PUBLIC INTEREST IN BABY WEEK

Official Program The official program for "Baby Week" was announced this morning. On Wednesday, March 12, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon Mayor Meals will deliver the address of welcome at the opening session on the fourth floor of Bowman's Department store.

Dr. David S. Funk, president of the Certified Milk Commission of the Harrisburg Academy of Medicine will deliver an address on "Certified Milk." Dr. B. Franklin Royer, chief medical inspector of the State Health Department, will discuss "Common Causes of Infant Mortality and Suggestions for Preventing Same."

Either Dr. George H. Widder or Dr. George B. McAllister will talk on local babies to the baby week distribution of certified milk, with crackers on the side, will be made that afternoon, and a special health bulletin containing directly to the baby will be issued.

A question box will be installed on this first day, devoted to the health departments of city and state, and will be continued on each succeeding day of the exhibit. Any questions relative to the care of the baby may be dropped therein and at the close of the regular program the answers will be read for the benefit of all. Dr. Carson Coover will examine the babies that are present at 4 o'clock.

Thursday, 2 to 5 P. M.

Thursday will be an address by Louise Bryant, M. D., of Philadelphia. Dr. Bryant is connected with the social service work of the municipal court. John Yates, secretary of the Associated Aids, will also be among the speakers on that day. Dr. J. Edward Dickinson will examine the babies.

Friday Friday will be visiting nurses' day. Mrs. Martha Falconer, superintendent of Stagington Farms, near Philadelphia, will talk on "The Child in the Home." Dr. Arthur Holmes' address will be in all probability be on the subject of the boy in the home. Dr. Holmes is an authority on the subject. There will be a reception and music. Dr. Henry R. Douglas will examine the babies.

Saturday Saturday is to be pure milk day. Addresses will be made by Dr. Norman B. Shepler on "Modification of Milk" and Dr. Earl Schaffle, chief of the State tuberculosis dispensary. Probably a "fathers' meeting" will be held on Saturday evening, the only evening that will be devoted to the exhibit. An attempt is being made to have Governor Brumbaugh present at this final meeting.

The doctors will make written reports on their examinations of the babies and after home conditions are looked into during the week following the exhibit the judges will make their awards and the prizes will be given.

Teachers Should Not Be Too Strict Says Krebs

"Avoid using the word 'don't!'" was the admonition given to the city teachers this morning at the final session of the twentieth annual institute by Dr. Stanley L. Krebs, of Philadelphia, in his address on the subject of "Destructive Discipline." "Rather tell the children of your schools what they shall do," said he. He also added to the "don't list," "Don't seek to display power, but rather, tact"; and "don't be too strict." Dr. Krebs stated that the five things that children fear most are, the end of the world, being buried alive, of not growing tall, things in the dark and unjust punishment.

The other lecturer on the program was Dr. Hollis Dann, of the Department of Music of Cornell University. At the morning and afternoon sessions, he spoke on "What the Teaching of Music in the Public Schools Should Accomplish." He mentioned as several of the final results of the community choruses and orchestras. At the morning session Miss Crane's room from the Maclay building was present, and several selections were rendered by the pupils. During the intermission Prof. John W. Phillips, director of the Grace Methodist choir, sang "The Green Hills of Ireland." At the close of the afternoon program, the chairmen of the various standing committees made their reports for the year.

LATE AFTERNOON FLASHES ON MEXICAN SITUATION

U. S. Will Probably Grant Train to Carry Mormons Gen. Carranza's Request to Move Troops Over Line Out of Mexico Is Held For Larger Escort

Washington, March 11.—General Carranza's note will be answered after it has been laid before President Wilson. The reply of the United States probably will be that Carranza's suggestion will be considered if at any time it should become necessary for his forces to pursue bandits into American territory through the lack of a sufficient number of American troops to do the work. Apparently will be pointed out that American troops are to pursue Villa bandits in Mexico for the sole reason that Carranza forces are not there in sufficient number to relieve the menace and that if a similar situation should arise in the United States his offer of co-operation will be accepted.

El Paso, Tex., March 11.—The train which was to carry out the 500 Mormons from their colony near Casus Grandes has not started and will not start until a sufficient escort arrives from the garrison at Chihuahua City according to General Gavieta, commanding at Jaurez, to-day.

CAPT. GARCIA DIES Columbus, N. M., March 11.—Captain Pablo Garcia, the wounded Villa officer, died to-day. Civil authorities had indicted Garcia among the Mexicans against whom they planned to place charges of murder as a result of the raid.

Central Penna. Notes Millersburg—A number of girls surprised Miss Anna Boyer at her home in North street, by giving her a farewell party on Thursday evening.

New Germantown—Joseph Gutshall, aged 23 years, died at his father's home, at Seagertown, Toboynce township, on Wednesday morning.

Carlisle—As the result of a stroke of paralysis sustained some months ago, Mrs. Rebecca Landis, formerly of Harrisburg, died here yesterday, aged 92 years.

STRONG FOL STATION SITE "An ideal location for a freight station," remarked George Dallas Dixon, vice-president of the Pennsylvania Railroad in charge of the traffic department, who, with William B. McCaleb, superintendent of the Philadelphia Division, and A. E. Buchanan, division passenger agent, inspected the South Harrisburg site to-day.

Col. Slocum Comes of Fighting Family Redmond Reports Excellent Sales on the Two Sixes The new Chandler models are meeting with greater favor than ever before, according to Andrew Redmond, distributor for Central Pennsylvania. The sweep and grace of the new tonneau-cowl is a feature that commands admiration. No front seat project abruptly above the body, but permits a sort of continuity of line that is pleasing. Mr. Redmond took on the agency for the Chandler in 1914 and has placed fifty-four in the immediate vicinity since then. The Little Oakland Six has caught the fancy of twenty-one admirers who have placed their orders for Spring delivery. This little six enjoys the distinction of having a horsepower rating that permits a $5 license, although it develops 30 to 35 horsepower. The Northway motor weighs 2,100 pounds and has small bore, long stroke cylinders said to develop exceptional power. With four passengers the little Oakland easily negotiated the Derry street hill on high gear.

Coughing spells are eased and relieved by Brown's Bronchial Troches which soothe the throat and bronchial tubes, allaying irritation, contain no opiates and are free from any habit-forming element. The Little Oakland Six allows you to test this reliable cough remedy at small expense. Regular sales at $25, 50c and $1. Sold by all druggists.
