KATHARINE DUBBS TAKES SOLO PART

Pretty Young Singer Who Makes Hit in Amateur Opera Here Goes to Lebanon

Miss Katharine A. Dubbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Dubbs, of Third and Briggs streets who made such a hit as soloist for the "Parrots" in the Sunshine opera produced here in January went to Lebanon to accompany her aunt, Miss Bessie Dubbs, to sing the same part with the Lebanon singers who are directed by Mrs. June Lake. Miss Dubbs has a clear, sweet soprano voice of wide range and is studying with Professor Phillips of this city. She is clever as an actress as was shown by her performance here, which brought her the Lebanon invitation.

Civic Club of Camp Hill Aids the Polish Relief

An appeal from the Polish Relief Committee has been before the Camp Hill Civic Club for the past two months. The need of the Polish people is urgent and a check will be mailed them March 15. All contributions must be sent to Mrs. John C. Armstrong, Camp Hill, before that time. The call is for money owing to the difficulty in getting other articles into the country, and the ladies of the club will appreciate all help coming from Harrisburg and the neighboring towns as well as their own town. The club held an interesting session yesterday afternoon when H. A. Mueller, city forester made an address on "Trees." Camp Hill will soon have paved streets, lawns and new trees planted, and of course the town welcomes suggestions as to the best way of planting and caring for the trees.

SUPPER IN HONOR OF MISS POLLOCK

Sunday School Class of Pine Street Church Celebrates Golden Anniversary

Miss Rachel Pollock's Sunday school class of the Pine Street Presbyterian Church is celebrating its golden anniversary this evening with a supper at 7 o'clock in the social rooms and among the eighty-five present will be guests from Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, New York city, Tyrone and many other places besides Harrisburg.

Fifty years ago Miss Pollock took a class of small boys in the primary department of Pine Street Sunday School and year by year as they grew she kept them until they reached manhood and married and then their wives were included in the membership. Of the original ones, Nicholas Tack and John Gallagher will be in evidence tonight and of course will be included in the after-dinner speaking. The pastor of the church at the time the class was formed was the Rev. Dr. William C. Cattell and the Sunday school superintendent, Jacob F. Seiler.

Congregation Surprises Coxestown Minister

THE REV. ALFRED HARRIES
As an appreciation of the untiring labors of their pastor, the Rev. Alfred Harries, members of the Coxestown Methodist church met secretly at the church and when their plans were fully laid, invited the pastor to join them in a celebration of his own fiftieth birthday.

An informal program included opening exercises in charge of Mrs. D. E. Heford, president of the Ladies' Aid Society, a prayer by Justice E. B. Dunkle and a pithy speech by Charles F. Greenaway one of the oldest church members who spoke of the love of the congregation for its minister and presented him in behalf of his flock with a beautiful gold watch.

The Rev. Mr. Harries was taken so completely by surprise that it was with difficulty that he found his voice to thank the generous donors of the gift. He has been most active in revival work and has taken a personal interest in the antisaloon effort in his community.

Members of the Ladies' Aid society, the Sunday school and various boards of the church took large parts in making this birthday party a success.

Miss Ora Bickel has returned to her home in Philadelphia, after spending the winter with Mrs. Carrie Gerberich of Dauphin.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gerberich of Dauphin is spending some time with her brother, Dr. Jacob Shope, of Thirtieth street.

Mrs. Catt Is Coming to Speak For Suffrage

MRS. CARRIE CHAPMAN CATT
There's a treat in store for every one who attends the great suffrage meeting next Tuesday evening in the Board of Trade, for the prominent speaker will be Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, the newly-elected president of the National American Woman Suffrage association and also president of the International Woman Suffrage Alliance, the chief leader of the suffrage movement.

Mrs. Catt's powers as an orator are famed. While she is a keen thinker, she is also endowed with emotion and a sense of humor and has the handsome and imposing presence and the subtle magnetism that make a tremendous appeal to an audience. Not only can she hold spell-bound a popular assembly but she is also able to win respect and admiration from the most august official bodies. Of these last, she has addressed constitutional conventions or legislatures in Maine, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New Hampshire, New York, Pennsylvania, Iowa, Michigan, Louisiana and Delaware.

She said in an address at a Washington convention: "Woman Suffrage is a mighty, in-coming tide which is sweeping all before it. No parliament and no government can stay its coming. It is a step in the evolution of society and the eternal verities are behind it."

