

WOMEN AND THEIR INTERESTS

"THEIR MARRIED LIFE"

Copyright by International News Service

Helen felt a sense of exhilaration as she hurried home that morning. Ned Burns had judiciously flattered her, and although as a general rule she disliked flattery, just the same she was enough of a woman to enjoy tribute of any kind.

REINSURANCE TO BE CARRIED OUT

State Insurance Fund Will Be Thoroughly Protected by the General Plan

The State Workmen's Insurance Fund Board not only intends to work so that employers get dividends according to the measure in which they plant safeguards in plants, but plans to make the reinsurance feature a big matter.

DR. DIXON GIVES SOME PLAIN TALK

Says That People Can Avoid Spreading Colds if They Will Take Care Now

State Commissioner of Health Samuel G. Dixon in a strong and valuable statement on colds issued by his department yesterday calls upon people to take care of themselves and their fellows when they have a cold.

AMUSEMENTS

Despite rumors to the contrary, Mary Pickford will remain with the Famous Players Company as a star.

Very few people who see Forbes-Robertson on the stage realize that he will be able to give the public a new and interesting play in the near future.

Yesterday was the first since the Colonial has thrown open its doors to the public since the reorganization.

THE BILL AT THE COLONIAL Two very interesting figures in the Colonial's Triangle drama, during the first half of the week are Lillian Gish and the much-disputed beauty, who is the star of 'The Birth of a Nation'.

THE SIREN SONG AT THE VICTORIA The story has in it many scenes that are hair-raising, the most prominent of which is the fight on board an ocean-going steamer at the climax of which the villain throws the hero from the deck.

LAST DAY OF "STILL WATERS" Appreciative audiences yesterday greeted the first staging of the Regent of Marguerite Clark in "Still Waters," a drama of circus and canal-boat life.

THE BIRTH OF A NATION The most interesting feature of the bill at the Victoria is the play 'The Birth of a Nation'.

PAULINE FREDERICK IS SAID TO BE DELIGHTED AT THE PROSPECT OF CHANGING from the Egyptian atmosphere of 'Bella Donna' to the regular, calm and collected atmosphere of 'Lydia Gilmore'.

"WAR BRIDES" IS A COMING ATTRACTION to the Majestic. This sketch is, indeed, a new feature of the bill.

FOR A BAD COUGH Here is a fine old-fashioned recipe for coughs, colds or croup.

AT THE MAJESTIC A Charlie Chaplin comedy starts the Majestic's bill in a lively fashion.
