P. O. CLERKS HOLD ANNUAL BANQUET

Postmaster Frank C. Sites Is Honored With the Position of Toastmaster

FRANK C. SITES

Lincoln Day was given a special observance Saturday by the local branch of the United National Association of Postoffice Clerks, at its sixteenth annual banquet. Appropriate talks, music and souvenirs were a feature at the feast, which was served at Menger's cafe, No. 110 North Second street, Congressman Aaron H. Kreider was the orator of the evening. His subject was "Lincoln."

The toastmaster, Frank C. Sites, in his preliminary remarks thanked the clerks personally for their hearty cooperation in taking care of the largely increased business, and for their good work during the holidays. In introducing Congressman Kreider, Postmaster Sites referred to his forces as being numbered among the best in Pennsylvania.

The address of Congressman Kreider covered the early history of Abraham Lincoln, and that of Lincoln's ancestors, who were residents of Pennsylvania. The Congressman brought out a number of facts in the life of the martyred President. Referring to Lincoln's love for his mother, Congressman Kreider said: "When Abraham Lincoln was in his eighth year, his father moved to what is now Spencer county, Indiana, where about two years later, his mother died after a lingering illness. She was laid away in an opening in the woodland, a short distance from the cabin, no regular funeral services being held, as no minister was available, but sympathizing friends and neighbors offered sincere prayers. The lad, Lincoln, did not consider these burial services an adequate tribute to her who he loved so dearly, and notwithstanding the fact that he was only in his tenth year, a mere child, he wrote to Elder Elkins, who lived near them in Kentucky, begging him to come and preach a sermon at his mother's grave. While this involved a journey of more than 100 miles on horseback, the Godly man cheerfully complied, and the following Spring neighbors and friends again gathered around the grave."

"Lincoln always held the memory of his mother in the deepest reverence and affection. Long years after he said to a friend, 'All that I am, or ever hope to be, I owe to my sainted mother.' Congressman Kreider followed with a history of Lincoln in his first public office, that of post clerk, and followed him up to the time he reached Washington, referring to conditions on his arrival at the Nation's capital and to his good work in bringing about the salvation of the Nation.

The program also included a number of interesting features. H. M. Sauser played several violin selections, and was accompanied by Miss Nancy Cannon, pianist. Prof. W. D. Moyer offered mandolin solos, with Mrs. Harold K. Goodman as accompanist, and George Martin gave a humorous monologue. Charles H. Hoffman read Lincoln's Gettysburg address. Victrola selections were also played.

Invited guests present were Assistant Postmaster S. W. Fleming, M. M. Dougherty, postmaster of Mechanicsburg; Frank T. Rogers, H. E. Lucas, postal inspector, John M. Dalley, and Dean Hoffman.

The officers of the association are President, Edna Y. Longenecker; vice-president, Charles D. Himes; secretary, Charles W. Blosser; treasurer, John T. Mohler and sergeant-at-arms C. K. Beaman.

This committee arranged the banquet: Edward G. Naylor, chairman; E. H. Anderson, W. A. Blacksmith, J. A. Peeman, G. F. Fenical, E. H. Gabriel, and J. T. Mohler.

True Secret of Keeping Youthful Looking

(The Beauty Seeker.)
 "The real secret of keeping young-looking and beautiful," says a well-known hygienist, "is to keep the liver and bowels normal and active. Without these requisites, poison, waste products remain in the system, polluting the blood and lodging in various organs, tissues, joints. One becomes flabby, obese, nervous, mentally sluggish, dull-eyed, wrinkled and sallow of face."
 "But to get liver and bowels working as they ought, without producing evil after-effects has been the problem. Fortunately, there is a prescription of unquestioned merit, which may now be had in convenient tablet form. Its value is due largely to an ingredient derived from the humble May apple, or its root, which has been called 'vegetable calomel' because of its effectiveness—though, of course, it is not to be classed with the real calomel of mercercurial origin. There is no habit-forming constituent in 'santal' tablets—that's the name—and their use is not followed by weakness or exhaustion. On the contrary, these harmless vegetable tablets tend to impart tone and elasticity to the relaxed intestinal wall. Santal tablets, which may be procured from any druggist—a dime's worth will do—will prove a revelation to any constipated, liver-troubled person."

The Constipation Curse

Constipation - clogged bowels cause pain and sickness; 95 per cent of our ills, say the authorities. Santal Laxatives bring quick relief. All vegetable—contain no calomel. Ten doses for a dime at any druggists. Physician's sample free, upon request, if you mention this advertisement. The Santal Remedies Co., Inc., 800 Madison Ave., Covington, Ky.

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK, CROSS, FEVERISH

Hurry, Mother! Remove poisons from little stomach, liver, bowels.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once if bilious or constipated.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep and sickness; 95 per cent, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of the little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative;" they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.
