

CENTRAL HIGH LOSES T READING---PERCY HAUGHTON SPRINGS SURPRISE

PERCY HAUGHTON BOSTON OWNER

Harvard Football Coach Heads New Baseball Syndicate; Purchase Price High

Special to the Telegraph Boston, Mass., Jan. 10.—The Boston Braves, together with the wonderful ball park on Commonwealth avenue, were sold Saturday by President James E. Gaffney and Robert H. Davis, a director in the company, who hold a majority of the stock, to Arthur D. Wise, of Brookline, Mass., member of the firm of Millet, Roe & Hasen, and Percy D. Haughton, the famous Harvard football coach.

While the announcement comes as a complete surprise to followers of baseball in Boston, it is not such an upheaval as many would imagine, for the reason that the gentlemen selling the club have many vast interests in common in other lines and have in all probability accepted a very large offer for the club from Boston interests.

Lebanon Valley Winner Over Muhlenberg Tossers

CAMDEN TOSSERS WIN FAST GAME

Take Big Lead Early in Contest With Local Independents; Adams Stars

Camden Eastern Leaguers were too fast for the Harrisburg Independents Saturday night. The "Skeeters" won out, score 52 to 31. The local tossers had world's stars against them. Jackie Adams played in whirlwind style and his work was a big feature in the game.

Camden had a big lead at the close of the first half. During the second period the Independents came back strong, putting up a wonderful game against the League. Rote and N. Ford had been the point winners up to the middle of the second half when McConnell came to the front in brilliant spurs. The line-up and summary follows:

Table with columns: Name, Fld., G., F., A., Pts. for Camden and Independents.

Camden: Rote, f.; N. Ford, f.; Geisel, c.; Ford, G.; McConnell, G. Independents: Referee, White. Fouls committed, Harrisburg 11, Camden 13.

INDIAN CHIEF WHO FOUGHT CUSTER DIES A SUICIDE

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 10.—Chief Ogalala, who fought with Sitting Bull in the Custer massacre, died at a hospital yesterday at the age of 90. A week ago, apparently tired of life, he cut his throat.

BRITISH FORCE GIRDLED BY THE TURKISH ARMY

[Continued from First Page.] assuming the correctness of the unofficial advice, the British force means the abandonment by the British of any attempt, for the present at least, of an offensive campaign in Mesopotamia. It was in November, 1914, that an Anglo-Indian force, starting from the Persian Gulf, began marching north and west over the desert, following the Tigris and Euphrates rivers. The British pushed northward steadily until in September of 1915 they reached Kut-el-Amara, which is 230 miles northward from the head of the Persian Gulf. They defeated the Turks and advanced to Ctesiphon, 18 miles beyond Bagdad.

The Turks sent up large forces to save Bagdad and after an initial defeat again attacked and won a victory over the invaders. The British fell back on Kut-el-Amara, 200 miles southeast of Bagdad, but there has been no serious intimation that they intended to abandon this point.

Allied Transport Sunk

The sinking of a transport ship of the allies, filled with troops, at the time of the withdrawal of the French and British forces from the tip of the Gallipoli peninsula is reported from Constantinople in a dispatch given out to-day by the Overseas News Agency.

The following dispatch, under date of Constantinople, was given out by the news agency: "The military agency states that the Turks were making preparations for three days for the attack on the British and French, but that the results were not yet known. All the positions of the enemy near Seddul Bahir and Teko Burnu were occupied by the Turks, nine cannon being captured. Turkish artillery sank an enemy transport filled with troops. The captured amount of booty was captured. A Turkish aeroplane was shot down by an enemy biplane near Seddul Bahir."

Launch New Offensive

An offensive movement has been inaugurated by the German forces in the Champagne. Announcement was made by the war office to-day that French positions extending over several hundred yards at a point northwest of Massiges had been captured by the Germans.

The conquered positions are near Maisons Dechampsagne. The Germans captured 434 prisoners, including 7 officers, five machine guns and one large and seven small mine throwers. A French counterattack in the east of the positions taken by the Germans failed. A German aircraft division attacked the rear guard establishments of the allies at Burnes. On the eastern front an advance attempted by strong Russian detachments at Brestany was repulsed.

Russians Cease Attack

Vienna claims Russians on Saturday last ceased their attacks on the Galician and Bessarabian fronts after having been repulsed all along the line. The latest Petrograd statement claims that the Austrians have been driven from the east bank of the Middle Stripa, in Galicia, and foiled in their attempt to recapture Czartorysk, in Volhynia.

Greece has protested vigorously against the arrest by entente authorities of the consuls of the Teutonic allies at Mytilene in the Aegean Sea, an Athens dispatch states.

Loss of British Prestige in Withdrawal Emphasized

By Associated Press Berlin, Jan. 10 (by wireless to Sayville).—"The news of the definite failure of the Dardanelles expedition aroused enormous joy and satisfaction in Constantinople," says the Overseas News Agency in a message distributed to-day. "Bunting was displayed and the schools were closed."

"The Berlin newspapers," continues the agency message, "point out the loss of prestige which this means for the British, besides the enormous losses of men, ships and money. They recall the proud words of Mr. Asquith in parliament on November 9, 1914, that the Turkish empire committed suicide and had dug its own grave, and those of Mr. Churchill, at a later date, that through the Dardanelles lay the shortest road to triumphant peace. The newspapers further call attention to the fact that important Turkish contingents are now free for action in other fields."

