Bowman's Brings to Harrisburg The Final Word in Women's Outer Apparel

Women who seek the accepted styles are coming to this store—and rightly, too. For here more than the mere superficiality of style is offered. The intelligence with which our garments are selected has been the result of study—not of our needs, but yours. We have not grasped at every "will-o'-the-wisp" to find something new. The logical new styles, made so by their foundation of designing, are the ones shown here.

Women have learned to expect from this store not alone the best styles, but all that goes with the best.

SPRING SKIRTS

Skirts have come into their own. The fashion of wide skirts gave a wonderful opportunity to designers to put their heart and soul into their work, which almost perished in the days of close-fitted skirts. How ardently they have embraced this privilege!

Of course everyone says full skirts, so they must be shirred at the waist for the slender, or with flare at the hips, suggesting panniers, and marvelous side pleats and tucks.

There are a host of good materials from which to select, taffeta silk and combinations continue quite popular, gabardines, serges, novelty mixtures, corduroys and stripes are very modish. Sport skirts are wonderful to behold, with real pockets, charming combinations of stripes and plain colors, and very English looking mixtures.

Prices, $2.98 to $12.50.

Ruffles and plaits are everywhere in evidence.

Popular shades are rose, dove, gray, navy, sage, brush green, biscuit and twilight blue.

$12.50 to $25.00

Women of Large Figure Are Invited To This Store

We have apparel of all kinds especially suited to stout figures.

Faithfulness to the smart stylish lines and excellence of tailoring have given our suits, coats, dresses, waists and undergarments for stout women a great popularity. With the new ideas youthful lines have not been sacrificed, and stout specialists have employed their utmost skill in giving grace and refinement to outer garments.

We are now specializing in large and odd sizes.

F rills, Capes, Sailor Collars and Tucks Are Some of Our Blouse Features

But goodness, that does not nearly begin to tell the whole story. Here and there, color effects are quite startling, but in the main the shades are quite demurely attractive.

An example of each is shown in two new models that have just arrived.

The one a crepe de chine of flesh with a small vestee of blue linen.

The other a striking blouse of georgette crepe in combination with blue which forms the bodice. Handsomely embroidered.

The assortments are not to be equalled, starting from $5.00.

CONFER ON BIG HIGHWAY MEET

Secretary McColgin to Visit Huntington to Make Final Plans For Gathering

E. L. McColgin, secretary of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce, will go to Huntingdon to-morrow to confer with E. M. C. Africa, president of the Chamber of Commerce in that town and arrange the final details for the meeting of William Penn Highway advocates in this city on March 27. At the conference, too, a program for the session will be drawn up. It is the intention of those men at the head of the movement to have the booster-meet here to decide on a permanent route through the city and also to effect an organization.

Mr. McColgin to-day mailed letters to the various towns along the tentative route of the proposed highway and asked that the names of those who will attend the session be sent here as soon as possible. Represented at the meeting will be commercial organizations, automobile associations, city and borough councils, county commissioners and in attendance also will be members of the Legislature in the districts through which the highway passes.

Among those who will attend the conference will be M. H. James and Senator Tomkins, of Elbensburg, and the county commissioners of Cambria county; W. H. Sponser, of New Bloomfield; Sherrard Ewing, of Reading; John Drass, secretary of the Holidaysburg Chamber of Commerce; and ten delegates, including Senator Snyder; George S. Mosser and Oliver Rother, of the Altoona Chamber of Commerce; the president and secretary of the Johnstown Chamber of Commerce and ten members of the Good Roads Committee; committee of ten of the Bellwood Chamber of Commerce; Richard Beaton and Jack Johnson, of Tyrone; John S. Eby and a committee of ten, of Newport; M. S. Hershey and Ezra S. Hershey, of Hershey.

Assisting the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce in the Highway movement are the chambers of commerce of Altoona, Bellwood, Holidaysburg, Huntingdon, Johnstown and Reading. The local chamber will be host to the various delegations and the rooms of the local organization in the Kunkel building will be placed at the disposal of the visitors. The sessions, one at 10 a. m., the other at 2:30 p. m. will be held in Fahnstock Hall in the Y. M. C. A. building.

O. I. A. BOOSTERS TO MEET
The Boosters Association, composed of councils of the Order of Independent Americans in Dauphin and Cumberland counties, will meet this evening in the hall of Melrose Council, Nineteenth and Derry streets.

THE MOOSE CALL

"Far through the wood comes the sound of her calling,
Calling me down to the deep flowing stream;
Sweet is her voice as the swift water falling,

Soft is her tone as the breath of a dream.
"Faintly I hear her. I push through the briars,
Twigs snap before me and branches are torn;
Swift do I run as the forest of fires,
Light is my heart as the breeze of the morn.
"Little white rabbit, leap out of my highway,
Fly little bird, with your whispering hum;
Down to the water through wood trail and byway
My love is calling and bidding me come.

"Louder her voice grows—she hears my tread beating,
Even the flowers and grasses make way;
Even the trees shall bow down to our meeting;
I am king of the forests to-day!
"Out in the water I creep—has she waited?
God of the woodland! 'Tis man come to kill.
Bright is the flash of the gun that I hated—
All of the forest is stricken—and still.
—Margaret E. Sangster, Jr., in The Christian Herald Almanac.
