in the latter part of January when prices went crumbling. United States Steel, American Locomotive and Crucible led the early movement in the order named, with further gains, despite steady profit taking.

Features of greatest strength included Crucible, American and Baldwin Locomotive Railway Steel Springs, New York Airbrake, Marine, pfd., and the petroleums, advances ranging from 2 to almost 4 points. There were indications of a revival of public interest, commission houses reporting a general inquiry from interior points. Bonds were steady.