St. Paul's Girls' Club to Present Mystery Play

The Girls' Club of St. Paul's Episcopal Church is arranging to present a mystery play: "The Vision of St. Agnes' Eve" Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the parish house. Tickets may be secured from members of the club or at the door. In the cast will be Miss Dora Wickersham Coe, the Misses Katharine Wharton, Mildred Buchanan, Katharine Watts, Marion Reineck and Elizabeth Howard. Tableaux to be shown afterward will be of the "Martyrs of the Church." The entertainment is most beautiful and the girls of the club are anxious to augment their treasury. They do much charitable work and at Christmas time furnished the filled stockings for the celebration of the Open-air school.

Young Boy Celebrates His Fourteenth Birthday

Fourteen young lads sat down to the birthday dinner of Arthur Hibler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris A. Hibler, 1624 North Second street, who celebrated his 14th natal day on Wednesday.

Stauffer's
Miss May C. Forney, of 1424 Derry street, has gone to Pittsburgh, to spend a week with her sister, Mrs. Harry Stoughton.
Little Miss Jane Ely of 305 North Front street, gave a birthday party attended by seven of her schoolmates.

WHAT THE SHOPS ARE SHOWING

Bad weather!—yes, indeed, and just the kind that encourages colds, influenza and grippe, so if you are wise you will take advantage of some of the simple remedies offered by the Gorgas Drug Store, 16 North Third street, which are most timely suggestions in view of these quickly-changing weather conditions. Of course everything sold by the Gorgas Store is perfectly reliable and their prescription department is absolutely dependable. A very simple remedy for colds is Gorgas' Opac, which sells for 25c a box and is excellent to break up a cold quickly and effectively.

Catching Cold
One of the easiest ways to catch a bad cold is to sit in a poorly heated house and poor heating is unnecessary if one uses care in the selection of the furnace. A good furnace is no more expensive than a poor one and the Himes Hardware Store, 10 North Market Square, is exclusive agent here for the famous Penn Comfort and Penn Perfect furnaces, which have proved so very satisfactory to all who have used them. The Himes store—as well as the manufacturers—guarantee these furnaces to give perfect satisfaction, and will be glad to give prices and any other information to those interested.

A New Arrival
Lovelier and still lovelier is the new furniture just being received by the Charles F. Hoover Furniture Co., 1415-19 North Second street. They have been showing some beautiful bedroom furniture which has caused much favorable comment, but the new ivory suite put on display to-day rivals the prettiest of these. It is the Louis XVI period, with the delicate floral ornamentation that distinguishes this period. The chest of drawers with two beautiful panel doors and inside trays is particularly attractive while the bed, dresser and dressing table have unusual charm of design. The price is extremely moderate, for low prices and fine workmanship are both features of the furniture offered by Hoover's.

Bolling Green
Whether or not you are interested in the President's marriage to Mrs. Edith Bolling Galt, you will very likely be interested in the smart Bolling green shoes offered by the Walk-Over Boot Shop, 226 Market street. There is such a vast difference between cheaply-made fad shoes and the well-made boots designed by fashion artists, that these clever novelty shoes should be seen to appreciate their distinctive beauty. The perfect finish, the graceful lines of this marvel, the ton boot, and the soft, rich shade of the kid used in it, make a stunning model which can be worn appropriately with many costumes, and will always be in excellent taste. It sells for $7.

Distinctively Smart
Many people prefer a suit of light color for Spring as it is always a pretty and welcome change from the darker tones of winter clothes, and those who like things just a bit out of the ordinary will appreciate a new model offered by Astich's, Fourth and Market streets. It is a beautiful tan checked material with just a thread of green to give it tone and distinction. The coat is made with loose pleated back and narrow belt, and the skirt is unique and most attractive, having front and back panels joined at the hips with oddly shaped pockets. It is a stunning suit, distinctively smart, yet not too extreme—and it sells for just $29.75.

The Homelike Touch
The difference between a house and a home lies often in the little things that add beauty and charm, though they cost but little. A basket filled with flowers or growing plants gives a homelike touch, while a basket of fruit looks tempting and hospitable in dining room, living room or on the guest room table. The Studenaker grocery store, "Second street at the crossing of State," is offering their attractive assortment of Japanese baskets at exactly half price, furnishing a splendid opportunity to have these charming baskets at a ridiculously small cost.
