Fine Healthy Child Convincing Evidence

Simple Inexpensive Remedy Checks Early Tendency to Constipation.

About the first thing impressed on the young Mother is the necessity for regularity in her baby, which brings up the question of the most desirable laxative for children's use.

Mrs. Jesse Richardson, Philpot, Ky., says she has used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for the past year and that there is no medicine in the world like it. She writes: "My little son, William, Jr., just loved it because it is so pleasant to take, and everybody talks about his being such a fine, healthy boy."

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a being such a fine, healthy boy.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a compound of simple laxative herbs, free from any opiate or narcotic drug, and is the standard remedy for constipation in thousands of homes throughout the land. Drug stores everywhere sell it for fifty cents a bottle. Get a bottle of this excellent remedy, and have it in the house. A trial bottle, Washington street, Monticello, Ill.

A SURE WAY TO END DANDRUFF

There is one sure way to end dandruff that has never falled. Dandruff is caused by a little parasite or germ that burrows underneath the scalp and feeds on the nutrition that should go into the scalp and hair. The only way to kill dandruff is to kill the dandruff germ. To do this, go to the drug store and get a small cake of Vacuum, and dissolve it in a pint of hot water. Then apply to the scalp as a shampoo. In a short time your dandruff will disappear. For sale by Croll Keller, C. M. Forney, Chas. T. George, E. F. Kramer, T. Crowell, Steetton; A. M. most surprising social sensation in Joliet's history.

For seven years Mr. and "Mrs. Robart have been conspicuous in church work. Mr. Robart was ausher in the Ottawa Street Methodis Church. His "wife" taught in Sunda. School. Both were particular friend of the pastor, the Rev. Ernest Wra. O'Neal. They frequently entertained their church friends at their home 214 John street. They were looked upon, until the last few days, as a devoted and happy pair.

Had Fine Business

Robart had built a fine business His trade in wagon and automobility munings, castings and accessorie covered the entire country. He icredited with a modest fortune.

"Mrs. Robart" went to visit he family in Virginia last June. She had drawn her bank savings of $500 and placed the money in Robart's keeping. She did not come back until a month ago. It was while she was away that the clouds gathered which burst in tragedy yesterday.

Robart went one night to a Chicago theater. In the chorus he saw for thirst time Eliste Buerlein, prettiest and shapeliest among the dancing nymphs A few days later, he met her in Joliet She announced her retirement from the footlights and told him she was going to live with her mother a Rockdale, a fashionable suburb. Every evening found Robart a welcome visit or at the home of the former chorus list affects with Miss.

"No," thundered Robart and turned his back.

She Fires

Mrs. Pfeiffer drew her hand from her muff. It gripped the revolver she had charged to Robart's account. She fired. The bullet entered the back of his neck and lodged at the base of his brain. Robart staggered to the street. The woman placed the muzzle of her pistol to her temple, pulled the trigger and fell dead.

In a notebook found in her purse was this notation:

"Elsie Buerlein—the trouble."

The fatal affair brought out the truth about Robart and the woman who had passed as his wife. In a statement to the police he said he had deserted a wife and four children in West Philadelphia and eloped with Mrs. Pfeiffer, who had deserted her husband, Samuel Pfeiffer, a saloon-keeper. They came to Chicago, and to throw off pursuit, lived as Mr. and Mrs. John Robart. The woman is a daughter of William M. Ogden, an engineer, of Richmond, Va.

So-called simach troubles, such as ir digestion, wind, stomach-ache and ir ability to retain food, are in probabl nine cases out of ten simply evident that fermentation, the result of exces acid, is taking place in the food contents of the stomach causing the formation of gas. Wind distends the stomach and causes that full, oppressive feeling sometimes known as heartburn while the acid irritates and inflame the delicate lining of the stomach. This trouble lies entirely in the excessive secretion of acid and the fermentation of the stomach and the fermentation of the stomach and the fermentation of the stomach and to neutralize the acid, and render it bland and harmles a tenspoonful of Bisurated Magnesiperhaps the best and most effective corrector of acid stomach known, should be taken in a quarter of a glass of hor cold water immediately after earling, or whenever wind or acidity is fel. This stops the fermentation, and neutralizes the acidity in a few moment Fermentation, wind and acidity are unnecessary. Stop or prevent them by the use of a proper antacid, such as Bis urated Magnesis, which can be obtained from any druggist and thus enable the stomach to do its work properly with out being hindered by gas and escessive acid.
