

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and luster to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair.

Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which was messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy.—Advertisement.

AMUSEMENTS

ORPHEUM To-night only — Mrs. Fiske in "Erstwhile Susan."

To-morrow, matinee and night — "The Charming Widows" (Burlesque). Tuesday and Wednesday and Wednesday matinee, January 11 and 12—Al. G. Field Greater Minstrels.

Mrs. Fiske, the great American actress who plays the role of Juliet Miller, from Cedar Center, in Miss De Forest's production of "Erstwhile Susan," at the Orpheum this evening, is not only a skilled actress, but a brainy woman and deep thinker as well. One of her pet hobbies is child labor. With reference to it, she says in a recent interview:

"Child labor is to me one of the most deplorable things in the world. To see poor, weak, defenseless children forced to carry the burdens of grown-up men and women, almost before they have known their first play days, is beyond all comprehension. To my mind there is one quick cure for that condition, and that is publicity. I do not believe that parents are intentionally inhuman. To believe they are is deplorably unthinking. As for children in the next stage, I believe I can truthfully say that the child on the stage is physically well cared for, given unusual opportunities for education and protected far better than a child in more prosperous circumstances would be off the stage."

"Erstwhile Susan" opened in Rochester last Saturday and made a decided hit in each of its three performances, but in Allentown, where it was produced on Monday night, there was some little dissatisfaction because the play itself went there was no criticism, but it was said that the townspeople of real local color were being. Harrisburgers will be able to judge of that for themselves. The play is by H. H. Martin, the author of "Barnabette," from which this play was adapted, will be in the audience.

"Madame X" is being put on the screen in New York City, with Dorothy Bonnelly in the lead role. Miss Bonnelly says far more attention to detail in her portrayal than did the divine Sarah Bernhardt, who formerly played the role in French. It is a Pathe Gold Rooster film.

AL. G. FIELD COMING

The popular Al. G. Field and his Greater Minstrels, who heretofore have only played Harrisburg one day, have extended this week, Tuesday and Wednesday, and will be seen at the Orpheum next week, Tuesday and Wednesday. Mr. Field has a larger show this season than ever, and is bringing with him records for minstrel business throughout the country. The company contains the names of many of the favorite minstrel acts, including Bert Swor. The sale of seats for the two days will open next Friday morning.

Valli Valli, the Metro star, was bitten on the nose by a greyhound, while working in one of the scenes of a new Columbia-Metro production as yet unnamed. Director William Nigh, who is producing the feature, had his company of players on Staten Island, making exterior. The greyhound used in the picture provoked a production that has snapped Miss Valli on the nose before she could avoid him. The wound, fortunately, was not serious, as Robert H. Thompson, the assistant director, drove the animal away before it could inflict much damage.

Anna Held, the noted actress, has been plucked from the legitimate and is preparing for her movie debut under Morocco-Paramount guidance. At her home, in Los Angeles, Miss Held has given her social pleasures, and is making the rounds of the movies every evening. She is now appearing before the camera in "Madame La Presidente," a French farce written especially for her.

LAST DAY FOR GOOD BILL

The offering at the Majestic includes DeWitt, Burns and Torrence in their splendid farce, "The Awakening of Toys." The Sharrocks, clever mindreaders and equally good comedians; Demarest and Colletti, young couple in instrumental music, dancing and patter; Grayce and Doucet, pleasing couple in a bright comedy, "Love, Love, and Pearl and Irene Sans, pretty misses, offering a singing act. The most pretentious production that has been presented at the Majestic this season is the announced headliner for the next half week. This is the act of William Weston and company, who will present their musical novelty entitled, "The Venetian Flirtation." The act is a combination of singing, dancing, music, and a great deal of comedy. Other well-known Keith names that will be included in the new roster will be: Dorothy Meuser, singing comedienne; Horn and Farris, presenting a musical skit called "A Venetian Flirtation"; Lucas and Lucille, man and woman in eccentric song, dance and patter skit, and Fern Bigelow and Meehan, rapid-fire gymnastic entertainers.

