

CHARTER WORK IS GROWING FAST

Immense Amount of Business Done by the State Department During Year 1915

The State of Pennsylvania issued 1346 charters during 1915, almost double the number issued during 1914...

to charter business, which took a leap in the last four months of 1915, brought in a large share of the revenue...

Watch New System. — Operation of the State Workmen's Compensation system and the organization of the State Insurance fund have been under observation of officials from other States...

To Receive Bids. — The trustees of the State hospital here have asked for bids for construction of the new building at the hospital.

To Receive Bids. — The trustees of the State hospital here have asked for bids for construction of the new building at the hospital.

Mr. Kay Ill. — W. B. Kay, chief clerk to the Auditor General, is ill at his home in this city.

Mr. Ball Dies Monday. — William H. Ball, the new private secretary, will assume his office on Monday.

STEELTON NEWS HOME COMING ON JULY FOURTH

Businessmen of Borough Discuss Big Celebration Independence Day

A movement to celebrate the Fourth of July next with a big home-coming event or a municipal fete will be launched by the Steelton Businessmen's association at a meeting in the North Front street headquarters Monday evening.

St. Mark's Lutheran — The Rev. W. B. Smith, pastor, will preach at 10:30 a. m., on "Caught Up," and at 7:30 p. m., on "Christ the Bread of Life."

St. John's Lutheran — The following music has been announced for St. John's Lutheran Church to-morrow: Morning service, Emanuel's Land, Over, by Emerson.

St. John's Lutheran — The Rev. W. B. Smith, pastor, will preach at 10:30 a. m., on "Caught Up," and at 7:30 p. m., on "Christ the Bread of Life."

St. John's Lutheran — The Rev. W. B. Smith, pastor, will preach at 10:30 a. m., on "Caught Up," and at 7:30 p. m., on "Christ the Bread of Life."

St. John's Lutheran — The Rev. W. B. Smith, pastor, will preach at 10:30 a. m., on "Caught Up," and at 7:30 p. m., on "Christ the Bread of Life."

St. John's Lutheran — The Rev. W. B. Smith, pastor, will preach at 10:30 a. m., on "Caught Up," and at 7:30 p. m., on "Christ the Bread of Life."

KNOX IS BOOMED FOR PRESIDENT

States as available presidential timber. The Philadelphia Ledger to-day says in a first page article on the subject: "Progressives and Republicans, both here and in the congressional delegation at Washington, not only expressed approval of Mr. Knox as a senatorial candidate, but went further, and regarded him as definitely in the field for the presidential nomination which he would reunite the old and the third party.

The Philadelphia Ledger to-day says in a first page article on the subject: "Progressives and Republicans, both here and in the congressional delegation at Washington, not only expressed approval of Mr. Knox as a senatorial candidate, but went further, and regarded him as definitely in the field for the presidential nomination which he would reunite the old and the third party.

The Philadelphia Ledger to-day says in a first page article on the subject: "Progressives and Republicans, both here and in the congressional delegation at Washington, not only expressed approval of Mr. Knox as a senatorial candidate, but went further, and regarded him as definitely in the field for the presidential nomination which he would reunite the old and the third party.

The Philadelphia Ledger to-day says in a first page article on the subject: "Progressives and Republicans, both here and in the congressional delegation at Washington, not only expressed approval of Mr. Knox as a senatorial candidate, but went further, and regarded him as definitely in the field for the presidential nomination which he would reunite the old and the third party.

The Philadelphia Ledger to-day says in a first page article on the subject: "Progressives and Republicans, both here and in the congressional delegation at Washington, not only expressed approval of Mr. Knox as a senatorial candidate, but went further, and regarded him as definitely in the field for the presidential nomination which he would reunite the old and the third party.

The Philadelphia Ledger to-day says in a first page article on the subject: "Progressives and Republicans, both here and in the congressional delegation at Washington, not only expressed approval of Mr. Knox as a senatorial candidate, but went further, and regarded him as definitely in the field for the presidential nomination which he would reunite the old and the third party.

The Philadelphia Ledger to-day says in a first page article on the subject: "Progressives and Republicans, both here and in the congressional delegation at Washington, not only expressed approval of Mr. Knox as a senatorial candidate, but went further, and regarded him as definitely in the field for the presidential nomination which he would reunite the old and the third party.

The Philadelphia Ledger to-day says in a first page article on the subject: "Progressives and Republicans, both here and in the congressional delegation at Washington, not only expressed approval of Mr. Knox as a senatorial candidate, but went further, and regarded him as definitely in the field for the presidential nomination which he would reunite the old and the third party.

RAILROAD NEWS FURTHER RELIEF FOR LOCAL YARDS

Freight Office of P. R. R. Lift Embargo; Send Letter to Shippers

Orders issued late yesterday afternoon in Philadelphia raising further freight embargoes will bring relief in the local yards. A railroad bulletin to-day says: "In spite of the large accumulation of freight for export through the port of New York, the Pennsylvania Railroad has removed practically all of the restrictions it has had in effect on accepting for shipment freight of this kind."

Orders issued late yesterday afternoon in Philadelphia raising further freight embargoes will bring relief in the local yards. A railroad bulletin to-day says: "In spite of the large accumulation of freight for export through the port of New York, the Pennsylvania Railroad has removed practically all of the restrictions it has had in effect on accepting for shipment freight of this kind."

