BEAUTIFUL LINEN FOR BRIDE-ELECT

Miss Marian Williams Arranges Shower in Honor of Miss Ruth Barnhart

Miss Marian Williams, of 1846 Derry street, entertained at dinner Tuesday in honor of Miss Ruth E. Barnhart, whose engagement to Horace Jackson was recently announced.

The decorations were appropriate to Washington's Birthday and the favors were tiny hatched.

After devotions and business the time was spent with games and contests. An enjoyable feature was the cherry hunt, the prize for which was won by Miss Sarah Marlin.

Supper was served to the Misses Evelyn Stroup, Alice Thompson, Ethel Smith, Sarah Marlin, K. Chapman, Ruth Swartz, Mary Crow, Mildred Marlin and Catherine Quaid.

Hold Monthly Meeting of Wharton Study Club

The Wharton Study Club held its monthly meeting at its rooms, 212 Walnut street.

The greater part of the evening was spent in discussing means of getting the young men of this city and vicinity to know just what the Wharton school does.

A publicity committee was appointed, consisting of J. C. K. Marlin, Lester C. Nesbit and Robert A. Boll as the club wishes the public to know about its aims and its work.

Among the guests were noticed Mr. and Mrs. Spencer C. Gilbert, Dr. and Mrs. John Price Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. William Henderson, the Misses Pearson, William Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic C. The Seifert Recital Interests Music Circles

Large parties of music-lovers from surrounding towns purpose coming to Harrisburg Friday evening, March 3, to hear John B. Seifert, lyric tenor, who makes his first appearance in concert in this city on that evening, just prior to starting on a transcontinental tour.

With Mr. Seifert at the concert will appear Master Gurney Matton, the talented boy violinist of Philadelphia whose playing at the recent Elks memorial at the Orpheum delighted a great audience; Miss Rae, reader, and Miss Marie Washroom-Dager, pianist, of Philadelphia. Being a popular-price concert, Chestnut Street Auditorium will be crowded on March 3 with lovers of high-class music.

APPLY SAGE TEA IF HAIR IS GRAY

Grandma Used Sage Tea and Sulphur to Darken Her Hair and Nobody Knew

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully bright, glossy and abundant.

SINGER DELIGHTS INVITED GUESTS

Mme. Hudson-Alexander Star of Concert Given by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Todd

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Claybaugh Todd invited a large circle of friends to the Harrisburg Club last evening for a concert, which proved to be one of the most delightful social events given in the city.

The walls of the concert hall were hung in southern smilax, with baskets of varicolored sweet peas hanging from the balconies, and palms and ferns as a background for the receiving party, which included Mr. and Mrs. Todd, Mrs. Mark Hopkins, of St. Claire, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Alexander, of New York city.

Mme. Hudson-Alexander, the "star" of the evening, is a cousin of Mrs. Todd and soprano soloist of the Plymouth Church, Brooklyn.

It is a gracious privilege indeed, to have "in one's family" so really great an artist as Madame Hudson-Alexander, whose lovely and lovely given one's guests and friends the opportunity to hear, and know at close range, one who is so unquestionably the first of our American-born singers.

With a limpid long range, high soprano, deliciously pure and of unlimited lyric and dramatic possibilities, it is not astonishing that not a few of our prominent citizens are admirers of her art.

The program—one recently given in Boston—opened with the rarely sung Zeffirelli in Singheri from Mozart's Idomeneo, and this season by Madame Alexander for Strinsky with the New York Philharmonic.

