TUESDAY EVENING,

Scores Bethlehem For Its Part in Great War

Special to the Telegraph

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Jan. 4. — "If I had the five hundred million dollars which is wanted for armament and preparedness of the nation. I would use it to Christianize the world," declared the Rev. L. M. Dice, pastor of the Grace United Evangelical church, in a startling and fearless address last evening at the opening service of the union meetings of the week of prayer in the Methodist Episcopal church. His subject was "Peace," and from start to finish, he had the undivided attention of the audience. In his opinion either America should have united with the allies or send no munitions of war, and peace would probably be the result by this time. He scored Bethlehem, Pa., for her share in prolonging the struggle and said that, "the grass of Bethlehem, Pa., on the throat of Europe, is sending the death rattle around the world. "War is the result of sin, and when sin is wiped out strife will be abolished. Let us rather be a nation to be loved than feared," was his conclusion.

Penbrook, Pa., Jan. 4.—Council met last night and re-organized for the coming year with the installation of B. Frank Ober, Harrison Clay and William Shive. All three newly installed members are Republicans and each served in office before. Harrison Clay was elected president of council, and B. R. Speas, clerk with Mr. Ober being named as chalrman of the highway committee again.

A new ordinance was introduced by the ordinance committee, of which Clay is chairman, providing for the paving of Main street from the limits to a point 175 feet west of Curtin street. The ordinance passed first reading and will be brought up for second reading at next month's meet-
