portant bearing on their standing in the league. Central will play its final league game when it will meet Steelton Friday night at the Auditorium. Central needs this game to tie up the league standing with Reading. Because of the fast game that the Steelton crowd has been playing. Central will have to play its hardest to win.

Tech will go to Lancaster Friday and the winner of this game will be able to keep out of the cellar position. In case of a loss for the Maroon, they will have no opportunity of finishing higher than the last position. Camp Hill High has one more game on its regular schedule, Carlisle Tech being scheduled to meet the 'cross-river team.

Enola High School Wins Debate at New Cumberland

New Cumberland, Pa., March 18.—
Last evening the Church of God was well filled with an appreciative audience to hear the debate between the Enola and New Cumberland high schools. The church was decorated with the national colors and seated on the platform was the Enola high school orchestra, which rendered excellent music. The girls' glee club of the New Cumberland high school, under the direction of Miss Mary Btutorff, sang a number of selections. Professor J. K. Green presided. The debate was on the subject "Resolved, That military training should be compulsory in the public schools." The affirmative side was discussed by Wendell Houck and Dorothy Lenhart, of the New Cumberland high school, and the negative by Her Fisher and George Minnick, of Enola high school. The ludges were H. M. Bretz, of Harrisburg; the Rev. E. D. Weigle, of Camp Hill, and Professor M. O. Billow, of Harrisburg, who decided unanimously in favor of the negative.
