Religious Leaders Now on Way to Great Congress at Panama

More Than Fifty American Societies and Denominational Boards Represented By THE RELIGIOUS RAMBLER

There are now on the ocean or preparing to sail within the next five days—for no ship has room for them all—nearly three hundred of the foremost leaders in the religious life of North America, who are attending the much-discussed Congress on Christian Work in Latin America, to be held at Panama, Februery 10-20.

During the five years that it has been in preparation (for it was projected at Edinburgh in 1910) this conference has aroused more discussion than any other event in the religious life of North America during the same period. A clash of opinion over this conference led to the sensational resignation of five members of the Protestant Episcopal Board of Missions, including three bishops. The "Catholic" party of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and many spokesmen of the Roman Catholic Church, and some sensitive representatives of the South American republics, who objected to the implications of the searlier name, "Latin-American with the sions, Presbyterian, United States; Mrs. K. S. Westfall, Woman's American bissionary Conference," have antagonized the forthcoming congress, and this has led to the change of name and to the more careful statement of the objects of the meeting. More than fifty religious bodies, including all the largest denominations, and societes like the Young Men's Christian Association, the International Sunday School Association, etc., are officially participating in the congress.

Famous Churchmen Sail

Famous Churchmen Sail

There has never sailed from these shores a more distinguished body of religious leaders than are now bound for Panama, unless it be the delegates to the world's missionary conference at Edinburgh in 1910. John R. Mott will be the presiding officer, as he was at Edinburgh, and the list of speakers, while known privately, but not made public, is said by careful judges to be the most notable and statesmanlike array of talent ever brought together for a religious gathering in the Western Hemisphere.

The committee which has been officially designated by the various denominations and societies to direct the conference is made up as follows: Robert E. Speer, chairman, Board of Foreign Missions, Presbyterians, United States of America; the Rev. W. F. Oldham, D. D., vice-chairman, Board of Foreign Missions, Methodist Episcopal Church; the Rev. L. C. Barnes, D. D., recording secretary, American Baptist Home Missionary Society; the Rev. S. G. Inman, executive secretary, Christian Woman's Board of Missions; the Rev. Enoch F. Bell, American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions; Frank L. Brown, World's Sunday School Association; Miss Carrie J. Carnahan, Women's Foreign Missions, Presbyterian, United States; E. T. Colton, international committee, Foreign Missions, Presbyterian, United States; E. T. Colton, international committee, Foreign Missions, Methodist Episcopal Church, South; the Rev. J. H. Franklin, D. D., American Baptis Foreign Missionary Society; the Rev. W. I. Haven, D. American Bible Society; Miss Mabel Head, Woman's Missionary Council, Methodist Episcopal Church, South; the Rev. S. S. Grandma Used Sage Tea and Sulphur to Darken Her Hair and Nobody Knew streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is mussy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant.—Advertisement.

emerged the following official definition of the spirit and purpose of the meeting:

"Resolved, That this conference strongly recommends that those who are making arrangements for the Panama congress, as well as all writers and speakers at the congress, bear in mind that, if the best and most lasting results are to be obtained, while frankly facing moral and spiritual conditions which call for missionary work in Latin America, and while presenting the Gospel which we hold as the only adequate solution of the problems which those conditions present, it shall be the purpose of the Panama congress to recognize all the elements of truth and goodness in any form of religious faith. Our approach to the people shall be neither critical nor antagonistic, but inspired by the teachings and example of Christ and that charity which thinketh no evil and rejoiceth not in iniquity but rejoiceth in the truth.

"In the matter of Christian service we will welcome the co-operation of any who are willing to co-operate in any part of the Christian program. We should not demand union with us in all our work as the condition of accepting allies for any part of it."

in all our work as the condition of accepting allies for any part of it."

Interpreting Latin America
So numerous are religious conventions, and so ephemeral are most of them, that it has been rather difficult to make the average church member understand how different is the congress at Panama. Not only is it international and interdenominational in its scope, and not only has it enlisted the activities of the missionary leaders of North America, but it also contemplates a complete survey of religious and social conditions in Latin America. The statement is made by the Rev. S. Guy Inman, the executive secretary, that this conference will do more to interpret the Americas to each other than all the pan-American meetings that have gone before.

