Coffey Ready For His Battle With Frank Moran

New York, Jan. 7.—That Jim Coffey hasn't lost his drawing power because of the knockout punch which Frank Moran handed him a few months ago is evident from the interest taken in the return engagement scheduled for to-night in Madison Square Garden. There seems to be an impression among fight fans that the Roscommon giant was the victim of a lucky punch on that occasion and that he will red-empt himself.

News From Sportland

Connie Mack announced last night that he had severed all athletic relations with the Philadelphia club. The Allie baseball five last night defeated the Olympics, score, 25 to 12. Frank Chance will manage the Los Angeles team of the Pacific Coast League.

CAMDEN PASSERS SET FAST PACE

'Adams Express' Team Will Be Attraction at Auditorium Tomorrow Night

Local basketball fans will have an opportunity to see the best passing team in the Eastern League to-morrow night, when the Camden five, known in Eastern League circles as the "Adams Express," will oppose the Harrisburg Independents. Jackie Adams has been the star of the Camden team for three years and the nondeplume is a compliment to the speedy team work he has developed.

Adams has guaranteed his regular line-up for the game in Harrisburg, barring accidents, and local patrons will have a chance to see the team at its best. Jimmy Brown is again playing a star game, and although in the guard position, usually outscores his opponent.

SHAW, FORMER TRI-STATER TO CARRY SOME WEIGHT

Jim Shaw, the Washington pitcher and former Tri-Statler who was injured recently by the accidental discharge of a shotgun, will carry a little extra weight next season. And it will be above his shoulders, where, James himself intimates, he showed himself a little shy when he went on his hunting trip.

No More Scouting by National League Umpires

New York, Jan. 7.—Now that peace has been restored in baseball, not only the players but the umpires too will have to work under new restrictions. In the contract which President Johnson tendered to some of the umpires who will work for President Tener this year a clause has been inserted prohibiting the National League umpires from scouting for any of the ball clubs, and it also forbids them from signing articles for newspapers or any other publications. These new rules are also imposed on the American League umpires when President Johnson sends out the contracts for the men that are to judge the play on that circuit during the coming season.

Another letter from Harrisburg has reached John K. Tener, president of the National League. This missive told in detail baseball conditions in Harrisburg; as they were last summer and are to-day. The letter was written by a prominent local businessman who has been identified with baseball for a number of years. It looks as if Edward G. Barrow would soon be forced to tell the truth.

Merchants and Miners Trans. Co. FLORIDA TRIPS "BY SEA" One Way - BALTIMORE TO Round Trip $20 - JACKSONVILLE - $35 1,500 MILES - 7-DAY TRIP. $15.00 - SAVANNAH - $26.20

Chicago, Jan. 7.—Ray Chappell, the Milwaukee outfielder who was recalled by Charles Comiskey for the White Sox, will be carried over to the Cleveland club in final payment for Joe Jackson. It is questionable whether Jackson did not bring a higher price in his sale to Chicago than any other player in the history of the game. To begin with Comiskey paid Somers $31,000 in cash and gave Roth, a good hitting outfielder, and Klepper, a pitcher of considerable ability. Now Chappell is added, and only two years ago Comiskey bought this player from Milwaukee for $18,000, bringing the price for Joe Jackson for over the $50,000 mark which he paid for Eddie Collins. Chappell is said to be a much improved ball player over what he was when he got his trial with the White Sox, and it is believed he will make a first class man for the Indians. Roth demonstrated good hitting ability during his stay with the team last season, and Klepper proved a winning pitcher, so that Somers' deal, which ridged the Indians of Jackson, really was a piece of good business.
