

CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA NEWS

GOLD FOOTBALLS FOR STAR PLAYERS

Dickinson Students Honored at Annual Banquet of Carlisle Educational Institution

Carlisle, Pa., Feb. 23. — The biggest event of the college year at Dickinson was the annual banquet held last evening in the college gymnasium. About 300 underclass men and alumni were present. Dr. J. H. Morgan, president of the college was toastmaster.

Letters From Absent Friends Read at Society Meeting

Dauphin, Pa., Feb. 23. — The Mite Society, of the Presbyterian church, was entertained last evening by Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Lewis and John Bricker at their home in High street. Several letters were read from the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fulton Stirling, who are spending the month in Bermuda. Refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shaffer, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. M. Reed, Dr. and Mrs. William P. Clark, Mrs. Thomas Poffenberger, of Harrisburg; Mrs. J. W. Hawthorne, Mrs. Harvey C. Forney, Mrs. Blanch Robinson, Mrs. George Heck, Mrs. Harvey Reed, Mrs. Elizabeth Gerberich, Mrs. Jennie Hickernell, Mrs. George Gilday, Mrs. William Fisher, Mrs. William F. Reed, Miss Margaret Brooks, Miss Ora Bickel, Miss Anna Houck, Miss Carrie E. Gerberich, Miss Ruth M. Shaffer, Miss Esther Shaffer, Miss Alice Minsker, Miss Ethel R. Forney, Miss Margaret Hawthorne, Miss Sabra Clark, Freeman C. Gerberich, Russell Reed, John Bricker and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey C. Forney on Tuesday evening, February 23.

Mt. Joy Soldiers' Orphans Hold Twenty-Ninth Reunion

Mount Joy, Pa., Feb. 23. — At the twenty-third annual reunion of the Mount Joy Soldiers' Orphans School held in Mt. Joy Hall yesterday afternoon, the following officers were elected: President, W. H. Kern, Philadelphia; first vice-president, Mrs. A. B. Myers, Philadelphia; second vice-president, Mrs. Kate Dorwart, Lancaster; financial secretary, Thomas D. Hooper, Philadelphia; recording secretary, Charles A. Gearhart, Philadelphia; chairman executive committee, C. Day Rudy, Harrisburg; chairman membership committee, Howard Jones, Boston.

Frightened Horse Goes Over 30-Foot Embankment

Mt. Union, Pa., Feb. 23. — While H. L. Norris, was driving an automobile near Orbisonia on Monday night an axle broke and while he was trying to fix the car a team, driven by H. Hommond, of Orbisonia, tried to pass the car. The horses became frightened at the lights and took the occupants, Mr. and Mrs. Hommond, over a thirty-foot embankment, completely demolishing the carriage. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hommond were internally injured, but will recover. The horse was only slightly hurt.

COLUMBIA PHYSICIAN WEDS

Columbia, Pa., Feb. 23. — Dr. J. P. Kennedy, well-known surgeon and Miss Lillian P. Wardell, former superintendent of the Columbia Hospital, and until recently superintendent of the Lancaster General Hospital, Lancaster, were married in St. Peter's Roman Catholic church here yesterday.

CARLISLE ELKS' BANQUET

Carlisle, Pa., Feb. 23. — Members of the local lodge of Elks last evening held their annual banquet here. About 80 men were present. Horace Hegelbaum, of the Harrisburg lodge, No. 12, was the principal speaker.

Explorers Hold Midwinter Reunion at Carlisle

Carlisle, Pa., Feb. 23. — About 30 members of the famous Explorers' Club of Harrisburg and Chambersburg sportsmen attended the annual midwinter reunion of the organization which was followed by a banquet at the New Wellington hotel yesterday. This gathering is usually held either in Chambersburg or Harrisburg, but this year it was decided to meet on "neutral ground" and Carlisle was chosen.

B. M. Nead, Harrisburg, the president, was toastmaster and many impromptu remarks were made. The officers are: J. H. Shank, Chambersburg, treasurer; C. C. Schriver, Harrisburg, secretary, and M. R. Rhoads, Harrisburg, commissary. The following members attended: M. R. Rhoads, J. H. Shank, Ira Ebersole, H. B. McNulty, Stanley Appenzeller, Edwin Blair, W. L. Minnick, D. N. Minnick, the Rev. L. W. Lutz, Preston Cook, C. W. Derr, all of Chambersburg; H. P. Miller, E. M. Nead, C. W. Archer, C. C. Sebrim, H. D. Sollenberger, Alfred Hoerner, George N. Barnes, J. M. Hemperly, W. B. Manstetter, W. E. Deitrich, William P. Miller, Edward Mariner, the Rev. George N. Lauffer, Dr. C. R. Phillips, C. F. Hoover, B. E. Wickersham, the Rev. I. S. Rupp and J. H. Santo, of Harrisburg.

