BULLS AND BEARS IN MILD CONTEST

Market Closes Irregular With No Conclusive Results;

Some Heaviness By Associated Press

New York, Feb. 5. - To-day's short session mainly represented a mild contest between the bull and bear accounts with no very conclusive result at the end. There was marked heaviness during the active first hour, Mercantile Mar-ine, preferred, recognized war issues, some coppers and specialties in general recording losses of 1 to 3 points, but in most instances these were largely if not fully regained. The Lusitania situation constituted the chief element of restraint, other news being of an encouraging character in its bearing upon general domestic conditions. The closing was irregular. Bonds were lower.
