Paris Says:

"All the latest models are larger brims, Rebonx and Georgette showing extremely large mushrooms and perfectly flat sailors, but the small brimmed hat in its variety of smart trims is much in evidence at the Ritz and Ciro for afternoon tea and the small hat, in the opinion of the first houses, will be the most necessary hat in milady's wardrobe, even in the late summer season."

STATE FUND NOW OVER 10,000 MARK

Interesting Developments at Headquarters of the Compensation Board

The State Workmen's Insurance fund to-day completed its 10,000th policy of insurance in the State fund against employers' liability. The fund has been in operation since last Fall. The Board in charge of the fund has ordered investment in bonds of $150,000 received from premiums.

The State Compensation Board has announced that insurance carriers will be permitted to attend referees' hearings and give testimony as to facts in place of defendants. The Board has arranged to give a hearing in Philadelphia Thursday to John A. McSparran, master of the State Grange, on the ruling that men specializing in horticulture and various branches of agriculture do not come under the State exemption for employers' liability.

The first imposter, using the Workmen's Compensation act for a swindle, has been discovered in Clarion county. N. C. May, a Justice of the peace of Fairmont City, Pa., has written a letter to the Workmen's Compensation Board, complaining that a man, giving his name as George Reed of Pitt-burgh, has obtained board and lodging at a number of places in Clarion county by asserting that he was employed to enforce the Workmen's Compensation act. He promised unsuspecting boardinghouse keepers that a fellow worker would soon join him and he would write a check as soon as the companion arrived. Invariably Reed disappeared before the check was written.

Squire May describes the imposter as "about five feet ten inches tall, lean, slim hands, long fingers, light complexion, hair gray mixed with black, prominent nose, gray business suit, light brown overcoat with cap to match and a very slick talker."

Secretary Lee Solomon, of the Workmen's Compensation Board, has turned the matter over to the State police.

Now Here Is Justice,
Like Gets Like—Plus

Canton, Ohio. — A new cure for slapping faces has been demonstrated by Police Judge Quinn, who has been noted for the original sentences he hands down. Thomas Nickols was before him on the charge of slapping the face of Mrs. Bessie Mare, proprietor of the boarding house where Nickols lives. Mrs. Mare was on the witness stand.

"Demonstrate to the Court just how Nickols slapped you," she was ordered by the judge. She took the order literally and, going up to Nickols, gave him a resounding whack across the face with her open hand.

"About that hard, Judge," she said. "About thirty days in the workhouse for you," the judge ordered, addressing Nickols, as he called the next case.

BIG BANQUET OPENS FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION OF CORNPLANTER TRIBE OF INDIANS

Members of Cornplanter Tribe, No. 61, Improved Order of Red Men, banqueted last night at Chestnut Street Hall, in commemoration of their fiftieth anniversary. It was the opening feature of a two-day celebration. To-night will be Ladies' Night, and another interesting program is promised.

The Cornplanter members met at their council hall, Union Square, and, numbering 275, marched to Chestnut Street Hall. Music was furnished by the Municipal Band. At the close of the big feast, Charles E. Pass, Great Prophet of the Great Council of Pennsylvania, was presented with a gold watch and chain.

The presentation was made in behalf of the members of Tribe No. 61, by Past Sachem J. W. Rodenhaver. The Great Prophet responded with a brief address, returning his thanks and referring to the good work of the members of the local tribe.

A history of Cornplanter Tribe was read by Charles W. Pressler, Chief of Records. Addresses were made by Dr. Walter R. Rogers, Philadelphia, Great Tocoson; John R. Greenhaugh, Philadelphia, chairman of the finance committee; John McCombs, Philadelphia, Great Senior Sagamore; Dr. T. C. Beswick, Philadelphia, Great Junior Sagamore, and Senator Edward E. Reidelman, a member of Cornplanter Tribe.

The program for to-night will include vaudeville, dancing and luncheon. The big entertainment will start at 8 o'clock.