WOMAN COMMITS SUICIDE

Waynesboro, Pa., Feb. 23. — Swallowing a quantity of arsenic, Mrs. Arthur Devilbas ended her life at her home at Middleburg. One of her sisters, Miss Lula Airing, committed suicide four years ago by swallowing laudanum.

"PIPE DAY" PARADE

Carlisle, Pa., Feb. 23. — Dickinson college freshmen yesterday formally observed "pipe day" with a fantastic parade through the town. This was the first day on which they were permitted to use tobacco on the college campus.

WEST SHORE NEWS

West Shore Endeavorers Hold Rousing Rally

Endeavorers representing the C. E. societies of Lemoyne, Wormleysburg, Enola, West Fairview, and other visiting Endeavorers from Marysville, and this city, attended the best rally held in the series of the meetings during this month, which was held in the Grace United Brethren church, West Fairview, last evening. David Shettle, vice-president of the West Shore district, presided. An interesting program, which occupied nearly two hours time was rendered. The State convention and Christian Endeavor week enthusiasm was shown by the many choruses present. Among the speakers on the program were the Rev. Mr. Rice, and the Rev. Mr. Vance, West Fairview; the Rev. P. E. Koonce, Lemoyne; Messrs. Wm. M. Malley, A. C. Dean and E. C. Schilling of this city. Special music was rendered by the Enola Lutheran C. E. society, William Bretz, of West Fairview; male quartet, of Wormleysburg, and instrumental duet by Wm. Bretz and Harold Walsh, of the Lutheran C. E. society.

A rousing rally will be held in the United Brethren church, Penbrook, to-morrow evening, under the auspices of the hill district C. E. societies. A good program including an address on "Expert Endeavor," by the Rev. H. E. Hallman, will be rendered. Many special musical features will also be on the program. Societies are urged to meet early and occupy reserved seats.

Social and Personal News of Towns Along West Shore

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Abel and family, of Columbia, spent several days at Wormleysburg visiting Mr. Abel's sister, Mrs. Ralph Schrack. The Priscilla Club met at the home of Mrs. H. R. Boose on Monday evening. Mrs. J. Snyder, of Hummelstown, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ambrose Backenstoe, at Enola. Miss Florence Schupe, of Newville, has returned home after spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. James A. Huston at Enola. William H. Beers, of Enola, spent the day at Duncannon with relatives. Leslie Webster, of Philadelphia, is visiting his parents in Altoona avenue, Enola.

MINSTRELS REHEARSING

Wormleysburg, Pa., Feb. 23. — Tomorrow evening the Wormleysburg Minstrels will meet at the home of Linwood Wanbach. A number of the new songs have been obtained and the best talent of the town will take part. They are working hard to make this their best show.

SELLING GROCERY STOCK

Wormleysburg, Pa., Feb. 23. — Daniel Brown is selling the stock of his grocery store with the intention of living retired. He is one of the best known residents of Wormleysburg and has kept a grocery store at the corner of Front and Poplar streets for twenty years.

MRS. SPEAKMAN RECOVERING

New Cumberland, Pa., Feb. 23. — Mrs. H. W. Speakman who had her back badly injured by falling on the ice at her home in Geary avenue last Monday is recovering.

P. O. S. of A. District Convention at Dauphin

Dauphin, Pa., Feb. 23. — The annual district convention of the Patriotic Order of the Sons of America, was held here yesterday afternoon at the hall at Camp 424 last evening. Prominent speakers of the afternoon were John M. Schaffner, Camp 716; Ira Hoover, Camp 505; Frank Lindsey, Camp 8; J. J. Peifer, Camp 715, and I. F. Bogner, Camp 424. About 60 were in attendance at the meeting and the following officers were elected: President, Walter Alleman; vice-president, W. H. Miller; master of forms, Robert Keim; secretary, Ed. H. Weigel; treasurer, J. M. Schaffer; conductor, Russell B. man; inspector, Robert Shner; guard, Charles Pugh; J. I. Peifer was appointed chaplain and Jesse Wells was appointed secretary. At the meeting of the Past Presidents' Association, held in the evening, the following officers were elected: President, Frank Lindsey; vice-president, John L. Porter; secretary, Jesse Wells; treasurer, Joseph W. Bricker.