Among the guests were noticed Mr. and Mrs. Spencer C. Gilbert, Dr. and Mrs. John Price Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. William Henderson, the Misses Pearson, William Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic C. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Berger, Mr. and Mrs. Lesley McCreath, Mrs. John S. Billing, Miss Ruth Billing, Mrs. Wally Davis, Dr. and Mrs. George W. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Jordan Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Henderson Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. William Milton Hargest, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. John Fox, W. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. Austin Brandt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Etter, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford D. Coe, Miss Dora Wicklerson, Mr. and Mrs. Roy P. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Etter, Miss Helen Bruce Wallace, Miss Minster, Miss Cora Lee Snyder, Miss Nancy E. Etter, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Johnson, the Misses Penrose, of Carlisle; Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Bent, the Misses Brady, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hooker, Miss Virginia King, Miss Eleanor Neal Clark, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. J. Boyd Hamilton, Jr., Dr. John F. Culp, Dr. George Rely Moffitt, Jackson Herr Boyd, Frank J. Brady, Dr. John Moffitt, William McCraith, Robert Heath, Dr. W. H. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Thur Hazen, Casper Dull, Daniel M. Dull, Mrs. Thomas M. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Lew R. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Roy G. Cox and many others.

PREVENT RELAPSES OF GRIP

This is the time of year when those who have had the form of influenza known as "the grip" are suffering from the condition in which the disease invariably leaves its victims.

Grip leaves the blood thin and this anemia which follows grip is a very stubborn one in resisting treatment. It must be corrected however before any cure can be considered permanent.

WHAT THE SHOPS ARE SHOWING

A clever little suit for the young girl or small woman is shown by Astrich's, Fourth and Market streets. It exploits the new fad for combination of materials, using a fine black and white check skirt with a jacket of navy serge. The Norfolk idea, so becoming and appropriate for the miss, is suggested in this model, adapted sufficiently to make the suit distinctive. Collar and tailored revers of the checked material, a tiny pocket outlined in it, and a sleeve cleverly fashioned with an inset of the shepherd's plaid give the necessary completeness to this costume which will be noticed for its smart individuality. It sells for $32.50.

Bronze Shoes Bronze shoes have a place all their own in the costuming of well-groomed women, for a bronze shoe is appropriate with almost any costume combining well with street shoes of all shades as well as with elaborate afternoon frocks and dinner or theater gowns. The Walk Over Boot Shop, 226 Market street, show a stunning new bronze boot, cut extra high and made of genuine French kid. Imported materials are now at a premium, and the beauty of this well-cut last is much enhanced by the delicate fineness of the materials used in it. It sells for just $7.00.

Good Cheer in Cold Weather On a cold day nothing is more cheering than a cup of good hot coffee, but whether the day is cold or warm, the coffee must above all be good to be appreciated most thoroughly. The housekeeper or hostess who is satisfied to serve poor coffee, spoils the meal for her family or guests, and when good coffee may be obtained at a reasonable price it is indeed foolish to use an inferior quality. The Studebaker Store, on Second street, at the crossing of State, offers a coffee deliciously blended from a high grade of coffee bean producing a flavor rich and delightful. Anyone who has tasted this Studebaker blend, which sells for 15c a pound will want to use it all the time.

Saving Money Do you ever go out of your way to save money? "A penny saved is a penny earned" and while economy may be carried to extremes, most people can well afford to cultivate it. When it comes to buying furniture it is especially wise to see the goods offered by the Charles E. Hoover Furniture Co., 1415 North Second street, before buying elsewhere, for Hoover's location, while it may be a little out-of-the-way for certain people, nevertheless, enables them to sell goods at unusually low prices. Their overhead expense is small, they buy in large quantities, and are satisfied with small profits so the customer at the Hoover Store receives many advantages which will repay him or her for the short trip uptown.

Daintiness Every dainty woman likes to have a little sachet on hand to sprinkle among her lingerie and linens. The Gorgas Drug Store, 14 North Third street, has the most tempting assortment of various sachets including all the well-known kinds as well as some odd new fragrances in which the woman of individuality will be interested. They make a specialty of perfumes, toilet waters and sachets, including those of Roger and Gallet, Haudut, the Harmony Co., Piver, Goedel, Coty, and many other famous manufacturers. Here too will be found the best of the imported scents, as well as many delightful domestic perfumes specially priced.