Eight commissions, numbering 215 persons, most of them experts upon the subject of Latin America, have long been engaged in the preparation of eight reports, which will later be bound in three volumes. These books, it is predicted by those who have seen the commissions' reports, will be the most comprehensive documents, upon all phases of Latin American life, ever published. Upward of a thousand persons have contributed facts and opinions to them, these documents all being digested by the commissions and written into the reports.

The subjects of the eight commissions are "Survey and Occupation," "Message and Method," "Education," "Literature," "Women's Work," "The Church in the Field," "The Home Base" and "Co-operation and the Promotion of Unity."

Stirring Two Continents

Not content with the interest which the congress itself will awaken—and South America is said to be keenly alert to all its plans and purposes and utterances—the leaders are going to carry the messages of the meetings to strategic points in South America and the West Indies. A series of eight "regional conferences," to be addressed by delegates, have been arranged for the following centers, after the Panama meetings adjourn: Lima, Santiago, Buenos Aires, Rio de Janeiro, Havana, Cuba; Sn Juan, Porto Rico

Mexico City, Central and the Mexico City, Central and the Mexico Inoportant religious meetings of North America will reflect this Panama congress, and the religious press will reche its messages. The effect upon political, commercial, social and religious relations between the two Americas will be great and it is not surprising that the President of Panama is assisting in the plans, and many diplomatists are showing keen interest.

Britain Is Told in Note by United States to Keep Hands Off Neutral Mails

Special to the Telegraph

Special to the Telegraph

Washington, D. C., Jan. 28. — The text of the American protest to Great Britain against interference with neutral mails, made public last night reveals that diplomatic and consular pouches have been treated in a manner the United States considers "vexatiously inquisitorial."

The note describes the practices of British officials as "unwarranted interference and in urgently requesting a strong feeling is being aroused" in this country by the loss of valuable letters, while foreign banks are refusing to cash American drafts because they have no assurances that drafts are secure in the mails.

The United States declares that parcel post articles are entitled to the exemptions of neutral trade, and denies the right of Great British jurisdiction for heart of the properties of the British Government has any authority over neutral sealed mails on ships which merely touch at British ports.

With the text of the American note was made public Great Britain's ad interim reply, saying that questions of principle raised by the United States have made it necessary for Great Britain to consult her allies before answering finally, and indicating that theregotiations unnecessary delay in the negotiations.

What the Stevens Bill Means

It means that certain manufacturers, dealers and malefactors of great wealth, finding that after the last decision on the subject by the Supreme Court of the United States, based on the Sherman Law, which said it was a crime to fix prices, got together and concocted the Stevens Bill, a bill now before Congress to fix, by law, the price of everything bought, sold and imported for sale in the United States.

This bill, my dear friends, has been before Congress for about three years and the promoters of this bill are spending millions of dollars in take advertisements, write-ups and subsidized educators to educate the people to the belief that the passage of this bill is solely in the interest of the common people, but they know fully well that they are trying to pass this obnoxious bill solely for their own interest, and should they be able to pass this fake socialistic-obnoxious price-fixing measure, they will be able to rob the people, not only out of the millions they are spending to pass this bill, but millions more of the earnings of the people that they will put in their own pockets.

If any price-fixing bill like the Stevens Bill had been passed thirty years ago, we never could have saved the people in Harrisburg the millions of dollars that we have saved them by cutting the price of Medicines as we have done for the past thirty years. In other words, they are trying to set aside with one blow the Sherman Law, which says, that no man or set of men can fix the price of merchandise in the United States, and the Stevens Bill says they can.

Are you going to let them do it? Or will you wake up and demand your RIGHTS by sending a one-cent postal card to your representative in Congress, telling him you want him to vote against the obnoxious Stevens Bill, which is detrimental to your interest.

Delays are dangerous. DO IT NOW. Make it strong, as it will be too late to kick after the bill is passed.
