well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightiful effer.

Officials of the fund to-day announced that 9,800 policies had been written and that among changes which had been authorized was one to reduce the rate for insurance of trolleymen on interurban runs to the same figure as for crews on city runs.

Deer From Lake State. — Fifty deer from Michigan are now being distributed by State Game Commission wardens in State game preserves in Carbon and other eastern counties and a number will also be placed in counties west of the Alleghenies. These deer are the first consignment from Michigan and were received a few days ago, inspection having shown them to be free from disease and ready for the woods. The State authorities are also after some deer from New England which it is planned to introduce into Pennsylvania woods.

No Decision Soon. — It is likely that no decision will be rendered by the Public Service Commission in the complaints brought by York and Lancaster manufacturers against coal rates from the Clearfield region until the complaints of Pittsburgh coal operators against rates from Pittsburgh to Erie and Philadelphia as contrasted with rates in Alleghenic as contrasted with rates in Allegheny county are heard. The cases will be listed for Pittsburgh late this month.

Pay bills amounting to $2,019.47.

Raise wages of borough engineer's helper from fifteen to twenty cents an hour.

Set thirty-five cents an hour as rate of pay for foreman on the filter plant repair job.

Official recognition of the playgrounds movement, which has been steadily growing in Steetton, was given by the borough council last evening when it created a fund for employment of a competent playgrounds supervisor and authorized the establishment of five new recreation places in the borough:

Council's action followed an address by C. S. Davis, chairman of a joint committee from the Municipal League and Civic Club, which came before council to ask that the borough awake to the necessity of making provision for its youth. The committee included Mr. Davis, Mrs. J. M. Heagy, president, and Mrs. Edward Hill, a member of the playgrounds committee, of the Steelton Civic Club.

Mr. Davis was given the floor on motion of Mr. Henderson and the initial appropriation of $700 for council's share of the first summer's work was made on motion of Mr. Nelly, seconded by Mr. Henderson.

Place a playground in the borough's lower end foreign section, another in the colored district, one in the West Side and another in the central part of the borough. He estimated that $1,100 would pay the salary of a playgrounds expert and his assistants for the first season and would pay for all the equipment necessary at the beginning.

A rather length discussion followed mr. Davis' recommendations, in which the councilmen asked many questions, all directed with a view to obtaining more information on the movement. In discussing the request President J. V. W. Reynders heartily endorsed the plan, saying:

"We have peculiar conditions here. The foreigners who come here have behind them centuries of tradition which holds them within narrow confines. When they arrive here they are supprised with our spirit of freedom, and unless directed along proper lines, so beyond bounds.

Great Value of Recreation

'This playgrounds movement is a big one and I believe we will get more value for our money expended in this movement than in many other places. The whole spirit, however, depends upon getting the right man to establish the playgrounds and get them under way. We should get a man who knows how to handle and direct the work. I think we may well let the Municipal League and Civic Club recommend to us a man whom they think fitted to handle the work for council's approval."

In appropriating $700 of the $1,100 asked for council was assured that the league and Civic Club would help increase this amount and it was intimated by Mr. Reynders that still other interests might contribute.

While details of the playgrounds plan are not as yet worked out, it is likely that the Municipal League and Civic Club will immediately get in touch with competent men and recommend one to council to undertake the establishment of the proposed five recreation places. Just how the administrative details will be worked out will will be decided later.

REYNDERS RESIGNS AS DIRECTOR OF STEEL CO. Healthy Old Age Brings Happiness [Continued From First Page] impression upon the men of the Steelton plant during his recent visit who feel that he is a broad gauged executive who will go out of his way to do justice to employes who have been instrumental in building up the big plant and who are active in its operations at present. In this he would be merely tollowing out the established custom of Charles M. Schwab at Bethlehem, who brought the Bethlehem plant up to its present high state of erticiency by using and developing the men whom he found with the business when he took over the properties.

terest in civic affairs, with which has been prominently identified for many years.

Great Bridge Expert

Mr. Reynders has been with the Pennsylvania Steel company since 1892 and first attracted attention in steel circles as an expert in bridge construction and erection. He is a graduate of Renssalear Polytechnique Institute at Troy, N. Y., and upon graduation immediately entered the service of the Pennsylvania Steel company as engineer in charge of the bridge and construction department. In 1896 he was made superintendent of the bridge and construction department. In this position he continued until 1907 when he was placed in complete charge of the works at Steelton and elected vice-president and director of the company, which positions he has since held.

During the period of his superintendency of the bridge and construction department and since his elevation to the vice-presidency, Mr. Reynders has made a wondertul record as a bridge engineer. Some of the biggest works of that kind in the whole world were turned out of the Steelton plant and erected by Steelton engineers, among them the Blackwell's Island and Williamsburg bridges, New York; the gigantic Gokteik viaduct in Burmah, the Niagara arch and the Memphis bridge, now in course of construction.

Saved Steelton From Scrap Heap

It is generally known among men who have been in touch with the situation that it was largely due to the the falling off in revenue. It has been and steel Company, which is now just to coming back into its own in a financial sense.

Many will recall that it was Mr. Reynders who outlined the Harrisburg Improvement plan in a letter to the Telegraph and it was he who made the first contribution to in bringing experts to the city, and fine ally in the passage of the first great public improvement loan. He has since been actively interested in the municipal development of Harrisburg and has had an active part in many of the plans for civic betterment that have matured in the past few years.

Becomes Operating Plant
The reason for Mr. Reynders' resignation lies in the fact that it is the plan of the Schwab interests to absorb completely the Pennsylvania Steel company. The Pennsylvania Steel company will be blotted out entirely and the Steeinon plant will become one of the units of the Bethlehem company. Mr. Reynders as vice-president of the Pennsylvania company has been in executive charge of the Steelton end of the big business and this office would naturally pass out with the absorption of the Pennsylvania company. Thus Steelton's operations will depend upon executive orders for Bethlehem and the new head at Steelton will be a general manager but not in executive control.
