

THE GLOBE'S

Second Semi-Annual

Thousand Suit and Overcoat Campaign

A Profit-Sharing Sale

Begins Thursday Morning at 8 O'clock

Watch Daily Papers

4 MORE C. V. T. DIRECTORS
The remaining four of the nine directors of the Cumberland Valley Telephone company reorganized last week, were elected yesterday at a meeting in the offices of Charles H. Bergner. Those elected were Thomas J. O'Neill, Hanover; A. E. Pendergast, Fenton; S. W. Foulkes, of Philadelphia, and H. W. Shunkweiler, of Lewistown. The annual election of the stockholders will be held the first Monday in May, this year. Five of the directors of the company were elected at a meeting last week.

BIG IRRIGATION COMPANY FAILS
Helena, Mont., Jan. 4.—The Bitter Root Valley Irrigation Company, a Montana corporation, filed a petition of voluntary bankruptcy in the Federal district court here last night. The failure is said to be the largest in the history of Montana.
Missoula, Mont., Jan. 4.—S. W. Swavey, treasurer of the Bitter Root Valley Irrigation Company who returned from Helena, said reorganization of the company would begin at once and that the new company would refund the bankrupt concern's bonds.

GETTYSBURG COLLEGE COLORS PREVAIL IN DECORATIONS
With decorations of orange and blue, the Gettysburg College colors, in honor of students who are home for the holidays, Miss Ruth Comp and Miss Ruth Hunsberger entertained the following guests on New Year's night at the home of Miss Hunsberger, 46 North Eighteenth street: Miss Elsie Hill, Miss Erna Henry, Miss Ruth Comp, Miss Ruth Hunsberger, Miss Mabel Backenstoss, Miss Ethel Yingst, Miss Marie Seneman, Miss Hope Eyster, David Heflinger, Frank Hoke, George Miller, Ed. Buck, Dick Clouser,

Paul Laudenslager, Wallace McNabe, George Shillinger. Music games and contests were features of the evening. Prizes were awarded to Frank Hoke, Paul Laudenslager and Elsie Hill.
KILLED IN BIG FIRE
Waterbury, Conn., Jan. 4.—One man was killed five others were injured and the lives of sixty guests endangered in a fire that destroyed the Hotel Connecticut, in the heart of the business section early to-day. The dead man was George Cass, an employe. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

SIXTH NORMAL SCHOOL BOUGHT

State Acquires Slippery Rock School and Board Will Name the Trustees

Papers have just been signed whereby the State has secured the stock of the Slippery Rock State Normal School and it now is the owner of six of the thirteen normal schools of the State, with negotiations pending for the purchase of others.
By the purchase of the stock of Slippery Rock school the State secured for $19,775 cash and assumption of $24,000 of debt property estimated to be worth $418,000. Substantial appropriations had been made to the school in times gone by. The State Board of Education will appoint a board of trustees for the school.
Miss Glenn Here.—Miss Helen Glenn, State supervisor of mothers' pension activity, has assumed her duties and will have general charge of the pension system. She will visit the counties where there are boards of trustees and arrange for establishment of boards where movements for mothers' pensions have been started. Miss Glenn's office will be with the State Board of Education.
Must File Saturday.—Candidates for examination for licenses to practice medicine in Pennsylvania will not be admitted to the examinations of the State Bureau of Medical Education and Licensure at Philadelphia on January 18, 19 and 20 unless they file applications with the bureau before January 8. This was announced here by the bureau to-day.
New Fish Warden.—Edgar W. Davis, of Scranton, was to-day announced as appointed as fish warden.
Attending Meeting.—Albert L. Allen, of the State Insurance Board, attended the meeting of the Liability Rating Board in Philadelphia to-day.
Inspection Under Way.—The federal inspection is under way among all organizations of the National Guard now. The attendance last night at the inspections was reported as large.
To Meet To-morrow.—The State Fisheries Commission will meet in Philadelphia to-morrow.
Biggest Premium.—The Keystone Coal and Coke Company, of Greensburg, yesterday insured liability in the State fund, paying $150,000 as the premium. This is the largest premium yet received.
Big Enrollment.—Reports to the Bureau of Vocational Education show that there has been a big enrollment for continuation schools in Scranton and Reading the numbers created surprises.
Sanitary Detachments.—New orders from National Guards headquarters announce the make-up of sanitary detachments as follows: One major, three medical officers, four sergeants, four first class private soldiers and eight privates.
Appointments Made.—Appointments announced at the State Capitol to-day included: Charles Taysman, Philadelphia, clerk, Auditor General's Department; LeRoy Lentz, Lebanon, clerk, Internal Affairs Department; and Edgar W. Davis, Scranton, warden, Fisheries Department.
First Reports.—The first reports for taxation of capital stock and loans were filed at the Auditor General's Department under the new forms provided by the act of 1915. The reports cover the period to December 31 last.
Visited the Prison.—Special Agents McGarry and Wilson, of the State Board of Public Charities, visited the Dauphin county prison to-day.
Rush for License Tags.—There was a regular parade at the State Highway Department for automobile license to-day.
Filed Increase.—The United States Asbestos Company, of Manheim, to-day filed notice of increase of stock from $225,000 to $250,000.
Western Visitors.—Among Capitol visitors to-day were Representative I. N. Kuhn and W. Williams, of Greene county, and ex-Representative C. E. Carothers, of Washington county.
New Coal Company.—The H. J. Stone Coal Company, of Childs, was chartered to-day with a capital of $10,000.
No Papers Filed.—No papers have been filed in the action of the State against the Sixth Street Building and Loan Association, of Philadelphia, cited into court by the Banking Department. The Attorney General will now proceed.
Danner's Payments.—Register Danner to-day paid the State $391.33 as collateral inheritance tax and $13.68 as tax on writs.
Big Payments.—The Lehigh Valley Railroad to-day paid $201,000 to the State as tax on loans and Register Sheehan, of Philadelphia, sent the State $156,832.40 as State taxes.