Orders issued late yesterday afternoon in Philadelphia raising further freight embargoes will bring relief in the local yards. A railroad bulletin to-day says: "In spite of the large accumulation of freight for export through the port of New York, the Pennsylvania Railroad has removed practically all of the restrictions it has had in effect on accepting for shipment freight of this kind."

Orders issued late yesterday afternoon in Philadelphia raising further freight embargoes will bring relief in the local yards. A railroad bulletin to-day says: "In spite of the large accumulation of freight for export through the port of New York, the Pennsylvania Railroad has removed practically all of the restrictions it has had in effect on accepting for shipment freight of this kind."

Orders issued late yesterday afternoon in Philadelphia raising further freight embargoes will bring relief in the local yards. A railroad bulletin to-day says: "In spite of the large accumulation of freight for export through the port of New York, the Pennsylvania Railroad has removed practically all of the restrictions it has had in effect on accepting for shipment freight of this kind."

Orders issued late yesterday afternoon in Philadelphia raising further freight embargoes will bring relief in the local yards. A railroad bulletin to-day says: "In spite of the large accumulation of freight for export through the port of New York, the Pennsylvania Railroad has removed practically all of the restrictions it has had in effect on accepting for shipment freight of this kind."

Orders issued late yesterday afternoon in Philadelphia raising further freight embargoes will bring relief in the local yards. A railroad bulletin to-day says: "In spite of the large accumulation of freight for export through the port of New York, the Pennsylvania Railroad has removed practically all of the restrictions it has had in effect on accepting for shipment freight of this kind."

ZEMBO BAND TO ACCOMPANY CITY TRADE TOURISTS

Central Construction and Supply Co. Makes Gift to Excursionists

The first reservation made for the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce Trade Excursion to be held, February 16 and 17, was for thirty tickets on the account of the Central Construction and Supply Company.

The first reservation made for the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce Trade Excursion to be held, February 16 and 17, was for thirty tickets on the account of the Central Construction and Supply Company.

The first reservation made for the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce Trade Excursion to be held, February 16 and 17, was for thirty tickets on the account of the Central Construction and Supply Company.

The first reservation made for the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce Trade Excursion to be held, February 16 and 17, was for thirty tickets on the account of the Central Construction and Supply Company.

The first reservation made for the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce Trade Excursion to be held, February 16 and 17, was for thirty tickets on the account of the Central Construction and Supply Company.

The first reservation made for the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce Trade Excursion to be held, February 16 and 17, was for thirty tickets on the account of the Central Construction and Supply Company.

The first reservation made for the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce Trade Excursion to be held, February 16 and 17, was for thirty tickets on the account of the Central Construction and Supply Company.

Man of Ability Seeks Desirable Business Connection

A man of 35, with excellent business training and wide experience as sales manager, road selling, executive in office and shop organization, and versed in costs and other branches of manufacture has voluntarily severed his out-of-town business connections to come back to his home city—Harrisburg.

He has references from former employers that will satisfy anyone who can use him. What he wants to do now is to locate that "anyone." Salary doesn't count—that he is willing to have regulated by his worth.

If you can use him in your business, address for interview, Box R, 3487, care of Harrisburg Telegraph.

$30,000 FIRE ON COLDEST NIGHT

When these burned, the heat and smoke drove the firemen back a number of times. The water froze on the firemen who worked in relays because of the intense cold.

When these burned, the heat and smoke drove the firemen back a number of times. The water froze on the firemen who worked in relays because of the intense cold.

When these burned, the heat and smoke drove the firemen back a number of times. The water froze on the firemen who worked in relays because of the intense cold.

When these burned, the heat and smoke drove the firemen back a number of times. The water froze on the firemen who worked in relays because of the intense cold.

LETTERS

fulfilling. Typewriting, Addressing, Folding, Inserting, Sealing, Stamping, and all mailing work a specialty. P. O. Box 436, Harrisburg. THE LETTER SHOP, Bell 4033-J.

AUTOISTS' THIRD ACCIDENT

In the third accident since he reported at the bureau of statistics of the Department of Labor and Industry. This was the largest day's loss reported.

TEACHERS TO MEET

The third meeting in the series of general teachers' meetings will be held in the high school Tuesday. Following is the program: Discuss the nature of the course in language in the primary grades.

ENHAUT

At the regular meeting of Washington Camp, No. 522, P. O. S. of A., at Enhaut, the following officers were installed by District Deputy H. E. Zorger: Past president, Edward J. Keiter; president, Lloyd Keiter; master of forms, Daniel Barnes; vice-president, J. H. Wagner; recording secretary, M. A. Schaeffer; financial secretary, H. D. Zorger; conductor, Robert Kemp; inspector, James Still; guard, Charles Pugh; trustee, John McCalan.

MINISTER RESIGNS

Marysville, Pa., Jan. 15.—At a meeting of the joint consistency of the Marysville, Duncannon and Daville churches of the Reformed Church the pastor, the Rev. S. L. Fleckerling, tendered his resignation, to take effect on February 17, the time of vacation. He has served in those churches, residing in this place the entire time. He will take up his new charge at Shepherdstown, W. Va.

DAUPHIN DEPOSIT TRUST COMPANY

OUR SERVICE—NEW MONEY. It has always been our custom to pay out clean money, and in many instances new money in the cashing of checks, etc.

