ISSUE PERMIT FOR ERECTION OF NEW STORE

Proposed Market Street Business Place to Cost $30,000; Ready October 1

store will be ready for occupancy by October 1 unless the weather man or me untoward conditions should com Salkin, the proprietor.

The permit for the construction of day and called for a four-story modfireproof, up-to-date structure orn, fireproof, up-to-date structure at 30 Market street at a cost of $15,000. The actual cost of the building will brobably amount to $30,000.

Mr. Salkin operates a string of tores, although his big place of business just now is at Saxton, Pa. His blans call for the erection of a desartment store in this city that will ompare favorably with modern structures of the kind throughout the county. The name is still in question, although it is not unlikely that the new blace of business will be known as Salkin's Subway Store."

The seeds of strawberries, rasp-berries, figs, grapes are "indigestible" just as the bran of wheat is "indigestible" just as the bran of wheat is "indigestible" is assumed to mean that in their journey through the body none of these substances is taken up by the body and transformed into tissue.

None of such substances is actually indigestible. In its course through the body the bran surrienders its soluble extractives which are taken up by the tissues and the residue which remains behind is a water absorber. As such it performs a most important and necessary function in the intestines—a function which will be fully described later on.

Talks On India Mosternan Hillows Stuc. O Oxford and Aller and Hillows Stuc. O Oxford Stucket S The session this morning was openied with the singing of several hymns, followed by prayers by a number of ministers. The first speaker was the Rev. L. B. Wolf, D. D., for twenty-five years a missionary in India. At present he is secretary of the foreign missions of the general synod of the Lutheran church. Mr. Wolf spoke of the various classes in India, the Erahmans, the middle class and the slaves. "In India," he said, "there are 79.000,000 Mohammedans and this Mohammedan religion presents to the Christian world, the supreme challenge. But many of them are not pure Mahammedans; neither are they true Persians. They have been brought into Mohammedanism by the sword and they may be shaken loose by Christianity. There are between thirty and forty millions of people in India who are not considered Hindus by the higher classes and in a few years 30,000,000 of these will be Christians if the church in this country does its part."

Mr. Wolf also talked of intellectual India and said that the country contains some of the brightest men in the world. These people, he continued are among the Brahmans. Some of these, according to the minister,

One More Week of STECKLEY'S Removal Shoe Sale

Because of an unavoidable delay in remodeling our new store at 1220 North Third Street, our removal will undoubtedly be delayed a week or ten days. This coupled with the fact that many customers could not be waited on during the rush of last week's business, has convinced us that another week should be devoted to our Shoe Removal Sale.

Big Price Reductions

Accordingly, we have extended the closing date of our sale to Saturday March 18th. If you were among those disappointed last week, we offer you one more week of money-saving shoe bargains.
