Bold Robbers Hold Up Two Men and Steal $50

Palmira, Pa., Feb. 25.—Shortly before 7 o'clock last evening two young men, apparently about 20 years old, held up and robbed J. Raymond Engle, an attorney, and Charles Dietrich, clerk in the Engle general store in North Railroad street. The men were not masked and held the victims at the point of a pistol while they rifled the cash drawer of $50 and made their escape.

Failure to Absorb Flesh Making Materials in Daily Meals Keeps Weight Down

Most thin people eat from four to six pounds of good solid fat-making food every day and still do not increase in weight one ounce, while on the other hand many of the plump, chunky folks eat very lightly and keep gaining all the time. It seems all bosh to say that this is the nature of the individual. It isn't Nature's way at all. Most thin people stay thin because their powers of assimilation are defective. They absorb just enough of the food they eat to maintain life and a semblance of health and strength. Stuffing won't help them. A dozen meals a day won't make them gain a single "stayhere" pound. A great part of the fat-producing elements of their food just stay there in the intestines until they pass from the body as waste. What such people seemingly need is something that will so act upon these fatty food elements that their blood can absorb them and deposit them all about the body—something too, that will multiply their red blood corpuscles and increase their blood's carrying power. There is a preparation known to reliable druggists almost everywhere which was designed to aid in supply-

Special to the Telegraph
Dauphin, Pa., Feb. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry I. Gerberich entertained at a card party last evening in honor of their son, Charles' twentieth birthday, at their home in South Erie street. The house was tastefully decorated with flowers and the party included the Misses Hallie Matthews, of Harrisburg; Anna Hoffman, Ora Biebel, Anna Houck, Carrie Gerberich and Sabra Clark; Messrs. Russel Matthews and Deloss Frank, both of Harrisburg; Ray Hoffman, Edgar W. Porney, Elton C. Welker and Charles S. Gerberich.

HE KNEW JUST WHAT TO DO
"Yes, sir," said the kindly looking gentleman during a discussion in the railway car. "I firmly believe that it is a man's duty to share any good luck he may have with his wife. For instance, when he makes a little extra profit he ought to buy her a new dress."
"A good idea," agreed the man in the corner. "Er—are you a social philosopher, sir?"
"No," replied the other. "I'm a wholesale dress manufacturer."—New York Globe.

EDITORIAL ELYSIUM
"Follow dropt into the office the other day and ordered the paper, and we were pleased. Said it was a good paper, and we were glad. Said it was more than worth the money to any man of intelligence, and we were tickled. Said it was the mainstay of the town, and we were superfluous. Said it was the greatest booster and the most reliable town builder and developer in this whole community, and we yelled with joy. Paid for his paper, and—we slid gently to the floor in blissful unconsciousness. Nature had reached its limit."—Altoona Tribune.

MAKING IT FIT
"Did you hear about the defacement of Mr. Skinner's tombstone?" asked Mr. Brown a few days after the funeral of that eminent captain of industry.
"No, what was it?" inquired his neighbor, curiously.
"Someone added the word 'friends' to the epitaph."
"What was the epitaph?"
"He did his best."—London Opinion.

REAL ESTATE DISTRIBUTING CENTER MOVES

Real estate men view with much interest the recent big changes in the city's business places and regard the moves with considerable significance. One big operator has called attention to the growth of a new wholesale district south of Market street in the vicinity of Second street.

Here the Pennsylvania railroad is building its new freight station which will give unexcelled advantages to wholesale and distributing agencies for shipping, and the recent completion of the Front and Second street subways give facilities for motor truck deliveries.

As predicted by prominent businessmen before the various improvements in this locality are undertaken, a flourishing distributing center is now growing up in this section. The most recent deal was that of Joseph Cluster, wholesale notions, Whitman-Schwarz, the various meat packing companies and other distributors have been located here for some time.

