

YOUTHFUL AIRMAN BRINGS DOWN HIS FIFTH ADVERSARY

Patrols the Air in a Huge Ninety-Mile-An-Hour Biplane

SPECTACULAR DUELS

Has Had Many Narrow Escapes in "The Old Charles," as He Calls Machine

Paris, Feb. 8.—Sergeant Pilot Guynemer, 21 years old, of the French flying corps, has just brought down his fifth German adversary and has been mentioned for his exploit in an official communication. Previously he had been decorated with the cross of the Legion of Honor, the war cross and the military medal.

M. Guynemer was a lad in college when the war began and enlisted at once. He had never been in an aeroplane, but after seven days' training made his first flight as a pilot's license. Six weeks' training usually is required.

His work at the front began last April. It was not until December 5 that he began to make his record by hunting German aeroplanes. At that time he brought down, single handed, a large German biplane.

Guynemer flies alone, as did Garros and Percoud, but instead of a monoplane he uses a great biplane which makes ninety miles an hour. He accounted for four machines in nine days.

In December he fought a spectacular duel directly above the French lines, with his comrades-in-arms cheering enthusiastically below. He was engaged with one of the famous Fokker aeroplanes, and though there were two men aboard the Fokker, he maneuvered skillfully until he brought his gun in range. At a distance of fifteen yards he delivered a mortal blow.

"The Old Charles" is the name given to his biplane. It is armed with a weapon which it is not permitted to describe. He handles it with remarkable facility and deadly precision, at the same time maneuvering his biplane with great skill.

Between the times of his fourth and fifth successful duels Guynemer had a narrow escape in a fight with a Fokker. At the moment of firing, at a distance of thirty yards, his gun became unusable, the lubricating oil having frozen. He attempted a quick turn, but, carried on by the momentum, struck the German machine with his upper plane and began to descend abruptly. After falling for 500 yards the biplane righted itself. Guynemer returned to the headquarters of his unit, but had missed his fifth machine, which he accounted for only a few days later, as he consisted went to earth in flames after a short combat.

Guynemer is of Scotch extraction.

Girls in Bathing Suits Play Medicine Ball Game in Snow on the Island

With the temperature 18 degrees, seven inches of snow on the ground, and the wind blowing 25 miles an hour, a game of medicine ball was played yesterday at Island Park playgrounds. The players wore one-piece bathing suits, and were in their bare feet.

They were five girls from the "Kokomo" Company playing in the Majestic theater, and two local athletes. The girls are: Eva LaRue, Ruth Mitchell, Katherine Rich, Mae Mahon and Baby Hallon. The Harrisburg athletes were "Cy" La Tour and Richard Coover.

DENOUNCING MEDICINES

Wholesale denunciation of proprietary medicines is no more justifiable than wholesale denunciation of the medical profession. It is no more true that there are reputable physicians who unselfishly devote their lives to an unending struggle with disease than that there are standard remedies which do as good a work; often where the work of the good physician cannot reach. A good example is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which has for forty years been alleviating the sufferings of women and curing the ills peculiar to their sex.—Advertisement.
