

CHALMERS SALES ON THE INCREASE

Rise in Price of $100 on Six-40 Has Encouraged Many New Sales

Following the recent announcement of an increase of $100 in the price of the Chalmers Six-40, we have disposed of more cars of this model during the past month than in any month in our history...

Probably our biggest selling feature in connection with the Six-40 is the powerful motor with its overhead valve and overhead camshaft design.

Eight of the first ten cars to finish at Indianapolis in the last 500-mile race were propelled by valve-in-head, overhead camshaft motors and seven of the first eleven finishers at Chicago were similarly equipped.

In the third annual national Pike Hill climb at Uniontown, Pa., a Chalmers Six-40, with this style of motor, easily won its class event in competition with supposedly higher powered cars.

Repeated tests of the new Chalmers Six-40 have shown that the car in daily service will travel 16 miles to the gallon of gasoline, under ordinary conditions.

The new Chalmers Six-40 is a big, luxurious car, roomy enough for seven grownups to lean back and ride at ease.

"Safety first" features are strongly marked in the new Six-40. The brakes are twenty-five times as large in proportion to the weight of the car as the brakes on an average automobile.

"Consulting the interests of the woman driver, the Six-40 touring car is ideally designed to fit her needs. Her finger tips are on a board on which everything is in plain view and easy to get at.

"Enlargements of the big Chalmers plant at Detroit has made it possible to turn out the new Six-40 at the low price of $1,450.

BISHOP J. W. SHANAHAN DIES AT LANCASTER

ton, which curiously enough was attended also by his brother, the Rt. Rev. Jeremiah F. Shanahan, the first bishop of Harrisburg, and the Rt. Rev. Thomas McGovern, the second bishop of the diocese.

Appointed by Leo XIII. Bishop McGovern died July 25, 1898, but it was not until January 1, 1899, that Pope Leo XIII. appointed Father Shanahan as head of this diocese.

Bishop Shanahan occupied the time during the first few months after his consecration in visiting the various parishes in the diocese and looking after their needs and welfare.

Founded 26 New Parishes In 1899 when Bishop Shanahan came to Harrisburg there were but two Catholic churches here, St. Patrick's Pro-Cathedral and St. Lawrence's German Catholic Church.

In the first of a series of debates between high schools in Harrisburg and vicinity, held last night in the Technical High School auditorium, Central High students came off victorious.

Central High School debaters won from the Technical High team last night after the subject of "Preparedness" had been thrashed out for more than an hour by the six speakers representing the two schools.

On the other side of the stage sat Jack Stittler, William Watson and Samuel Sherman, the Tech debaters, while Charles Johnson acted as alternate.

Prayers Offered in Chapel of Holy Spirit For the Bereaved of Diocese James Henry Darlington, Episcopal bishop of the Diocese of Harrisburg, rested in peace and may Light Perpetual shine upon him.

Shanahan this morning, forwarded a letter from the See House to the Telegraph which in part is as follows: "I regret very much to hear of the sudden death of Bishop Shanahan at an early hour this morning.

For the funeral, too, prominent Catholic educators are expected, for Bishop Shanahan, before coming to Harrisburg, was one of the best known Catholic educators in Pennsylvania.

A political cartoon by Briggs titled 'THE TRUTH IS ALL RIGHT IF YOU CAN GET AWAY WITH IT'. It depicts a man in a suit (representing a politician or official) being confronted by a man in a military uniform (representing the German army). The man in the suit is making excuses and trying to get away, while the man in the military uniform is pointing out the truth and the consequences of his actions. The cartoon includes several speech bubbles with humorous and satirical dialogue.
