patrolmen.

That Detective Joseph Buch and Harry White are to be dropped from the force was generally conceded to-day although it is said that Mayor Meals is not urging the appointment of anybody in particular; he doesn't want Buch nor White, however, George W. Shuler is being considered as a candidate for one of the detective's places.

That Detective Forrer, formerly park superintendent, it is understood, may be nominated to-morrow to the working head of the park department. The resignations of J. R. Hoffert, assistant superintendent, and Edward Halbert, as assistant fire chief, will be asked for to take effect January 30, it is understood. John C. Kinder, it was stated on pretty definite authority to-day will be retained as fire chief.

In connection with the fire department it is probable that the headquarters of the department will be removed from the police station to the Hope firehouse.

The terms of Clark E. Diehl, city electrician, Dr. George R. Moffitt, city bacteriologist, and Reed Shuey, assistant superintendent, and Edward Halbert, as assistant fire chief, will be asked for to take effect January 30, it is understood. John C. Kinder, it was stated on pretty definite authority to-day will be retained as fire chief.

WELLY'S CORNER

Efforts will be made to revive the boxing game in Harrisburg. Local promoters, it is said, will consult with Mayor E. S. Meals and endeavor to have him sanction exhibitions. It is said the new Mayor favors boxing contests under certain restrictions.

New rules governing amateur athletes will have to be studied closely. While some of the restrictions are said to be rather drastic, rule makers are of the opinion that it is the only way to bring results. One big help to amateurs will be a revised blank. It will include many important questions. To answer truthfully will save a lot of future trouble.