A Man's Event of Supreme Importance

Semi-Annual Clearance of WORTHY CLOTHES

Only twice a year—between seasons—may you enjoy an opportunity such as this—and then only because we must make room for next season's garments which will soon begin to arrive.

Every garment goes into this clearance, including blues and blacks, the popular Balkan-Norfolk Suits and the new Chesterfield Overcoats.

$15 Suits and Overcoats, now $11.50

$20 Suits and Overcoats, now $14.50

$25 Suits and Overcoats, now $18.50

Every garment backed by our customary guarantee of absolute satisfaction.

Permanently located at 14 N. Third Street—next door to Gorgas' Drug Store.

Watson & Cooper
Worthy Clothes

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

(Other Personals on Page 6.)

OFF FOR OSSING
Miss Alice Marie Deceve, of 607 North Second street, Miss Mary Knisely Boas, of 115 State street, and Miss Martha Ann Fletcher, of 224 Pine street, started to-day for the Ossining School, New York, to resume their studies after a delightful holiday vacation spent at their homes here.
Miss Katharine Gorgas, of 216 Macclay street, leaves Thursday for the National Cathedral School, at Washington, D. C.
Meade D. Detweiler, Jr., a student at Mercersburg Academy, will leave to-morrow for Mercersburg after spending the Christmas vacation with his mother, Mrs. Meade D. Detweiler, Sr., of 23 North Front street.

James H. Stewart and John Q. Stewart, Jr., will return to Princeton University, Thursday, after spending the Christmas holiday vacation with their mother, Mrs. John Q. Stewart, of 1404 North Second street.
Miss Maryland Gourley, a student at Wilson College, Chambersburg, will resume her studies after spending the holidays at her home, 202 Chestnut street.
Samuel Sloan Froelich, a student at Penn State College, will resume his studies after spending the Christmas recess at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Froelich, of 111 Market street.
Miss Irene Yarnall, of Lewisburg, Pa., has returned home after spending the holidays with her aunt, Mrs. Roy Yarnall, of 1603 Chestnut street.
Miss Margaret Starnbaugh will resume her studies at Bryn Mawr College after spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Starnbaugh, of 2208 North Second street.
Miss Helen Wilson, of 324 North Second street, left to-day to resume her studies at Swarthmore College after spending some time with her parents.
Carson McCallister, a student at Penn State, leaves to-morrow after spending the vacation at his home.
Miss Martha Miller, of 2202 North Third street, has returned to Smith College, Northampton, Mass., after spending the Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller.

Miss Ruth Martin, of 1811 Green street, has gone to Chambersburg to resume her studies at Wilson College after spending the vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Martin.
Henry Fink, who has been spending the Christmas vacation with his mother, Mrs. Cecelia Fink, of 223 Pine street, leaves to-morrow for the Mercersburg Academy, where he is a student.
Ralph Mickey will resume his studies at State College after spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Mickey, of 608 Oxford street.
Benjamin Eyer, a student at the University of Chicago, will resume his studies after spending the holiday vacation at his home, 1151 Derry street.

125 FOR NEWSIES' BANQUET
Prominent Speakers to Address Boys:
David Kaufman Host
Arrangements for the banquet to be given to the members of the Harrisburg Newsboys' Association, Friday evening at 8 o'clock, by David Kaufman, are being completed rapidly by the committee.
Covers will be laid for 125, and several prominent speakers of the city have been invited. The banquet will be given in the rooms of the association, 304 North Second street. Music, songs and addresses will constitute the program. The hall is being decorated for the occasion. The menu will include "turkey and all the fixings," according to the committee.

M O J A
10c Cigars
They are all Havana for any taste

Made by John C. Herman & Co.

Our January Reductions

---are bringing many new customers to this "Live Store." The New Year started with exceptional vim--Those who have bought their clothing from us are glad to bring or send their friends here to receive the same square dealing and get the bigger values that has made this store famous.

You can always find plenty of cheap clothes cheap, but here's your chance to get the newest styles, choicest fabrics and finest tailoring in America CHEAP, not as sensational as some stores are offering--but every price quoted here is a legitimate, honest reduction.

Kuppenheimer
Clothes
All $15 Suits & Overcoats $12.50

All $20.00 Suits and Overcoats $16.50	All $18.00 Suits and Overcoats $14.50	All $25.00 Suits and Overcoats $21.50
--	--	--

Boys' Suits, Overcoats & Mackinaws

All $3.50 Suits and Overcoats	$2.75	All $7.50 Suits and Overcoats	$6.25
All $5.00 Suits and Overcoats	$4.25	All $8.50 Suits and Overcoats	$7.25
All $6.50 Suits and Overcoats	$5.25	All $10.00 Suits and Overcoats	$8.50

All Blues and Blacks Included at Above Prices

Rain-coats Reduced

Doutrichs
Always Reliable

304 Market St. Harrisburg, Pa.

Bath Robes and HouseCoats Reduced

MEDICAL SOCIETY NOMINATIONS
The nomination and election of officers of the Dauphin County Medical Society will be held this evening at 8:30 o'clock at the meeting in the Harrisburg Academy of Medicine, 319 North Second street. A paper will be read by Dr. William T. Douglass, retiring president.
NEW CUMBERLAND COUNCIL HOLDS REORGANIZATION
New Cumberland, Jan. 4.—The New Cumberland council reorganized last night as follows: D. H. Seip, president; Kirk S. Wire, secretary; J. M. Houck, solicitor; S. M. Ulrich, street commissioner; A. B. Rupp, surveyor, and H. D. Stone, chief of police.