WEEK COPPERS CHECK RALLIES

Canadian Pacific and U. S. Steel Made Up Early Losses

Chicago, Feb. 17.—The trial of William Lorimer, former United States Senator on charges of wrecking the La Salle Trust and Savings Bank while president of the institution is set for to-day in the criminal court.

It is estimated that more than two weeks will be required in the selection of a jury.

Argument on a motion to consolidate all of the indictments pending against the defendant probably will precede the examination of veniremen.

C. B. Munday, vice-president of the La Salle Trust and Savings Bank, when it failed, was convicted recently on a charge of conspiracy to wreck the bank and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. Pending an appeal he is at liberty on bail.

Canadian soon showed an
