THE VALUE OF TRUTH

Truth in business is just as important as truth in every-day life; truth creates confidence, establishes good-will and builds a reliability that will not be wrecked by the storms of competition.

Through three generations people have learned to place reliance on the advertised words of Scott's Emulsion, because they are untamished, unexaggerated truths about a household remedy of real and actual worth.

The popularity of Scott's Emulsion is increasing as intelligence advances, because in these days of adulterations it continues to guarantee pure cod liver oil medicinally perfected with glycerine and iodophosphates to build strength, improve the blood and strengthen the lungs.

Miss Mott Speaks For Congressional Amendment

MISS ISABEL MOTT

There was quite a representation of suffragists in assembly hall of the See House, 325 North Front street Saturday afternoon to hear the work of the Congressional Union discussed by Mrs. Lawrence Lewis, Jr., of Philadelphia, and Miss Isabel Mott of New York, one of the most active workers of the organization.

Bishop Darlington presided. Miss Mott said the Congressional Union has come into Pennsylvania to organize in every Congressional district. They are already in the six Philadelphia districts where there is a large working force and headquarters opened, and will go out into the State.

The primary object of the Union is to get action taken by congressmen on the federal amendment. Many congressmen say they have never been approached on the subject in their home districts.

Just now the organization is concentrating on Henry J. Steel of the Twenty-sixth-Eastern-district, as a member of the judiciary committee of whose keeping the amendment was, Mr. Steel voting against suffrage.

The Union finds that with the proper pressure brought to bear on Mr. Steel from the State, his vote can be changed. Miss Mott has just returned from Eastern where a large number of petitions are being circulated by the Congressional Union asking that the State take favorable action.

After the talks, Mrs. Darlington served tea in the drawing room to the guests.
