"Brownatone" will give you a shade of brown or black that is more beautiful than any other shade you can get. It is simple and easy to use. Just comb or brush it into your hair. It can not be detected, will not rub or wash off, acts instantly, and is absolutely harmless. Careless Use of Soap Spoils the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it. The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mild coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use. One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage. You can get mulsified coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

HOW I CURED MY CATARRH TOLD IN A SIMPLE WAY

Without Apparatus, Inhalers, Salves, Lotions, Harmful Drugs, Smoke or Electricity
Heals Day and Night
It is a new way. It is something absolutely different. No lotions, sprays or sticky smelling salves or creams. No atomizer, or any apparatus of any kind. Nothing to smoke or inhale. No steaming or rubbing or injections. No electricity or vibration or massage. No powder; no plasters; no keeping in the house. Nothing of that kind at all. Something new and different, something delightful and healthy. You do not have to wait and linger and pay out a lot of money. You can stop it over night—and I will gladly tell you how—FREE. I am not a doctor and this is not a so-called doctor's prescription—but I am cured and my friends are cured, and you can be cured. Your suffering will stop at once like magic.

I Am Free—You Can Be Free
My catarrh was filthy and loathsome. It made me ill. It dulled my mind. It undermined my health and was weakening my will. The hawking, coughing, spitting made me obnoxious to all, and my foul breath and disgusting habits made even my loved ones avoid me secretly. My delight in life was dulled and my faculties impaired. I know that in time it would bring me to an untimely grave, because every moment of the day and night it was slowly yet surely sapping my vitality. But I found a cure, and I am ready to tell you about it FREE. Write me promptly.

RISK JUST ONE CENT

Send no money. Just your name and address on a postal card. Say: "Dear Sam Katz: Please tell me how you cured your catarrh and how I can cure mine." That's all you need to know. I will understand, and I will write to you with complete information, FREE, at once. Do not delay. Send postal card or write me a letter to-day. Don't think of turning this page until you have asked for this wonderful treatment that can do for you what it has done for me.

MUCH ENTHUSIASM AT BIG BANQUET

To Launch University Club With Members From Many Institutions of Learning

From the time the Sara Lerner orchestra of college men started things humming at the University Banquet held in the banquet hall of the Harrisburg Club to the late hour when all present had been themselves to join and support the proposed University Club when launched, there was not a quiet moment. "Old men with black hair and young men with white locks like my own," as President Sparks of State College said in the course of his remarks, fraternized together with the spirit of youth which only such a convivial gathering as last night's banquet could inspire.

Over one hundred graduates from many universities and colleges attended the banquet, while many more whom previous engagements prevented from attending, sent their regrets. The tables were arranged in the shape of a large E, with the speakers seated along the backbone of the E and printed cards with the names of the colleges represented marking the places of the different groups of colleges. The friendly spirit of rivalry and emulation in the matter of singing and cheering lent the impression of a well-organized bunch of freshmen tearing their lungs out for the college of their adoption, and staid professors and serious-minded lawyers were seen this morning to surreptitiously sneak into drugstores for the purchase of throat lozenges.

Rival Colleges Cheer One Another
The University of Pennsylvania and Cornell made the welkin ring with their hosts, Yale and Princeton sang and cheered together, and Lafayette and Lehigh outdid one another in cheering the lone member of the University of West Virginia, whose popularity grew as the evening progressed. The University of Munich, and University of Technology of England were represented. Southern Hay, a Yale graduate and member of the University Club of Pittsburgh, said after the banquet that it was the best University banquet it had ever been his good fortune to attend.

The Speeches
William H. Earnest was toastmaster and an uncommonly good one at that. His dry wit and easy manner belied his modesty as the first meeting several weeks ago when the club project received its first material impetus. His successive introduction of Dean Arthur Quinn of the University of Pennsylvania, President Sparks of State College, Headmaster Arthur E. Brown of the Harrisburg Academy and Dr. J. George Becht, superintendent of the State Hospital of Lehigh, were very apt. Each speaker as he rose to address the gathering was roundly applauded and given a cheer by one or another of the college groups and the rapid-fire, roasting talk of President Sparks, the quiet but forceful address of Headmaster Brown and the encouraging and enthusiastic speech of Dean Quinn, and lastly the "wonderful conquering of words and masterful command of the King's English," displayed by Dr. Becht all combined together to make up a list of speakers that gave weight and importance to the meeting and afforded much quiet amusement and many hearty chuckles at the frequent jokes, chestnuts and other things that were interspersed in the remarks. Dr. Becht in starting his speech announced that "he was somewhat embarrassed"—he was not allowed to continue, for his Lafayette conference immediately started up the familiar strain, "He's a liar, he's a liar, he's a liar, just now, etc." to the keen joy of the others. And so it went throughout the evening.

Long List of Guests
Special mention must be made of the splendid co-operation of the orchestra, which included a piano and a banjo; there was nothing started, no matter how tuneless or discordant that they did not follow and pick up on their instruments, and they were perfectly to the gaiety of the occasion. Mark T. Milnor, temporary secretary of the tentative organization, outlined the purpose and hopes of the many supporters of the club project. The following guests were present: Howard M. Bingham, Arthur E. Brown, B. J. George, Robert T. Fox, W. Y. Blanning, J. Harris Bell, William Barber, George W. Bauder, Ralph Baker, Mr. Bickley, C. C. Cocklin, C. H. Cummings, John C. Croff, R. C. Three Thousand Prisoners Die in One Russian Camp

Vienna, March 29.—"Less than thirty per cent. of the hundreds of thousands of German and Austro-Hungarian soldiers and civilians who have been carried to Siberia will return alive after the war is over."
This positive statement was made by Dr. Friedrich Meyberg, a publisher of Leinberg, who recently returned to his native town, after fifteen months of terrible suffering in a prison camp at Shigansk on the Lena in Northern Siberia.
With many other prominent citizens of Leinberg, Dr. Meyberg was carried off by the Russians when they took possession of the Galician capital in the first stages of the war.
Early in February of last year he reached Jakutsk, with several thousand other prisoners. From there he and his fellow sufferers were sent north over the frozen Lena to Shigansk a distance of about three hundred miles, in a temperature often thirty degrees below zero. Many of the poorly clad prisoners died from exposure on the way and hundreds of them were sick when they reached their destination.

"There were about seven thousand prisoners in the camp on the Lena," the publisher says, "their lot was awful. They received only scant supplies and there was no medical care for the sick and wounded."
About twenty of the unfortunates died daily during the months of April and May and matters became still worse when the terrible Siberian summer began. An epidemic of typhoid and swamp fever broke out and the death rate more than doubled.
"In August conditions became a little better, but up to October 1, when I at last received notice that my exchange had been agreed upon and I was started on my way to Yakutsk and Europe, over three thousand of the prisoners had died."
"Fifteen hundred others were in a hopeless condition and I fear that few of them are alive to-day."
"And Shigansk is not the worst hell in Siberia," Dr. Meyberg says in conclusion. "From prisoners whom I met on my journey to the Rumanian frontier I learned that conditions are still worse in some of the other prison camps. I repeat that when the war ends and the exchange of prisoners begins, it will be found that not thirty per cent. of the soldiers and civilians sent to Siberia are alive."
