GOVERNOR PLAYS GOLF IN SOUTH

The Governor and Mrs. Brumbaugh Spend Their Honeymoon at Southern Resorts

Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh and his bride will spend their honeymoon visiting the resorts of Virginia and North Carolina. They will remain in the South for the remainder of the week and the Governor hopes to have some games of golf. They are now at Pinehurst, N. C.

While no announcement has been made, it is expected that the Governor will return to Harrisburg next week. He has a number of important meetings then and told friends here that he expected to be away from the Capitol only a short time.

William H. Bate, the Governor's secretary, to-day authorized the following statement: "The Governor did not send out to the many good people of Harrisburg announcements of the marriage because he has not had the pleasure of personally meeting these people, nor has his wife. They, however, wish it understood that when they return after March 1 they will be very glad to welcome all these people to the Mansion and hope to meet them frequently."

The wedding ceremony of the Governor and his ward, Miss Flora Belle Parks, took place Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Germantown Church of the Brethren with the Rev. George Dilling Kuns, pastor of the First Church of the Brethren, Carlisle and Dauphin streets, of which the Governor is a member, officiating, assisted by the Rev. Milton C. Swigart, pastor of the Germantown church. Neither the bride nor the bridegroom had any attendants.

The bride was attired in a dark gray traveling suit, severely tailored. She wore white furs, black patent leather pumps and a black sailor hat, with a white feather, and a corsage bouquet of violets. She carried a black silver-mounted handbag throughout the ceremony.

When the pronouncement of the marriage was made the Governor kissed the bride and then kissed his daughter, Miss Mabel Brumbaugh, who had left her pew to congratulate. As if slightly dazed, Mrs. Brumbaugh stepped to one side, but Miss Brumbaugh ran to her and kissed her repeatedly, while Louis J. Kolb, his wife and daughters and other friends were wringing the Governor's hands.

There is an element of more than passing interest in many of the details of the Governor's marriage, for each seems to dovetail very prettily with the other. In the first place, Miss Parks has been a dear friend of the Brumbaugh family for many years, and was, in fact, a companion and household assistant to his wife. She, too, was a student at Juniata College over which the Governor presided as president years ago, and she was a teacher of no common merit.

When the Governor, at 22 years of age, was superintendent of schools in Huntingdon county the Rev. Dr. Swigart was a teacher at Mifflin College, and both scholars became fast friends. Then when young Brumbaugh became head of Juniata College his friend matriculated there for the study of theology, and the friendship was cemented into close affection, which has been lifelong.

The "Governor's lady" is tall, stout and dark. She has an exceedingly pleasant face, and the Governor is said to have spoken of her as "a woman of great common sense." In a sense she has filled the post of chateleine of the Executive Mansion, as Miss Brumbaugh, the Governor's daughter, disliked social duties and preferred to follow her work as a teacher.

Miss Margaretta Fleming, of 111 State street, left to-day for a visit with Mrs. William S. Godfrey, of Bryn Mawr, and Mrs. Neil Salsich, in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Oscar Louis Gagg, of 2148 North Second street, has returned from a visit with her mother, Mrs. Henderson, at Germantown.

Miss Katherine Drawbaugh, of 1406 North Second street, leaves Wednesday for Boston to enter the Boston Conservatory of Music as a student in harp playing.

MISS MIRIAM NEY

The seventh birthday anniversary of little Miss Miriam Ney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ney, was merrily celebrated Saturday afternoon with a party at her home, 34 North Seventeenth street.

Spring flowers of yellow and white were used in decorating; there was a large birthday cake with seven candles and the supper favors were tiny suitcases filled with candies. The children enjoyed games and contests. Assisting Mrs. Ney were Mrs. C. L. Enck, Mrs. F. W. Steckley, Mrs. C. A. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Blair, and Mrs. Ben Hahn, of Steelton, and Mrs. Weir Hertzler, Williams Grove.

The guests included Bessie Hahn, Mary Roland, and Gladys Smith, all of Steelton; Jeanette Reynolds, Kathryn Sweeney, Catherine Ross, Mary Louise Rodfong, Margaret Gutshall, Evelyn Cook, Hazel Myers, Margaret Handshaw, Miriam Russ, Elizabeth Dearlort, Elizabeth Ney, Luther Ney, of Newport, and Gladys Hertzler and Romaine Hertzler, Williams Grove.

MR. AND MRS. FORTENBAUGH WEDDED FIFTY-FOUR YEARS

The fifty-fourth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Abram Fortenbaugh came yesterday. They passed the day quietly at their home, 1713 North Second street, and were glad to see some of their friends who came in to call. Letters, flowers and cards of congratulations were received by these well-known residents who came here from Halifax nearly twelve years ago.

While having retired from an active business life, Mr. Fortenbaugh is greatly interested in matters of to-day and Mrs. Fortenbaugh is a club woman of many interests, always ready to answer a call to benefit some one else.

Burns' February FURNITURE SALE---Starts Tomorrow

To-morrow and all through the month of February we shall offer practically every piece in our immense stock at savings of from

TEN to FIFTY PER CENT.

In considering this reduction, please remember that our prices always are lower than are asked for the same quality of goods anywhere else. Every piece we offer you in this sale is our regular stock—not "sale made" goods, in which the quality has been cheapened wherever it is impossible to detect it, in order to make showy pieces for furniture sale advertisements. These baits can be offered you at low prices because the construction has been cheapened. A piece may be finished with a coat or two less cheaper varnish than used on regular goods—or an upholstered piece may have the interior construction cheapened or fewer springs used. None of this kind of furniture finds place in our stock.

Don't buy a piece of furniture until you get our prices on the RELIABLE sort. We invite—we urge comparison of the most critical sort.

for every room in the house is offered you in this sale. Beautiful period furniture in profusion. The product of the best factories. All of these are offered to you at such liberal savings that it will pay you to anticipate your wants for many months to come. Especially as all manufacturers are advancing their prices on account of the increased cost of manufacture.

THE JOY OF MOTHERHOOD. Words of Encouragement to Childless Women. Motherhood is woman's natural destiny, but many women are denied the happiness of children simply because of some curable derangement. Among the many triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is its marvelous power to overcome such derangements, as evidenced by the following letter: Worcester, Mass.—"I suffered from female ills, and was advised to have an operation, but a friend who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and who has six children, told me to try it. It has helped me so much that I am now well and have a baby boy who is the picture of health, and I thank the Vegetable Compound for my restoration to health."—Mrs. BERT GARVEY, 20 Hacker St., Worcester, Mass. In many other homes, once childless, there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong. Write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice—it will be confidential.
