In Reference to Our Wonderful Assortment of Misses' and Women's SUITS at $20.00, $22.50 and $25.00

So many hundreds and hundreds of women pay $20.00, $22.50, or $25.00 for their suits that we concentrate our efforts in an endeavor to best meet this big demand — to satisfy each and every one of these customers.

In the season just past we demonstrated to the women of Harrisburg and vicinity that it is possible to get the best of style, the best of material, the best of tailoring without paying the exorbitant prices so many of them paid in the past.

As a result, scores of women who have been accustomed to paying the higher prices — $40.00, $45.00, $50.00 and even more — are among our most active customers. They find here the same style tendencies — every popular fad or fashion — the same fine fabrics — the same good tailoring — and all at the popular prices this store is noted for.

They possibly miss one thing, the names of the makers. In the large cities the name of a maker stands for little nowadays. And for that reason the well-known makers of a few years ago are heard of only in the stores of the smaller cities. Women have grown wiser — more businesslike. They buy suits now — not makers' names.

A feature of our suit department that attracts attention is, "suits for every sized woman." The tall, the short, the stout — even "stubby stouts." Stylish stouts — snappy suits for stout figures. Extra sizes — for big women. Half sizes — for big women unusually proportioned. It is unusual for the "hard to fit" women to leave here without being fitted.

Anticipating a greater patronage than ever for our suits at these popular prices ($20.00, $22.50 and $25.00) we have made more extensive preparations than ever to meet every requirement of our valued customers and we invite you all to inspect the wonderful assortment.

CARDS AND A SUPPER

Mrs. E. F. Arnold, of 2031 Swatara street, gave a small card party last evening at her home, the guests including Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Hollis, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gordon Drane, Mr. and Mrs. George Bricker, Miss Margaret R. Boas, Horvey Witmer, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold.

BLACKHEADS AND PIMPLES ON FACE
 Large, Hard and Red. In Blotches. Caused Itching and Burning. Lost Rest at Night.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"My trouble, which was blackheads and pimples, was severest in the face. The pimples were large, hard and red and were in blotches and caused much disfigurement. They also caused much itching and burning and my face became irritated by scratching and I lost my rest at night on account of the trouble."
 "At last I got Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment both morning and evening, applying the Ointment first, then in about five minutes I washed my face with Cuticura Soap and in three weeks I was healed." (Signed) B. J. Strickler, 679 Princess St., York, Pa., Aug. 12, 1915.

Sample Each Free by Mail
 With 32-p. Skin Book on request. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston." Sold throughout the world.

Please Do Not Forget the Nursery Home Benefit
 No Home in Harrisburg is doing better charitable work than the Nursery Home for children, for the benefit of which a large card party and dance is to be given next Tuesday evening at Chestnut street hall. The board of managers are endeavoring to make the occasion a success in every way and have in view an entertainment that will be pleasing for all who attend. The institution to be benefited by the proceeds of this entertainment is one of the worthiest in the city. It started humbly in caring for the little folks, but it has progressed to such an extent that the good it does is almost incalculable. The Home is nonsectarian and cares for all children regardless of race, creed or color. Many stricken families are helped temporarily in case of sickness or poverty and the Home is always ready to help when able. It is one of the most useful institutions in the city, but it requires funds to keep it in operation. In order to care for more children and give them advantages, comforts and clothing the managers of the card and dance party on Tuesday night are extremely anxious to make it a success.
 There will be dancing from 9 to 11:30 and cars from 9 to 1 o'clock, so that there will be some form of enjoyment for all at all times. Sara Lemer's orchestra will furnish the dance music.

CARDS WITH MISS STUCKER
 Miss Marie Stucker was hostess for the bridge club of which she is a member at her home, 206 Rely street last evening. Spring flowers in a color scheme of pink and yellow prevailed in the decorations.
 After the play a supper was served to the guests who included Miss Edith Troup, Miss Mildred Astrich, Miss Anna Nissley, Miss Marie Stucker, Edgar Barnes, Richard Heagy, Clair L. Miller and Samuel B. Nissley.

LYTER-CAMPBELL BRIDAL EVENT OF LAST EVENING
 Miss Margaret B. Campbell, daughter of Mrs. Clara Campbell, 1845 Whitehall street, and William Lyter, of Dauphin, were united in marriage last evening at the bride's home by the Rev. William B. Cooke.
 The bride wore a frock of white crepe meteor with garnitures of lace and pearls and carried a shower of sweet peas and roses. She was attended by Miss Elizabeth Campbell and Miss Marie Hale as bridesmaids. Blake Gilday and Arthur Ertzweiler, of Dauphin, were groomsmen.
 Mrs. Lyter is a trained nurse, graduating from the University of Pennsylvania Hospital with the class of 1914. Mr. Lyter is connected with the Pennsylvania Railroad shops at Lucknow. Mr. and Mrs. Lyter will reside in Dauphin.

GUESTS OF THE BARRYS SPEND PLEASANT EVENING
 Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barry entertained at their residence, 1826 North Sixth street, with cards and music. Daffodils, ferns and silver cande-