A SENATORIAL OFFERING

Charles J. Ross, famous for years as the head of the vaudeville team of Ross and Fenton, has the star part of Senatorial offering at the Regent, which will be shown at the Victoria Theater this evening. The story, by Sydney Rosenfeld, with a pronounced success on the legitimate stage, with William H. Crane in the part taken before the camera by Mr. Ross, and the screen version goes beyond the spoken drama in effective realism and telling strength. The inner machinery of Washington politics and life are revealed; the way of the political intriguer and would-be rogue, and the upsetting of his plans; the foolishness of a woman in a high place, and the way in which its evil results are avoided, all unite to make an effective series of seven pictures, full of punch as well as beauty, and forming a vivid record of life in the capital of the nation, with the great white dome of the Capitol itself as a background. A special musical program is rendered at every show by Professors McBride and McIntosh. To-morrow this theater will present William A. Brady's five-act photo production, "Over Night."

TRIANGLE COMEDY AT COLONIAL

On the same Triangle program that includes Lillian Gish and Roziska Dolly in "The Lily and the Rose," is a comedy in which Charles H. Murray, a Key-stone favorite, plays the role of a dime novel detective. These two features combine into a moving picture entertainment that seems to be pleasing patrons of the Colonial Theater immensely. Murray and Summerville, as dime novel detectives, and Louise Fazenda and Ed Kennedy, as a pair of bank robbers, assisted by Harry Booker, as a landlady, and a whole bunch of funny people, including the famous Keystone cops, keep things moving in "The Great Vacuum Robbery." The novel scheme of the crooks consists in extracting the bank's wealth of bills by means of a vacuum cleaner introduced through a ventilator from an adjoining building. Miss Fazenda chloroforms the detectives, the pneumatic hose is introduced and presently a stream of fives, tens, fifties and hundreds spouts up through its wide mouth. Then Kennedy and Miss Fazenda escape with their wealth to a country hotel, with the amateur detectives in hot pursuit. After many exciting incidents between the crooks and the detectives, the bank cashier recovers his own money. The action of the film moves at a whirlwind pace, and every moment produces a thrill or a laugh. A drama that looks good is entitled "Aloha Oe," a Thomas H. Ince production, featuring Willard Mack, with Enid Markley. The play calls in spectacular scenes in the South Sea Islands.

MARY PICKFORD IN "MADAME BUTTERFLY" AT THE REGENT TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW

The photoplay adaptation of John Luther Long's great classic, "Madame Butterfly," in which Mary Pickford is starred, is the latest Paramount production at the Regent to-day and to-morrow, and tells how Cho-Cho-San, a maiden of the Flowery Kingdom, has been wed to Lieutenant Pinkerton (Marshall Neilan), an American naval officer. Two months after the wedding Pinkerton sails away, promising his wife—"Madame Butterfly" as he calls her—to return when "the robins nest again."

To the officer the marriage has been but a love affair of the moment, to be forgotten with his departure. But to "Madame Butterfly" it was a real and lasting compact. In her loving, trusting heart she had no doubt that he would return. A baby is born and the mother anxiously awaits her husband's return. Two years pass and still the little wife is waiting, waiting for the robins to nest again. At last the American consul comes to tell her that Lieutenant Pinkerton has slipped his due to arrive soon, has taken an American wife—the sweetheart of his youth—this time in due and joyfully makes the home ready for its lord and master. Night comes and the lamps are lit. The

SUREST FOR COUGHS AND COLDS

Don't experiment on a bad cough or cold. It is very risky. The following formula, easily mixed at home, makes one of the best and quickest cough remedies obtainable, often curing the worst cough in a day. Five grains of medicine as old as the Bible but here is the best form. Half ounce of Globe Pine Compound (Concentrated Pine), give two ounces of Glycerine; mix these in half pint of whiskey. Use a teaspoonful frequently as required. (Smaller doses to children). Be sure to get the genuine Globe Pine Compound (Concentrated Pine), put up only in half ounce bottles, each enclosed in a screw-top case.

Frost Bites, Corns and Sore Feet

Don't endure foot agony. Here is a remedy for quick results. It works through the pores removing the cause. Two tablespoonfuls of Calocide compound in warm foot bath, gives instant relief for aching and sweaty feet; corns and callouses can be peeled right off. Specially effective for sore bunions, chilblains, and frost bites. Genuine Calocide in twenty-five cent packages at any drug store. The above is published by the Medical Formula Laboratories, Dayton, O.