Seriousness of Kaiser's Illness Is Minimized

By Associated Press Rome, Jan. 9.—The latest reports received here regarding the illness of the German Emperor minimize the seriousness of his condition and contradict wild rumors circulated not long ago. These reports received from Germany through Switzerland say that the Emperor is affected by a malignant growth in the throat which required a small operation, although the operation was slight. It is said the greatest care was indispensable owing to the delicate nature of the organs affected.

READING FIVE WINS FIRST GAME

Outplay Central's Cripples in First Half, Taking Big Lead; Two Local Stars

Central High tossers returned home Saturday night with two defeats chalked up. The Saturday afternoon game at Reading resulted in a victory for Reading High school, score 52 to 31. It was not altogether a one-sided game, as the score indicates. Central went into the game in a crippled condition, because of injuries received at Hazleton on Friday night. The local five was not only obliged to play under strange rules, but was used rather roughly.

At Reading, Houtz and Hilton were the stars. Snyder and Wendler scored the most points for Reading High. The line-up and summary follows:

Table with columns: Name, Fld., G., F., A., Pts. for Central and Reading.

Inter-Office Bowlers Hang Up One New Record

Four contests were played Saturday in the Inter-Office Bowling League. One new record was hung up. Mt. Pleasant Press team having a total of 551 in one game. This was six points better than the record held by the State team. The winners were State over Mt. Pleasant Press, score, 1399 to 1317; Riots over Printery, scores 1384 to 1383; Pats over Stars, scores, 1368 to 1162, and Mt. Pleasant Press over Pats, scores, 1363 to 1226. The standing of the teams follows:

Table with columns: Team, W., L., Pct. for various bowling teams.

Special to the Telegraph Ottawa, Jan. 10.—Corporal James Everest Webb, of West Jefferson, Ohio, and Private Joseph C. Louston, of Tuna Creek, McKean county, Pa., were reported wounded in the overseas casualty list given out by the militia department here to-night.

Well-Known Stars in This Week's Colonial Program; Joe Jackson, the Orpheum Favorite in Keystone Comedy

The excellent comedy feature at the Colonial to-day, to-morrow and Wednesday is "Fatty and the Broadway Stars," featuring the largest number in a film play. Fatty of course is the well-known Rosco Arbuckle. His co-stars are this galaxy: Joe Weber, Lew Fields, Sam Bernard, Mack Sennett, William Collier and Joe Jackson, all of their merit twinkling in one picture. Of these funsters Joe Jackson is likely to be most popular here. He will be recalled as the tramp bicyclist whose difficulties with his troublesome wheel, will ever linger in the minds of local vaudeville goers. The feature film, "Jordan is a Hard Road," is a five-reel love story of the Golden West, which stars Dorothy Gish, the lovable little star, who was so popular in "Old Heidelberg." Advertisement.

Six of Eleven New Haven Directors Given Freedom

New York, Jan. 10.—Six of the eleven former directors of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, charged by the government with criminal violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, were found not guilty late yesterday by the jury that for nearly three months has been trying the case. The jury disagreed on the five others and was discharged. The final vote on the five defendants upon whom the jurors could not agree after fifty-one hours of deliberation stood 8 to 4 for acquittal.

Those acquitted were D. Newton Barnes, Farmington, Conn.; Robert W. Taft, Providence, R. I.; James S. Hemingway, A. Newton Robertson and Frederick F. Brewster, New Haven, and Henry K. McFarig, Stamford, Conn. Those on whom the jury disagreed were William Rockefeller, New York; Charles T. Booker, Ansonia, Conn.; Charles M. Pratt, Brooklyn; Lewis Case Ledyard, New York, and Edward D. Robbins, New Haven. R. L. Batts, chief counsel for the government, announced that in due time he would move for a new trial of these five. This will be done, he said, before any effort will be made to try the six other former directors of the road who were indicted but who obtained the right to be tried separately.

St. Paul's Men to Learn of Nation's Scenic Wonders

How the scenic wonders of the United States compare with those of Europe will be interestingly told to-morrow evening in St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church in a series of remarkable stereoscopic views. "Things Worth Seeing in Our Country" is the subject of the series and the pictures are an answer to the common query, "What has this country to show that is worth seeing?" The pictures will be shown in the gymnasium, beginning at 8:15 o'clock. The committee of arrangements consists of Frank P. Coates, E. C. Lamey, J. R. Lane, George Dolbin, Samuel Forbes and Richard M. H. Wharton.

WELLY'S CORNER

More checks will be forthcoming this week from Edward G. Harrow, president of the International League. Frank DeWan, the president of the Harrisburg Club, announced sometime ago that as soon as several plays were sold, all bills would be paid. Al Schecht has been sold to Pittsburgh and it is said a good price was paid for his services by Barney Dreyfus. The Harrisburg hospital will be paid to-day according to reports. After all claims have been settled, it is said President Barrow will have something to say.

If there is any doubt about Harrisburg being a real basketball city, a glance at this week's schedule will prove otherwise. There will be a game every night this week. In some cases two contests take place the same night. Steelton and Hummelstown are included in the week's program.

The Central high school girls will start basketball this week. Nine games are on the schedule of the "co-eds." Most of the games will be played at home. It is a hard schedule and some of the out-of-town games are with teams that have been playing for two months.

The withdrawal of Edward G. Harrow from the peace conference committee was a move not expected. Whether it means he is slated to take charge of the Cleveland team of the American League or intends to run the International League according to his own views remains to be seen.

There is one man prominent in baseball circles who is doing his utmost to give Harrisburg league baseball next summer. His name is John K. Tener and he is the head of the National League. In a letter to a Harrisburg friend President Tener says "Harrisburg is too good a town to be without organized baseball. The inducements offered are being considered by a number of magnates."