Mechanicsburg Firemen Celebrate 58th Anniversary

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Feb. 23. — Last evening the fifty-eighth anniversary of the Washington Fire Company No. 1 was celebrated with a banquet. E. C. Gardner was toastmaster and the program included music by the orchestra; addresses by the Rev. Charles P. Raach, the Rev. H. Hall Sharp, the Rev. George Fulton, D. S. Walter, of the Citizen Fire Company, No. 2, fire chief; R. Wilson Hurst, of the Rescue Hook and Ladder Company, No. 1, first assistant fire chief; and Cyrus N. Williams, of the Washington Company, second assistant. On the committee of arrangements were Amos Arnold, M. G. Fernbaugh, Warren Gill, A. F. Ehl, W. B. Raver, Huston Eckels, Charles Yoke, Frank Z. Dull, William Beitzel, Parker Rider, Wilson Kapp, Roy Aughinbaugh, George McLane, Walter Gronbeck, Harry Martin and C. M. Cocklin.

Physician's Ashes Placed in Huntingdon Bank Vault

Huntingdon, Pa., Feb. 23. — Dr. D. P. Miller, who died here last week, at a request before his death that his body should be cremated and the ashes buried in the family plot here. He had a stone cut in which the urn was to be placed. The body was cremated at Pittsburgh and the ashes are now in the vault of the First National Bank awaiting removal to the Huntingdon cemetery.

BANK PRESIDENT CHOSEN

Palmira, Pa., Feb. 23. — Christian C. Gingrich, of Lawn, was yesterday elected president of the Valley Trust Company, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Samuel F. Engle. Mr. Gingrich has been vice-president of the institution and W. I. Hess was elected to that position.

FARMERS' CLUB MEETS

Hogestown, Pa., Feb. 23. — A meeting of the McCormick Estate Farmers' Club was held at the Star farm yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Eshelman entertained the visiting members and Vance C. McCormick presided. Prof. McDowell, of Pennsylvania State College, spoke on "Soil Fertility" and Jackson Boyd, of Bonnyead farm made an address on "Milk Production."

Edward Co. 443 Market St. Edward Co.

4 DAY CLOSING OUT SALE Going Out of Business END OF THIS MONTH

Every suit for man, woman and boy, also coats, will be priced for quick selling; nothing held back. The prices will be remarkably low, as it is a case of get rid of the merchandise.

- 450 SUITS—250 OVERCOATS—100 BOYS' SUITS
- Men's Overcoats — all wool fabrics, good styles; worth up to $15. $3.95 Spot Cash
- Ladies' Coats — A few ladies' coats, small sizes only; values to $1.95 $25. Spot Cash ..
- Men's Finest Overcoats of best all-wool materials; worth up to $25. $7.90 Spot Cash
- Men's Work Pants — All sizes, good patterns; worth $2.00. Spot 79c Cash
- Men's Suits of all-wool materials; worth up to $20. Spot $6.90 Cash
- Men's Overcoats of all-wool materials; worth up to $20.00. Spot $5.90 Cash
- Girls' Coats — One lot of coats, good styles and patterns; ages 6 to 14; worth $12.50. Spot $2.79 Cash
- One lot of Girls' Coats; ages 6 to 14; worth up to $8.50. Spot $1.79 Cash
- One lot of Waists of white voile and crepe; worth $1.95. Spot 79c Cash
- One lot of Ladies' Shawls, in white, pink, blue and garnet; values 49c to $1.25. Spot 15c to 39c Cash
- One lot Ladies' Summer Dresses; values to $12.50. Spot $1.95 Cash
- Men's Hose — One lot of men's hose, in black and fancy colors; worth 5 1/2c 15c. Spot Cash
- One lot of Ladies' Silk Waists; black and white stripes; value $2.95. 59c Spot Cash
- One lot of Men's Suits, all wool materials; values to $15.00. Spot $3.95 Cash
- A few elegant Evening Wraps; worth up to $35.00. $3.95 Cash
- One lot of Men's Fleece Lined Underwear; worth 50c. Spot 29c Cash
- Ladies' $25.00 Pile Plush Coats — One lot of these elegant coats; worth $25.00. Spot $11.90 Cash
- Boys' All-wool Suits — One lot of all-wool suits; sizes to 18 years; worth $8.50. Spot $2.95 Cash
- Ladies' Waists — One lot of waists; worth up to $1.00. Spot Cash, 29c
- Ladies' Coats — One lot of ladies' coats, fine quality; values up to $30. $4.95 Spot Cash
- One lot of Children's Sweaters; worth 49c. 19c Spot Cash
- One lot of Boys' All-wool Suits; ages to 18 years; value $6.50. $1.89 Spot Cash
- One lot of Men's Working Shirts; worth 49c. Spot Cash 19c
- One lot of Men's Fleece Lined Underwear; worth 50c. Spot 29c Cash

