All the best equipment will be used and it will be one of the finest buildings in the State for a town of 5,000 inhabitants.

"Coffee Don't Hurt Me"

Can he get away with it?
The drug, caffeine, in coffee, about 2 1/2 grains to the average cup, hurts many coffee drinkers, at some time of life, and often hurts them hard.
Caffeine is a powerful irritant that unsteadies the nerves, races the heart, disorganizes the digestive organs and plays havoc with the health of a large proportion of coffee users.
Of course, there are some who go on drinking coffee for years, without apparent harm, at least they don't suspect it, until the cumulative drug, caffeine, has got in its work. Isn't it the best plan to play safe with health—quit coffee and use

Spy Found in Plant of Landis Tool Company

Special to The Telegraph
Waynesboro, Pa., Jan. 13.—A man, it is reported, attired in woman's togs, was here yesterday endeavoring to sell needles, collar buttons and coat-plaster. "She" visited various places and when "she" reached the Landis Tool Company's plant was told that visitors were not allowed into the works. "She" went out and gained admission through a side door. While "she" pretended to be quite busy selling the men needles through a pitiful plea it was also learned that "she" was paying more than the usual amount of attention to the workings of the plant and as to what was being turned out. One of the workmen went over to the foreman of the department and told him that he believed the "woman" was in reality a man, probably a spy of a foreign government. The so-called woman was ejected from the plant and hurriedly left town.

WIFE OF VILLA IS PEACE ANGEL

Renews Pleas With Mexican General After Friends Had Played False

El Paso, Texas, Jan. 13.—Mexico's peace angel is a squat, fat Mexican Indian woman of 35. She claims General Francisco Villa for her own with all the fire of her Spanish blood plus the stoicism of the Indian. If permanent peace comes to Mexico because of the protocol signed by the Villa generals it will be due to the loving persuasions of this same Mexican Indian woman, Senora Luz Corral De Villa.
To Senora Villa, regardless of her husband, Mexico will owe a debt of everlasting gratitude if lasting peace comes of the present negotiations, for it was due to her efforts that Villa finally and reluctantly consented to quit the field, resign his position and come to the United States to make his home with her after years of separation.
In a modest home of stucco and hollow tile in Missouri street, El Paso, Senora Villa has been living since she removed her husband's personal effects and her own belongings from Juarez, Saturday. In the evening room of this rambling home Mrs. Villa told how she succeeded in persuading her "panchito" to cease his warring and come to her. She said:
"Love Does Everything
"It is love that does everything," she said in Spanish. "I love my big boy as a mother loves her child, as I would have loved my little Panchito had he lived at San Andreas. He loves me just as devotedly as my big, red-blooded way. For Panchito there is no other but me. Of this I am sure."
"Since the awful battle of San Andreas, when so many of my husband's brave boys were killed, I have begged him to quit. Even when he was in command of all the forces of the North and was sweeping everything before him I implored him to end all of this suffering which would be laid at his feet. He insisted that he was fighting for his people, but I warned him of the great and good Madero's fate and of the sickness of his people—my people. When my baby was born dead at San Antonio during the battle I again begged him to quit the field and live with me in the mountains, as we had lived before the revolution. Month after month and year upon year I have repeated my supplication to him.
"After friends and foreign countries had played him false, had taken all his money and got from him and then deserted him, I realized that my time had come to renew my supplication. It was for that that I went to Chihuahua, and in the palace there I pleaded with him in the name of our little sleeping Panchito in the Pantheon on the hill to end this strife.
"For three days he refused and I left him to himself. Finally he surrendered, and to me the first fold of his resolve to quit and lay aside his arms if he was given permission to come to my home here and live with me once more. This was arranged from we are to be together again. When I cannot say, for I only know that he will arrive soon."

BEGIN ON SALTS AT FIRST SIGN OF KIDNEY PAIN

We eat too much meat, which clogs kidneys, then the back hurts.
Says glass of Salts flushes Kidneys and ends Bladder irritation.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's uric acid, and you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.
Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness, thus ending bladder weakness, thus ending bladder weakness.

Will Verify Statement

Mr. Phillip Gelber, 545 Bushwick Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y., will verify to anyone interested his endorsement of Fruitola and Traxo. In writing to the Finus laboratories Mr. Gelber says:
"I suffered with gall-stones seven years—tried various remedies without satisfactory result—was induced to try Fruitola and Traxo. Glad to say I am now feeling better than at any time for years and heartily recommend Fruitola and Traxo."
Fruitola acts on the intestinal organs as a powerful lubricant—softening the congested masses, disintegrating the hardened particles that cause so much suffering and expelling the accumulation with almost instant relief. Traxo is a taste-alterative acting on the liver and stomach, and is especially recommended in connection with Fruitola to build up and restore the weakened run-down system.
For the convenience of the public, arrangements have been made to supply Fruitola and Traxo through representative druggists. In Harrisburg they can be obtained at Giorgas, the druggist, 16 North Third street, and P. H. R. Station.

WOMEN AND PEACE
Hosts of women all over the country are rallying to join the Women's Movement for Constructive Peace, first suggested in America by an English woman. It is to the glory of womanhood that she conceived of concerted action toward the establishment of enduring peace. All men and women may not feel able to accede to all the propositions of this platform, and so may prefer to work along similar though somewhat divergent lines. Many believe that no political platform is needed, and are seeking to awaken sentiment more purely religious, showing the incompatibility of war and Christianity. If all endeavors might be merged into one mighty effort it would promise greater efficiency. Peace is what the world cries out for; and surely the world's noble sisters will not impede the cause by any personal ambition that does not savor of or militate toward peace.—THE CHRISTIAN HERALD.