Good Roads Help to Boost Realty Values

That the construction and maintenance of good roads not only affect the traveling public but that directly help to increase realty values generally, was interestingly pointed out by State Highway Commissioner R. J. Cunningham yesterday in his address to the supervisors of Dauphin county.

"Benefits of good roads," pointed out Mr. Cunningham, "materialize not only to the traveling public, but enhance greatly the value of real estate."

ABOUT TIME
One evening the young minister, who had seemed rather attracted by "Big Sister" Grace, was dining with the family. Little Sister was talking rapidly when the visitor was about to ask the blessing. Turning to the child, he said, in a tone of mild reproof: "Laura, I am going to ask grace."
"Well, it's about time," answered Little Sister in an equally reproving tone. "We've been expecting you, to do it for a year, and she has, too."—Chicago Journal.

A LOST LAMB
William Dean Howells, at a dinner in Boston, said of modern American letters:
"The average popular novel shows on the novelist's part an ignorance of his trade which reminds me of a New England clerk."
"In a New England village I entered the main street department store one afternoon and said to the clerk at the book counter:
"Let me have, please, the letters of Charles Lamb."
"Post office right across the street, Mr. Lamb," said the clerk, with a naive, brisk smile."—Detroit Journal.

HE LIKES HIMSELF
"Well, if that Watson isn't the most conceited, self-satisfied self!"
"Yes, I've heard you say something of that kind before. What's started you off this time?"
"He just sent a telegram of congratulations to his mother."
"Well?"
"To-day's his birthday."—Everybody's Magazine.

WASN'T CALLING HER DEAR
Desiring of buying a camera, a certain fair young woman inspected the stock of a local shopkeeper.
"Is this a good one?" she asked as she picked up a little machine. "What is it called?"
"That's the Belvedere," said the handsome young shopman politely.
There was a chilly silence. Then the young woman drew herself coldly erect, fixed him with an icy stare, and asked again:
"Er—and can you recommend the Belva?"—Kansas City Star.

IF YOU HAVE CATARRH—READ THIS!

A Message of Joy to Catarrh Sufferers. Wonderful Results From Breathing Marvelous Germicidal Air. Money Back If It Don't Help You.

Catarrh is a germ disease and the germs thrive far up in the recesses of your nose, throat and lungs where no medicine, sprays, or ointments can ever reach them. Before you can get rid of catarrh you must get rid of the germs which cause it.

Breathing the air of Hyomei is the only method known to us for killing catarrh germs and driving them from your system. Simply put a few drops of Hyomei in the inhaler that comes with every complete package and then breathe its air for a few minutes, four times a day.

It seems remarkably that so simple a way of treating catarrh will effect such marvelous results, but the most important discoveries of science have always been the simplest. By breathing Hyomei in this way every particle of air that enters the air passages of the nose, head and throat and goes into the lungs, is charged with a powerful, antiseptic, healing balsam that is carried into the remotest air cells, killing all the germs and bacilli of catarrh, and soothing and healing the sore, inflamed membranes.

The action of Hyomei is quick and lasting. The first day's use will show improvement and in a short time there should be no further trouble from catarrh or any symptom of catarrh.

Regarding Hyomei, Mrs. Mattie Wisemiller, a nurse, residing 1522 9th St., N. W., Washington, D. C., writes: "I suffered with catarrh of the nose and throat which also affected the eyes and after using Hyomei have received great benefit. I think it a wonderful medicine. If the use of my name will benefit anyone, you are welcome to use it. Through me several of my friends are now using Hyomei."

The complete Hyomei outfit is inexpensive. It makes a pleasant, convenient treatment as the inhaler can be carried in the vest pocket or a handbag. The inhaler lasts a life time and if one bottle of Hyomei don't give permanent relief an extra bottle can be obtained at any time for a trifling sum.

H. C. Kennedy and leading druggists everywhere sell Hyomei under a positive guarantee of successful results or money back, surely no catarrh sufferer should go long before trying this simple home treatment.—Advertisement.
