PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS

BOYD MEMORIAL TO BE DEDICATED

Housewarming Next Week Will Include Basketball, Bowling, Talking, Etc.

The official opening of the new John Y. Boyd Memorial, located in South street, will take place next Tuesday evening, January 11, with dedication exercises. Dr. John Timothy Stone, of Pittsburgh, will make the principal address, and there will be several additional speakers. The doors of the building will for the first time be thrown open to the public, and it is expected that many will take advantage of the opportunity to inspect the modern and up-to-date equipment. On Thursday evening, January 13, will be held the housewarming, but it will be only for the men of Pine Street Presbyterian Church and no others will be invited. A second housewarming will be given for the boys on Saturday afternoon of the same week from three to six. On both occasions a number of short addresses will be made, and basketball games and bowling matches will inaugurate the new floor and alleys respectively. The Rev. Lewis S. Hudge, Eugene Miller, Charles B. Thompson, and one other speaker will address the gathering on Thursday evening and a general get-together spirit will prevail. Frank McCarroll, the organist, will give a recital and the Hick-n-thrift and Excelsior fives will struggle to win premier basketball honors. A bowling match will be given in all and the participants will in every ability be the Sunday School classes of Mrs. Dull and Mrs. H. B. McCormick. Last, but not least, refreshments will be served and the entire building carefully inspected. On Saturday afternoon January 15, the boys will have their chance to become acquainted with their new house of diversion. Games and refreshments will also be their lot. A. M. Chesley, secretary of the boys' work of the Pennsylvania Y. M. C. A. with headquarters in this city, will make a short address.

Jukes-Edwards Family to Be Discussed at Penbrook

The Penbrook Parent-Teacher Association will hold a meeting on the 11th of this month, when an interesting program will be given, including the following: Invocation, the Rev. William Lingle, following the call to order by the president of the association; reading of the minutes by the secretary; the Rev. Mr. Henry will then make an address on the subject, "How Can We Best Teach Civic Pride in the Home and School?" A school entertainment will be the subject of H. G. Evans' talk and the Rev. William Lingle will give a German reading. A discussion of the famous Jukes-Edwards family by E. M. Packer will be a feature and a reading by Miss Mary Herman, a vocal solo by Mrs. D. E. Good; an address by Professor Shambaugh and a piano duet with the Misses Helen Augst and Ruth Hocker. The principals will complete the program.

Postponed Xmas Service at Zion

The choir of Zion Lutheran church will give a praise service on Sunday evening. By request, a number of the Christmas selections which were so much enjoyed on Christmas morning will be repeated. Owing to the illness of a number of the choir members this program which was to have been given last Sunday evening, will be given this Sunday night. The following numbers make up the program: Organ Prelude, Pastoral, Handel; evening service, Book of Worship; anthem, "Sing, O Heavens," Rogers; Scripture lesson; prayer; quartet, "Holy Night," Adam; hymn; announcements; sermon, the Rev. S. W. Herman; offertory, "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth," Handel; hymn; baritone solo, "Night of Nights," Van de Water, Mr. Lutz; closing service, Book of Worship; benediction; postlude, "Hallelujah," Handel.

MESSIAH LUTHERAN COUNCIL PAYS TRIBUTE TO CHURCH CHOIR

In appreciation of the faithful work of the church choir during the past year, Messiah Lutheran Church council tendered a most enjoyable dinner in the church social rooms last evening to the vocalists, of whom about thirty were present. The members of the council were assisted in serving by Mrs. W. K. Bumbaugh, soprano; Mrs. William Witherow, alto; Abner Hartman, basso, and Dr. Byron S. Behney, tenor. Mrs. Emma Hoffman, organist, gave a piano solo, and the choir sang the choral portion of the cantata, "The Story of Christmas." The menu was artfully planned and well received.