EDWARD CO., 443 Market St.

PURE TOBACCO NOTHING MORE

When you smoke a RECRUIT you smoke tobacco.

Think it over!

RECRUITS are extra mild, pure and clean. You can smoke them all day without feeling you're smoking too much.

H. Ellis & Co. Branch
Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

RECRUIT
LITTLE CIGARS

ROYAL W. MYERS BURIED
Special to the Telegraph
Dillsburg, Pa., Feb. 23. — Funeral services for Royal W. Myers, the farmer and trucker who was accidentally killed on Sunday morning while returning from Harrisburg market, was held this morning. Services were conducted in the Franklin Church by the Rev. C. E. Heffler, pastor of the Dillsburg Reformed church, and burial was made in the cemetery adjoining.

EX-POSTMASTER ROSS, BURIED
Special to the Telegraph
Dillsburg, Pa., Feb. 23. — Funeral services for Lemuel Ross, ex-postmaster of Dillsburg, who died at his home in South Baltimore street on Sunday night, were held yesterday afternoon, conducted in the home by the Rev. J. Harvey Wolf, pastor of the Monaghan Presbyterian Church. Burial was made in the Warrington Friends Meetinghouse Cemetery in Warrington township.

SHEESLEY BARN BURNED
Special to the Telegraph
Penbrook, Pa., Feb. 23. — Fire last night destroyed a large bank barn on the farm of Baron Sheesley, at Farmlyn, one and a half miles east of Penbrook. The farm is tenanted by Harry Houck and the loss is estimated at $4,000. A lot of hay, straw and oats was destroyed, as well as farm machinery and implements.

PASTOR ENTERTAINS MEMBERS
Special to the Telegraph
Columbia, Pa., Feb. 23. — Nearly one hundred members of Grace United Evangelical church crowded the parsonage last night, and held a Martha Washington Tea and Social. The guests were entertained by the pastor, the Rev. George B. Gensemer, and his wife. A number were attired in Continental costumes, representing the Revolutionary characters, and Miss Mildred Criswell recited a poem entitled "Our Country."

NO WORK FOR DRINKERS
Special to the Telegraph
Lewistown, Pa., Feb. 23. — A. J. Haws & Co., who have started a big job in the Narrows east of town getting out ganister rock, will allow neither booze nor the man who drinks it on the job. The firm realizes that only sober men are fit to work at such occupation. Only American citizens will be employed.

NEWBERRY TEACHERS BANQUET
Special to the Telegraph
Lewistown, Pa., Feb. 23. — School teachers of Newberry township held a banquet at the Lewistown Hotel. The following were present: The Misses Elsie Nebinger, Dillia Bruah, Ethyl Kister, Messrs. William C. Crone, Bruce G. Nebinger, Earl Boshore, Robert W. Shupp, J. W. Weigle, John E. Whisler, M. H. Beckley, and Wayne D. Kelly. J. E. Whisler was toastmaster.

To attend the HARRISBURG MOTOR SHOW and not thoroughly inspect the

Packard

TWIN-SIX

is to disregard the recognized standard of perfection in a motor car.

The performance of this car in the hands of users verifies every claim made for the twelve-cylinder motor and emphasizes its superiority in any service.

From whatever standpoint an automobile is to be judged—whether performance, design or value—it represents an advance so important as to demand your personal and critical attention.

PACKARD MOTOR CAR COMPANY
of PHILADELPHIA 107 Market Street, Harrisburg, Pa.