

LAST DAY

More interesting, more entertaining, more valuable to every up-to-date housekeeper than a lecture on domestic science.

Scores of your neighbors have seen this demonstration at our store this week and learned how to cut their kitchen work in two.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS
 "A Peep Behind the Screen" will be the title of a seven-day feature produced by the Motion Picture Board of Trade of America in a monster National Exposition of the Motion Picture Industries in Madison Square Garden, New York, May 6 to 13. Leading film producers will have all their stars and favorites present every day for the "movie fan" to meet and talk to. A motion picture studio complete in every up-to-the-minute equipment will be installed, and photoplays staged and filmed daily, to give the public this peep into the hidden mysteries of the studios and the tricks of the property man and the producer. You will be able to have yourself taken in movies, which you will take home and show to your friends—you will see yourself as others see you. From all reports it should be a wonderful gathering.

William Cowper, character actor with Metro forces, and who has a prominent role with little Mary Miles Minter in "Dimples," wrote the leading campaign songs in this country for many years.

The assistant conductor of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra, Fritz Stahlberg, was at one time head of a great German military orchestra. A German military orchestra is composed of soldiers of musical talent, who are drilled just like other soldiers. In war time these musicians become part of the hospital corps, stretcher bearers, rendering first aid to the injured.

LOCAL THEATERS

Albert Spalding
 No brighter spot in the musical events of this city will outline the coming of Albert Spalding, the greatest of all American violinists, and his assisting artist, Loretta Del Valle, the well-known coloratura soprano. Mr. Spalding stands on a par with the greatest violinists in modern times as his recital will show. The most serious of critics have proclaimed him equal to the best, and some have gone so far as to state that he is excelled by none. He will play at the Orpheum this evening.

"The Night Before"
 One of the chief characteristics of the Scottish people is their strict adherence to principle. Harry Lauder, the world's greatest entertainer, is an example. It has always been a principle with him to play to the people. This season he has cost him thousands of dollars. And now that he has written a play "The Night Before," which comes to the Orpheum, Tuesday, matinee and evening, he is a full-fledged producer as well, and has insisted that most of his plays shall do any theatrical work on Sunday, even to the extent of depriving himself of a large sum of money. In fact, the proposed itinerary, consisting of thirty weeks, would yield a revenue of at least $1,000 for every Sabbath day of that time, were the company to play. So much for Scotch acquisitiveness when weighed in the balance against Scotch principle!

"The New Henrietta"
 There is a strong appeal in the announcement of the theater promising a performance of Bronson Howard's famous comedy, "The New Henrietta," with the five distinguished dramatic stars, William H. Crane, Thomas W. Ross, Maelyn Arbuckle, Amelia Bingham and Edith Taliaferro in the cast. This play is a definite value, sensitively weighed and the status of time and not found wanting. The critics and public have warned to the combination in a way to make it one of the most talked of and prosperous events of the present theatrical season.

"When the Crown-When the Ladies Act Like Babies"
 Even though you have seen all the clever one-act musical comedies that have been at the Majestic this season, you will want to see "The Fortune Seekers" and "The Ladies Act Like Babies" for the week-end. The real girls are with "The Fortune Seekers," most of them, at least, for it is the most pretentious act on the bill. The act is a musical comedy with special scenery and all that, and three comedians and the cutest prima donna are the principals of the piece, while a chorus of active girls give the whole with good songs. Directly contrasted to this offering is the thrilling performance of the Weiss Troupe, wonderful pole balancers and equilibrists. A bright and breezy flirtation skit is offered on the same bill by James and Bettie Morgan, a talented, youthful pair; Ryan and Riggs are a happy comedy pair with crisply new material, and the Nathano Brothers offer a mixture of laughs and thrills with a comedy roller skating and tumbling act.

GIVE PLAY AT HERSHEY
 Special to the Telegraph
 Annyville, Pa., March 17.—Players in the comedy "In Chancery," composed of third-year students at Lebanon Valley College, gave the play last night in the auditorium at Hershey.

YES—IT IS POSSIBLE TO STOP RHEUMATISM
 Rheumatism is a tormenting and stubborn malady. In some cases it yields to treatment which is without avail in other cases.

The darting pains, lame muscles or stiffened joints only disappear by gradually expelling the uric acid, and so many thousands have been relieved by the blood-enriching oil-food in Scott's Emulsion that you should give it a faithful trial. Scott's Emulsion acts as a powerful blood-purifier by increasing the red corpuscles and it strengthens the organs to carry off the acids which cause the trouble.

Try Scott's Emulsion. It cannot harm. It has helped thousands and may be exactly what you need. No Alcohol.

Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

The appearance at the Victoria to-day of George Beban in "The Pawn of Fate," will be of human interest exceptional interest story at Victoria. The motion picture patronage is a deluge of character types. Mr. Beban stands alone in the hundreds of thousands of motion picture enthusiasts who enjoyed his powerful impersonation in "An Allen," who he delighted the remarkable actor gives another vivid impersonation, unique in screen impersonations.

The story of "The Pawn of Fate" you will find in the picture. It is a scene of Normandy and leads its central character, Pierre, a peasant, who is the victim of a cruel hoax and that his supposed friend is the perpetrator of the deed and the clandestine admirer of Pierre's pretty wife.

From the beginning, the character of Pierre holds the entire sympathy of the spectators.

A Sure Way to End Dandruff
 There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.—Advertisement.
