OLD RECORDS TO GET A NEW HOME

Likely to Be Transferred to State Library For Examination and Preservation

DIXON SPEAKS TODAY

Opens the Housing Conference in Reading—Portrait of Justice Elkin

Discussion of the condition of the national archives at Washington which has been heard in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh lately is being noted here.

It is likely that a systematic examination of all the old records will be made one of these days and that they will then be sent to the State Library where they can be filed and indexed and placed where accessible to students of history and those interested in needed records.

It is likely that the State Secretary Patton will take up with representatives of the county fairs the propositions attending increase of state appropriations.

Complaint Dismissed.—The Public Service Commission dismissed the complaint of F. N. Bradley against the fares charged by the Pennsylvania Railroad from Fortieth street station to Broad street station, Philadelphia.

Present Portrait.—An oil painting of the late Justice John P. Elkin will be presented to the Supreme Court at a general session Monday by Attorney General Brown on behalf of the Elkin family.

Speaking at Reading.—Commissioner Dixon opened the State housing conference at Reading, Pa., today with a statement of what his department is doing to improve conditions.

Waters to Run.—Friends of ex-Lieutenant Governor L. A. Waters, of Scranton, say that he will be a candidate for Governor.

Sixth in Tobacco.—The Department of Agriculture bulletin announces that statistics show the State ranked sixth as a tobacco grower last year.

Bridge Approved.—The State Water Supply Commission last night approved the plans for a county bridge over the Conestoga, Lancaster county.

Limited to a Year.—The Public Service Commission has granted permission to the Westinghouse company to have grade crossings on two Pittsburgh streets for one year and one year only.

Buller Get Results.—Commissioner of Fisheries Buller yesterday completed an agreement with the Aetna Powder Company to install filters to purify water from the State.

1,200 GAIN IN METHODIST SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Central Penna. Conference at Altoona Hears of Rapid Growth

CONTEST SECRETARYSHIP

Rev. Anderson Re-elected Over His Opponent, E. R. Heckman, of Altoona

Special to the Telegraph. Altoona, Pa., March 16. — A gain of 1,200,000 members in the Sunday schools of the Methodist church during the last eight years was reported by the Rev. Dr. Edgar Blake, in his address at the anniversary meetings of the Boards of Sunday Schools and the Freedman's Aid society last night in the Eighth Avenue Methodist Church, Altoona.

For the first time in 30 years there was a contest over the secretaryship, the Rev. J. F. Anderson, of Milton, being opposed by the Rev. Edgar R. Heckman, of Altoona, the former being re-elected.

Dr. I. Garland Penn then spoke on the work being done by the Freedman's society for the negro race. At the opening session of the thirty-eighth annual Central Pennsylvania conference of the Methodist church, preliminary discussions indicated that the conference would favor Bishop Earl Cranston's plan for reorganizing the Methodist Episcopal church, the Methodist Protestant church and Methodist Church South.

SUB-CONSTABLE GOES TO PRISON

Friends of Frank Deeter Get Chance to Spring Time-Honored Jail Joke

When friends of Frank Deeter, of Middletown, t. d. day heard of Deeter's incarceration in the Dauphin county jail and what led to it, they let slip a certain tip-worn joke of the aldermen and police courts.

Deeter, it appeared, had been asked by Constable Heister Brandt to assist in the arrest of John Slesser, London-derry township, on charges of loutery.

Deeter, it is understood, wanted John Locked up awhile because he had significantly shown a revolver to several of Deeter's girl friends.
