DEATH BREAKS FOUR GENERATION GROUP

Special to the Telegraph

Williamstown, Pa., March 7.—Only on Tuesday last, the above group, representing four generations of Daniel Swalm's family, posed for this photograph. Little did they realize at that time that within a few days one of them would be dead. On Saturday night the Telegraph reporter received the photo of the group, contemplating to send it for publication, when next morning word was received of the death of the great-grandfather, Daniel Swalm, of Valley View, Pa., who died in his home very suddenly following a stroke. He was 76 years old. The rest of the group are Master Winston LaMonte Hart, and his mother, Mrs. Hart, of Palmerston, Pa., and the grandmother, Mrs. Alice (nee Swalm) Klinger, of Williamstown, Pa.

Improving The front—improving the interior of our stores—meanwhile

our business continues without the slightest interruption—

And while on this subject—we wish to say that we try to improve our merchandise from season to season and truthfully acknowledge it is much easier to improve a store or its appointments than to improve merchandise already on a high standard—

While we can't improve our merchandise much we try to improve our service continually.

HIGH TRIBUTE TO SAN CARLO CO.

Singing of Lucia Di Lammermoor Pleases Memphis Operatic Critic

Hugh H. Huhn, critic of The Commercial Appeal of Memphis, of March 2, pays a high tribute to the work of the San Carlo Opera Company, which will appear at the Chestnut Street Auditorium, March 25 and 26. The Appeal says: "Not in the recollection of the present generation has the opera 'Lucia di Lammermoor' been more exquisitely sung than it was last night at the Lyceum Theater by the San Carlo Opera Company. Aside from all other artistic features, the rendition of the mad scene by Edvige Vaccari will sustain itself. She has been heard before in a hearing on operatic grounds. Last night she sang with a grandeur and a nobility that she has never shown before. Her singing in the sextet was more than satisfactory. In the mad scene every voice in the audience was hushed, every heart was thrilled, every soul was inspired with the exquisite essence of her song." "Last night's performance was the best that the San Carlo company has ever given here artistically, operatically, or dramatically and was doubly impressive. For some time it gave us an insight into the qualities and attainments of the Galleo company. It convinces the public what he has done and what he is trying to do. His performance, while not possibly so elaborately staged as that of the Boston Grand Opera Company, has no cause to blush.

Home Celebration of Wonder Interest

The arrival of a baby in the household completely changes the entire aspect of the future. But in the meantime, during the anxious period of expectation, there is a splendid remedy known as "Mother's Friend" that does wonders. It is for external use, relieves the pains of muscle expansion, soothes and quiets the nerves, extends its influence to the internal organs and removes to a great extent the tendency to worry and apprehension. It is a natural treatment, safe for the mother, has no drug effect whatsoever and for this reason must exert a most beneficial influence upon those functions directly connected with motherhood. In a very interesting book the subject is freely discussed and a copy will be mailed free to all expectant mothers by Bradford Regulator Co., 406 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Get a bottle of "Mother's Friend" today of any druggist. Use as directed and you will then know why mothers for nearly half a century have used and recommended this splendid aid to motherhood. Their letters are messages of cheer, that breathe comfort in every word.
