Clara Hall Kuhn Is the Guest of Author of Book and Play Which Made Her Famous

"Well, there's Governor Erum-haugh now, he has his picture's in he's an example—so why should it shame me to have mine, in?" Visi-tors at the Martin home, Riverside, early in the week, met a pleasant lit-tle woman, slight in stature, with a daintiness and refinement belying her Dunker garb, and a sprightly, play-ful manner in spite of her 69 years. Mrs. Clara Hall Kuhn, of Cashtown, is the original of Juliet (Mrs. Dreary) in Mrs. Martin's book "Barnabetta." ow dramatized and produced under the title, "Erstwhile Susan," with Minnie Maddern Fiske in the leading vole.
