Millionaire Chooses Jail to Await Outgrowth of Austin Flood Charges

By Associated Press
 Corning, N. Y., Jan. 7.—George C. Bayless, millionaire president of the Bayless Pulp and Paper Company of Austin, Pa., and Binghamton, N. Y., is in jail at Coudersport, Pa., awaiting the outcome of habeas corpus proceedings instituted to obtain his release.

Bayless was committed to jail by Justice of the Peace French of Roulette, Pa., following a hearing on a charge of involuntary manslaughter in causing the death of Mrs. Thomas Lawler in the disastrous flood at Austin, in September, 1911. He could have been released under bail but he preferred to go to jail to test the question as to whether he is liable to prosecution for alleged negligence in connection with the breaking of the Bayless Company's dam.

Once before Bayless faced a charge of manslaughter in connection with the flood, but the charge was dropped by attorneys for the Austin Flood Victims' Association who instituted the proceedings. Satisfactory terms for the settlement of civil damages were reported to have been made at that time.

Girls Striking For More Money Bombard Factory

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Jan. 7.—More than 100 girls, striking for higher wages, gathered before the cigar factory of Samuel L. Davis and Company, here to-day and bombarded the windows with iceles and similar missiles. Three of the strikers were arrested and fined $5 each.

The girls were employed at rolling cigars and struck when refused five cents more per hundred cigars. The walkout threatens to throw 400 others out of work.

Better Coal

It is not generally known, but more time and money is being spent to-day in safety appliances in the mines and improvements in the breakers for preparing coal, than at any time in the history of the coal trade. This means much increased cost to the progressive and enterprising operator and shipper. It also means a more valuable and desirable product to the consumer.

Those who use Kelley's Coal can enjoy the pleasure of a winter in the tropics without leaving their own homes or journeying to the South.

Warns Senate to Be Prepared Against Kaiser

By Associated Press
 Washington, D. C., Jan. 7.—Senator John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, a Democratic member of the Committee on Foreign Relations, made a speech in the Senate yesterday afternoon that was practically a warning that the United States must increase her defenses so as to resist the bullying of a victorious Germany after the war. He seemed to have no doubt as to Germany's ultimate triumph and argued that the Kaiser would find it difficult to lead his troops back from their career of conquest to work in ruined mills for which capital was lacking.

Vance McCormick Named Reserved Bank Director

S. P. C. A. Elects New Officers For the Year

Prior to the close of the annual meeting of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals of Harrisburg yesterday officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:
 President, John T. Otmsted (re-elected); vice-president, Mrs. Charles A. Kunkel; treasurer, Robert McCormick; secretary, E. A. Miller. Five directors' terms expired and three of the old incumbents, Miss Claire M. Bashore, Miss A. L. Boyer, of this city, and Mrs. J. Woods Brubaker, Millersburg, were re-elected. John Fox Weiss, former district attorney, and Dr. E. E. Downes, city school superintendent, were chosen to fill the other two places. These directors will serve until January, 1919. Mrs. Charles A. Kunkel's place on the board of directors was made vacant when she was elected to the vice-presidency and Mrs. A. Carson Stamm was chosen to fill her place. The treasurer reported a balance of $34.97 with which to begin the new year.

TEACHERS ELECT OFFICERS

Sunbury, Pa., Jan. 7.—Perhaps the most successful session of Northumberland County Public School Teachers' Institute was that held for this year. More than 400 teachers were in attendance. These officers were elected: I. H. Mauser, Sunbury, superintendent of Public Instruction; president; George L. Swank, Sunbury; S. H. Dean, Mt. Carmel, assistants and I. C. M. Ellenberger, secretary and treasurer.
