MISS FANNIE RAY OBER

Why those Pains?

Here is a testimonial unsolicited

"If I had my will it would be advertised on every street corner. The man or woman that has rheumatism and fails to keep and use Sloan's Liniment is like a drowning man refusing a rope."

LOOKING BACKWARD 60 YEARS

An Interesting Bit of History Everybody Should Know

One of the interesting places in Lowell, Mass., is the old apothecary shop on Merrimack street, established in 1827. This location is still a drug store, although of course modernized in many departments.

Perhaps one of the most interesting books is that of the year 1855. On one of the pages of this book, that dated June 9th, 1855, is written the original prescription for Father John's Medicine.

The Old Prescription Book

The Old Apothecary Shop Established in 1827.

calling for the medicine, they always asked for Father John's Medicine, and in this way the medicine got its name and was advertised.

Father John's Medicine is a safe family remedy for colds, coughs, throat troubles, and as a tonic and body builder, because it does not contain opium, morphine, chloroform, and any other poisonous drugs, or alcohol, but is all pure, wholesome nourishing.

WHAT THE SHOPS ARE SHOWING

There are two ways of acquiring a good complexion. One is to use powder and rouge to cover blemishes, and the other is to treat the face systematically to cure the blemishes.

A Smart Shoe The time when any kind of shoes could be worn with any kind of costume is past, and now one must have almost as many pairs of shoes, as one has handkerchiefs.

Artistic Furnishing The secret of artistic furnishing is its appropriateness. Much of the charm of Colonial furnishings is due to the harmony of big spacious rooms with the massive, substantial furniture of the period.

Between Seasons Between seasons is the most difficult time for the well-dressed woman, for invariably her winter clothes look shabby before the weather is warm enough to wear light Spring clothes.

Inside and Outside "My watch won't go," complained the girl who had selected it because she liked the case without looking at the inside workings.

A Real Delicacy Have you tried the old-fashioned buckwheat flour sold by the Studebaker Grocery Store, Second street at the crossing of State? If not, you have missed a real treat.

The Face of the Man in the Case Tells the Whole Story

Mr. and Mrs. E. Frank Ober, of 2501 Main street, Penbrook, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Fannie Ray Ober, to Elmer Anderson Kirkpatrick, of this city, a local newspaperman and Central High School alumnus, residing at 605 Macley street.

Miss Ober gave an elaborate supper last evening to some of her friends, with appointments of pink and white, with the favors, tiny suit cases in which were hidden snapshots of the bridegroom-to-be, the guests discovering "the man in the case."

In the center of the table was a plateau of pink roses and fern with pink butterflies fluttering about the dome overhead and down pink satin ribbons to each cover, where they rested on the cut glass tumblers. Pink hearts and Cupids adorned the place cards and after supper the guests enjoyed music and chat.

The guests included Miss Mary Elizabeth Kirkpatrick, Miss Mary Frances Abel, Miss Jane Kline, Miss Ruth Nisley, Miss Ray Hoffnagle, Miss Sue Hoffnagle, Miss Esther Miller, Miss Emma Nisley, Miss Charlotte Zeigler, Miss Emma Steese, Miss Marian Nisley, Miss Rachel Nisley, Miss Anna Neldig, of Mechanicsburg.

SHOOP-SCHILL WEDDING Miss Sadie L. Schell and Paul Raymond Shoop of Williamstown were united in marriage at the parsonage of Christ Lutheran Church, Monday evening, 8 o'clock.

Charity Card Dance For Nursery Home Will Be a Charming Event

Forced by fire to hurriedly leave their home in the Watts mansion, in Reel's lane, a year ago, the little children being cared for by the Nursery Home are now occupying the house at 1321 South Cameron street, for it did not take the kind-hearted women who are at the head of the institution very long to secure accommodations for them.

The fifty children of tender age and the ten little motherless babes are a happy family, for they are being reared properly. But it takes funds to secure for them the ordinary comforts, and to secure funds the Nursery Home board will manage a card party and dance at Chestnut Street Hall on the evening of next Tuesday, March 7, to which all who have an interest in seeing that the children are looked after are invited.

There will be card tables for all who wish to play from 9 to 11.30, and those who do not wish to play cards and wish to enjoy themselves otherwise will engage in dancing from 9 to 11 o'clock. Between cards and dancing it will be an evening of rare pleasure and everybody can enjoy themselves.

PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN FOR INDIGESTION OR AN UPSET STOMACH

Instant Relief from Pain, Sourness, Gases, Acidity, Heartburn and Dyspepsia--No Waiting!

Wonder what upset your stomach--which portion of the food did the damage--do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated--just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in a few moments you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women to-day know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps the stomach regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear. If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, and most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful--it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Try it!
