GRAND OPERA FOR HARRISBURG

San Carlo Grand Opera Company Coming Here on March 28 and 29

The announcement that this city is to hear three elaborate and complete grand opera productions in the near future has set musical hearts a-flutter and the victrolas and talking machines of the community and its environs have been put to working overtime. The object is plain—the owners of these modern educators in music desire to thoroughly familiarize themselves with the great arias, the choruses, the thrilling duets and ensembles of the masterworks of song before listening to the noted songbirds that are to come, and thereby doubly enjoy the works that are the popular favorites of the song world.

Local music enthusiasts have heard numerous fine concerts this season, to concert and the musical standard opera concerts the season has not suffered perceptibly from unusual dullness, and now that grand opera is to constitute a feature of the city's cultural life the city takes on a more important air upon the musical atlas of the country. The San Carlo Grand Opera Company, that supering Grand Opera Company, that supering group of artists which was this season believed to reepen the famous Boston Opera House, is to be brought to Harrisburg, with its entire numerical and the proposition of the company that supering group of artists which was this season to opera House, is to be brought to Harrisburg, with its entire numerical and the proposition of the company that supering the proposition of the numerical strength of one hundred artists. The organization numbers upon its roster of principals twenty of the noted artists of the operatic domain whose names will be given out later and carries its own complete grand opera orchestra and a large and brilliantly efficient singing chorus. Elaborate scenic, costuming and stage property effects and traditional stage settings will feature the three productions here, which, it is understood, will be as follows: Tuesday evening, March 28, Donizett's three-act masterwork, 'Lucia di Laumermoor;' Wednesday matinee, ''Carmen;' Wednesday evening, the famous double bill, two operas, ''Cavalleria Rusticana' and ''Pagliacci.'' The first two named will be sung by two different and distinct casts of principals, while the double bill will bring forward upon the same stage and evening two further casts of the company's leading artists. The repertoire has, therefore, been arranged so that the entire twenty stars will be heard during the company's visit here. The operas will be given at the Chestnut Street Auditorium and the regular seat sale will open on Thursday, March 23. The mail orders will be received from this time on at Sigler's music store. this time on at Sigler's music

SEND YOUR DIME FOR BIG BATTLESHIP

Telegraph, from Boston to Sacramento are already on the advisory committee, and the scheme has assumed national proportions.

A thousand dollars is not ten million, but it is an indication of the enormous proportions to which such a fund might expand with the guiding hand of newspapers all over the United States leading the way. Concrete expression of the smouldering flame of patriotism which has been dormant for a time has found its outlet through the medium of contributions to this fund, and editors, knowing that enthusiastic adults were bound to follow suit, took up the campaign and have made it the most unique and talked of event of the day.

The fund is rapidly growing. Will you contribute a dime, a quarter, or a million dollars? For every ten-cent of the fund will be constantly noted in this paper.

One of Harrisburg's Oldest Citizens, Who Died This Morning.

Home of Lerue Lemer now stands. Jacob Pancake, his father, was associated with Samuel Hayes in the sade diety business in Market Square a centry ago; later he engaged in the first coal dealers in Harrisburg.

He was educated in the private schools of this city and at the age of the went to Tremont, near Pottsvill, to learn the trade of machinist. After serving two and a half years as an apprentice his employer released him from his indenture to enter the service of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, then in its infancy in Harrisburg.

Mr. Pancake took the first locomotive from Harrisburg to Pittsburgh, crossing the mountains by ten inclined planes, and from Johnstown to Pittsburgh on a canal boat. He ran the first train from Pittsburgh to Pittsburgh on through the Gallitzin tunnel.

In 1865 Mr. Pancake returned to this city to engage in the lumber and planing mill business with his uncle. George Trullinger, and his brother, George Pancake, under the name of Trullinger & Co., at 500 Race street.

Mr. Pancake retired from business in 1887 and owing to ill health had led a retired life for the past sixteen years. He was a trustee and conpendit to time.

PAIN GONE! RUB SORE, RHEUMATIC ACHING JOINTS

Rub pain away with a small trial bottle of old "St. Jacob's Oil."

Stop "dosing" Rheumatism.

It's pain only; not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil" right on the "tender spot," and by the time you say Jack Robinson—out comes the rheumatic pain and distress. "St. Jacobs Oil" is a harmless rheumatism liniment which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache and neuralsia.

the school children there about Marjorie's battleship. Her cousin, who Marjorie's battleship. Her cousin, who is a boy, Frederick Newman Benson, a grandson of a Civil War veteran, turned in $10.10 to the fund after a few days' collecting. A boy in Waterbury, Conn., sent in $12 to the fund that is being raised in that city, because he wanted to break the record for contributions, which had previously been $10.

And there are many other similar cases, all of which go to show that the boys and girls and the adults of our country have just as much and a little more patriotism than ever before.

Send along your dime and demonstrate your patriotism.
