SCORES FIXING OF FIRE RATES

Judge Bonniwell Says Commission Should Have Charge of Work

Methods used by underwriters in fixing fire insurance rates, last night were scored by Judge Eugene C. Bon-niwell, of Philadelphia, president of the Pennsylvania State Firemen's Association. Judge Bonniwell was the first speaker at the second annual banquet of the Firemen's Union of 1914, held at Hotel Plaza.

Legislation providing for a commission, with power to make fire insurance rates, was urged by the Philadelphia judge. He also advocated turning over to the firemen of the State the full amount of the two per cent. tax paid by foreign insurance companies. At present the State distributes one per cent. of the tax.

Other speakers were Howard O. Holstein, toastmaster; Mayor E. S. Meals, who spoke on "Our City"; Millard F. Tawney, "Our Union"; Clarke E. Diehl, city electrician, "Our Volunteers of Harrisburg"; Edward Z. Gross, Commissioner of Parks and Public Property, "The Loan," and William S. Tunis, "The Parade of

Prior to the banquet, the firemen welcomed Judge Bonniwell with red fire, whistles and horns. The honored guest was escorted to Market Square where he reviewed the local com-panies. Later he was welcomed by Commissioner E. Z. Gross, in behalf of the firemen, at the Citizen firehouse.

This morning, in company with local commissioners, fire chiefs and members of the committee, Judge Bonniwell was shown over the city and visited all the fire houses. He congratulated Harrisburg on its department

Don't Merely "Stop" a 8 Cough

Stop the Thing that Causes It Stop Itself

A cough is really one of our best friends. It warns us that there is in-flammation or obstruction in a dangerous place. Therefore, when you get a bad cough don't proceed to dose yourself with a lot of drugs that merely "stop" the cough temporarily by deadening the throat nerves. Treat the cause—heal the inflamed membranes. Here is a homenade remedy that gets right at the cause and will make an obstinate cough vanish more quickly than you ever thought nos-swing to one side of the road to avoid striking the man.

"What else could he do?" asked Mr. Loeser. "The man suddenly started across the street between crossings. Keiser saw him and guided his machine to the side; the man stepped back again in the way of the machine; Keiser swung his car accordingly; then again the victim stepped directly in the way. What else could the chauffeur do, your Honor?" "Why," sternly responded the judge, "he could have stopped his car!" District Attorney Stroup called the court's attention specifically to the fact that Keiser was driving the car without the knowledge or consent of its owner. In so doing he had violated the law, he pointed out.

"True," observed Judge Kunkel, "but is this to be placed above the human life? What of the man who was killed; the life which was taken? The human life must be protected. Nowadays a man is almost compelled to act like a grasshopper in his efforts to dodge across the street when automobiles are passing."

Sentences were imposed late yesterday afternoon as follows: William Todd, robbery, three to five years in the penitentiary; Patrick J. Ferguson, criminal assault, two to four years; Hezekiah Warren, robbery, year and a half to three years; James Parker, larceny, six months.

In addition to the murder trials of W. H. Shuman and Thomas Smith, the manslaughter charges against Alma Keane were deferred with a number of other cases until the continued session of February 7.

ens and the dogs and the cats have been observant, too.

At first the furred and feathered folk took chances at dodging the rocks; lately they've grown to appreciate the same tip that means so much to the residents, according to to-day's witness. By pre-arrangement and in order to give the folks in the neighborhood half a chance to dodge a falling rock, the quarrymen send up a loud cry of "fire!" when about to blast.

The people, be they in barnyard, on porch, or on balcony, act promptly; they don't stop to reason why. Everybody hustles for cover. The cats and dogs, the pigs and the chickens are not especially stupid. At first they meowed and howled and barked and grunted and cackled. Now Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) in a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This gives you a full pint of the most pleasant and effective cough remedy you ever used, at a cost of only 54 cents. No bother to prepare. Full directions with Pinex.

It heals the inflamed membranes so gently and promptly that you wonder how it does it. Also loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough and stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, rich in gualacol, and is famous the world over for its healing effect on the membranes.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex." and of shared and granuted and cackled. Now that was they make little or no vocal fuss. Run For Shelter When Quarrymen Shout "Fire"

The cry of "fire" bellowed in the distance—reaching tones of the full-throated quarryman is not without its significance to the peaceful dogs and cats and chickens of Rockville; but it hasn't the usual meaning.

So an earnest Rockville matron declared on the witness stand in the January criminal court this morning during the trial of F. G. Kauffman, operator of a stone quarry on the outskirts of the up-river town. He is charged with maintaining a nuisance in that the heavy and frequent blasts send chunks of rocks plunging through roofs, fences, etc., to the annoyance of the residents in the neighborhood have grown used to the frequent showers of rock, however, and they dodge for their homes and barns like fighting Europeans to the gunshleters when the whistle of an approaching shell is heard.
